

The Democratic Watchman.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC MEETING!

General Stephen J. Meany AND HON. RICHARD VAUX, Speak at BUSH'S HALL, this (Friday), Evening.

Let there be a grand rally of the Democratic, Conservative and other citizens to hear these distinguished orators.

Don't fail to go to Bush's Hall and hear VAUX and MEANY speak to-night.

A very desirable House and lot in Bellefont is offered for sale on easy terms see advertisement of Mrs. M. A. Snyder.

GENERAL STEPHEN J. MEANY, the Fenian General, who has just been released from an English prison, speaks at Bush's Hall to-night.

ORGAN DEDICATION.—The large new pipe organ of the St. Johns Reformed church at Bushburg will be Dedicated on Sunday the 11th of October. Services to commence at 10 a. m. and to be conducted in both languages. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

FOR AMUSEMENT.—We understand that Sherry's Theatre will open for a short season at Bush's Hall, to-morrow (Saturday) evening. This company has been performing for years in the large cities of the State, and at every place, has received the warmest commendations of the press. It is a first class company, and will give their patrons, which we hope will be many, the full worth of their money. Go and see them.

DEMOCRATS BE ON YOUR GUARD!

Radicals Attempting to Force Negro Suffrage upon the People of Centre County

A Radical Assessee places the Names of three Negroes upon the list of voters in Patton Township

Negroes to Vote or White Men to be Whipped!

We have been informed by several gentlemen who read the names upon the list, that Benjamin Miller, Miller and Henderson Stanton, three full blooded negroes have been assessed and placed upon the list of voters in Patton Township. We heard it rumored weeks since, that an effort would be made to vote these negroes at that poll, and that the threat was made that if any Democrat interfered, he would get his nose smashed. The fact that their names appear upon the list of voters, is evidence sufficient that an attempt to force negro suffrage upon the people of this county, will be made by the radicals of that place, and we hereby warn the white men of that vicinity to be ready for any emergency that this attempted outrage may occasion. Negroes have no right to vote in Pennsylvania, until radicalism strikes from our State Constitution the word "white," which they tried to do last winter, but failed. Let Democrats see that the purity of the ballot box is preserved. This attempt at making negro voters in Patton township, is but the first out-cropping of a scheme to force the white men of the state to submit to negro suffrage at every voting place.

Will the honest white men of Centre county, who have voted with the radicals, longer adhere to and support a party that attempts to make negroes voters here in our midst, contrary to law, contrary to the wishes of the people and in open violation of their oaths of office? Will they vote for a party that threatens to "smash a white man's nose," if he does not willingly agree to negro suffrage? What think you of it, honest republicans of Centre county!

An Enthusiastic Meeting—Mechanics, Laborers &c. turn out en-masse—Great Rally for Seymour and Blair.

ZION, Sept 30th, 1868. Mr. Meany.—Never did a larger and more enthusiastic crowd of people assemble in the beautiful town of Zion, than last evening. Long before the organization of the meeting, the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by a surging sea of enthusiastic Democracy, the black Republicans were also well represented. The Democracy of adjoining Townships sent in large delegations, which were received with vociferous cheering and waving of kerchiefs by the "Ladies of 'Nittany Valley'" were present in "all their beauty" and I am proud to say they can scarcely be excelled in this last virtue. The meeting was organized by appointing Hon. William Robison President, Capt. W. Schaffer Vice President and Dr. Phillip S. Fisher Secretary. After the Democratic brass band played several patriotic and soul