

The Democratic Watchman.

Natal History of the Black Man.

The Black Man emigrated to this free and plus kuntry about 200 years ago...

In these trips he seldom took his family with him, they were either allowed to remain at home...

Once in a while the Black Man would stray away to the cold and bitter North...

His guides would mourn for him then, and search for him; his family soon got reconciled to the loss.

Everybody sees, where he lived, that he was the happiest critter that had ever bin discovered yet...

But the Black Man is a very foolish critter. After 200 years of this bliss he grew cross to his guides...

He will find it very different from what it was before. He has to educate his own young ones now...

He is afraid the Black Man has made a mistake; if he has, it is a bad one, for his guides will never take him into their hands again...

It perhaps would be well enough for me to state, for the benefit of new beginners, that the Black Man formerly resided in Africa...

A Match.

There is a story going the rounds of the boudoirs of Paris about a handsome man about 60 years of age...

One the evening, having no other engagement, he accepted an invitation to a reception at Madame Saint Ildehouse de Pieroeville's.

He went to the ball, passed a charming evening, and devoted himself exclusively to a beautiful young blonde who attracted the attention of the company.

After a few instants of reflection and some preliminaries relating to the contract, the marriage was arranged...

A glass of water was on the table by the bedside, he dropped his eye into it. The next morning as soon as it was light...

"Perhaps you find me changed," said our friend "It is my happiness—Think of it, my friend: I am married, to the most delicious blonde—such hair such eyes!"

"Of course as she is blonde. I, you could only see her eyes!" "I see one of them now, and if your memory fails you, you have only to look in the glass to see her eyes before you!"

"O horrors! his right eye was black and full of fire, but his left eye was blue, languishing, and tender.

"In the glass of water were two eyes, but they did not belong to the same person.

A Precious Lot.

HOOSLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOSLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Dropsy of the Kidney, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY. Resulting from any Cause whatever: prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of these Bitters or Tonic, a relief that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTE.—It is a well-established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN. Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

TESTIMONIALS. Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes: Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hoosland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward."

Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, April 28, 1868.

"I consider Hoosland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify that from my experience of it. Yours, with respect JAMES THOMPSON."
