THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY

Col Campbell of the Altona Predictor will consider our hat off. What d'ye take Colonel?

Able Speakers will address the people at the Democratic Club Room, in Bush's Arcade, on Saturday evening next.

The Albright campmeeting near Linden Hall, on Sunday last was largely attended, and blessed with the best of order.

The track on the new fair grounds will be one third of a mile in length, it will be ready for use during the coming week.

If the water tax in this place keeps going up, it will be cheaper, for our people to start a brewery and use beer.

We understand that the Bellefonte Brass Band, is again begging money to buy music and instruments, to reorganize. What was done with that raised last fall?

The regular meeting of the "Democratic Association," will be held at the club rooms, to-morrow Saturday evening. Able speakers will address the audience.

Court will continue but one week during the August session. Jurors suspended for the second week will be gratified on learning that they need not attend.

The police have had a busy old time during the past ten days. Rowdyism is rampant at times, but the prospects are, that like its twin brother, radicalism, it will play out.

One who professes to know, tells us that thirty five dogs, became victims of the "dog five," stuff that somebody scattered about the streets last week and the week before.

We understand that a special train will leave this place on Sunday morning the 30th for the district campmeeting at Wayne Station in Clinton county, and return the same evening.

Since the first of June over thirty arrests for Drunkenness and disorderly conduct have been made in this place. The fines and costs in these cases have amounted to over two hundred dollars.

The corner stone of the New Lutheran Church of Pleasant Gap will be laid (God willing) next Sabbath a week Aug. 30th, at 10 A. M. The public are respectfully invited to be present.

The mountains between this and Snow Shoe were set on fire by some means or other on Saturday last, and it was feared for a time that it would result in the destruction of the trestle work of the S. R. rail road.

The Democrats of Benner township organized a Seymour and Blair Club on Saturday night last, with Ex-Sheriff Conley as president, Benj. Hunter treasurer and Ad. Wagner secretary. Benner will give one hundred Dem. majority this fall, and the rads know it.

We have been furnished with the details of the revolting scapple, referred to a few weeks since, and may be tempted when matters count down a little to give the public an inkling of what it is, in order that the incredulous may see to what depths of depravity human beings may fall.

There will be no preaching in the Methodist Episcopal Church on next Sabbath morning Aug. 29th.

The services of the day will consist of an Experience Meeting at 9 1/2 a. m. Sunday School at 2 p. m. and preaching in the evening at 7 1/2 by Rev. E. Butler of Milesburg.

On Tuesday last a little boy of Isaac Miller was thrown down, by some young scoundrel, he did not know and had his arm broken on the curb-stone.

The little fellow was perfectly innocent and in such distress that we could not keep from contrasting him with the young sons of Satan who infest this town. If the miscreant who injured him was known the Home of Refuge for a few years would be too good for him.

After eighty seven years spent in hard labor and hard fighting, Simon Hirschler died at No. 407 Wood street, on Wednesday. For eight years he served with honor under the First Napoleon. And so brave and deserving of honor was he, that for six of the eight years he acted as one of the body guard to the great military chieftain, serving with him during the whole of the Russian campaign. It was during the operations in and around Mexico that he was shot in the leg. Some five years ago, the ball was extracted by physicians in this city. His funeral takes place to-day.—Age.

The subject of the above, was father of Mr. Jacob Herschler of this place.

"A RUNIST."—It seems that mongrelism has taken a new turn, here in our county. They have tried running on "principle," tried the "nigger," the "knave," the soldier and every thing else they could find and have now come down to long legs and swift heels, as their only hope. Their candidate for Surveyor Mr. Treziyulny is not only a "line runist," but a deer "runist," and they think because he has run lines in the woods and deers through the fields that he can run the political race just as successful.

To prove that he is a "runist," a swift successful, extraordinary "runist," we need only give an instance as told by himself. Says Mr. Treziyulny:

"About the last of July, 1844, a party of us were taken in hay from a field a little peice above Milesburg. We had just come out from dinner, and I was bantering one of the men to run a foot race, while the rest was tryin' to keep cool in the shade, for it was thundring hot, when close along the fence at the upper side of the field some one spied a stavin buck trottin' along at his leisure. They hollered to me that if I wanted to show how fast I could run to give that deer a race. I looked up and saw that he was about twenty rods ahead and off I put, the deer saw me and started as fast as he could. At first he beat me a little but I had good wind and I determined not to give it up. So out of that field into another we went I gaining on him all the time, and the crowd hollerin' "go it Henry," Pretty soon we came to an other fence and I saw by the way the deer jumped that his wind was givin out a little faster and down to it he had ran half way across the next field, I jumped astraddle of his back and had him."

"But you don't expect us to believe a story of that kind do you Henry," said one of the men to whom he was telling it.

"Most assuredly I do. Why gentlemen I could have caught a half a dozen deers that day, I felt so supple and there was a thick crust on the snow so that I could run on top and the deer broke through."

If this incident just as it was told by the abolition candidate for county Surveyor to a party of gentlemen in this town, is not sufficient to prove that he is qualified to "run" on the mongrel ticket we have no idea what would qualify him better. "Go it Henry."

Proud of it.—Centre county may well be proud of its "Agricultural Society" for, in the entire state—we will not except Chester Bucks, Lancaster, or any of the large agricultural counties—there is no organization of men devoted to agriculture who take a deeper interest in whatever tends to Agriculture, Horticulture or stock raising, than do the gentlemen who represent the "Centre County Agricultural Society." During the past eight years when so many "Societies" have gone out out of existence on account of war, excitement, high taxes and hard times, ours has been steadily growing and the middle of September will find it owning one of the finest fair grounds, with track, stails and buildings complete, that the commonwealth can boast of. It will be a fair ground, worthy one of the most productive counties in the State, a fair ground that our farmers and mechanics may well feel proud of. And to the energy and untiring perseverance of the members of the "Agricultural Society," will our county be indebted for this improvement. They have stood by the interests of the farmers and mechanics when encouragement was withheld and their efforts to found an organization on a firm basis was generally believed to be fool hardiness. But they have succeeded, and all honor to them! Let the farmers and mechanics now recognize and acknowledge the benefit the county has derived and will continue to derive from the success of the "Society," and lend it a helping hand. Encouragement goes a great way in securing success: It is this the "Agricultural Society" needs. It wants the good will of every farmer—the approval of every mechanic. It wants a magnificent exhibition this fall and our people can, should and we know will make it such. Let them then begin their preparations now. Let every one furnish something from the farm, the shop or the mine for exhibition—something worth seeing—and our county can be proud of its fair as it is boastful of its beautiful scenery, mineral wealth, and rich soil.

Every body in this section knows J. C. Stone—the lively, witty, inimitable Stone—or at least if they don't know him, it is time they should. He is located now at 242 N. 3d St., Philadelphia, with S. A. Wertz Importer and dealer in pure wines and liquors, and we will guarantee any of the readers of the WATCHMAN in want of a pure article of liquor, that they will not be deceived if they send to, or call on him.

They made her a grave too cold and damp For a soul so honest and true. If they had been wise, the dire necessity of opening the grave for one so lovely might have been averted. Plantation Bitters, if timely used, are sure to restore the young and lovely, the middle aged and the ailing, from confirmed sickness. Almost all diseases have their beginning in some slight difficulty of the stomach, which would eventually in Dyspepsia, Headache, Liver Complaints, Night Sweats, Consumption, Death. Plantation Bitters will prevent these preliminary symptoms, and keep the blood pure and the health good. While they invigorate the system, they enliven the mind.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.

The next term of this institution will open on WEDNESDAY, September 2nd, in the north wing of the Academy building, the room is being thoroughly repaired and furnished, and will be ready for use by the opening of the term. The Board of Trustees take pleasure in announcing that they have engaged as Principal, the Rev. James P. Hughes, formerly of the Edgehill School, Princeton, New Jersey. Mr. Hughes is a graduate of Princeton College and Seminary, and has had fifteen years successful experience as an instructor. He has devoted himself to teaching as the business of his life. The Trustees invite the patronage of the public in the full confidence that this school now offers unusual advantages for thorough and judicious instruction. The Principal and his family will reside in the Academy, and it is the intention to provide accommodations for boarding pupils, as they may be required. The estimate put upon the abilities of the Principal, both as a teacher and a disciplinarian, by those well qualified to judge, may be seen from the following testimonials selected from a number of like imports in an Edgehill catalogue. From Rev. P. D. GURLEY, D. D., Pastor of the New York Avenue Church, Washington, D. C. January, 19th 1866

I am well acquainted with the Rev. James P. Hughes, of the Edgehill School, New Jersey, and have had two sons under his care. It is with general confidence that I recommend him to parents as a thorough and efficient teacher, exerting a happy influence on his pupils, and judicious in the administration of discipline. P. D. GURLEY. From Lafayette College, Lafayette, Pa. July, 1859.

I have known Mr. Hughes intimately for a number of years. He was one of the Assistant Instructors during a part of the time I was at Edgehill, and having thus had ample opportunities of observing his character and qualifications, I am the more willing to express my high opinion of his thorough and effective teaching, and his unusually happy influence over his pupils. In this latter respect Mr. Hughes has, in my opinion, no superior, and but few equals. W. C. CATTELL. From Rev. Alex. L. McGILL, D. D., Professor in the Theological Seminary, Princeton June, 30th 1859.

I have great confidence in the Rev. James P. Hughes as a good teacher, both in his aptness to give instructions, and his tact in the administration of discipline. I have had two sons under his care, and from the most careful observation, I am free to recommend the school as one of safe and thorough instruction. ALEX. T. MCGILL. From Rev. CHARLES HODGE, D. D., Professor in the Theological Seminary, Princeton June 20th 1859

I have for several years been acquainted with the Rev. James P. Hughes, Principal of the Edgehill school, Princeton, N. J. I believe him to be a faithful and competent teacher, sincerely devoted to the instruction and welfare of his pupils. CHARLES HODGE. For terms and further particulars application may be made either to the Principal or to Rev. ALFRED YOUNG, 13 31-41 President of the Board of Trustees.
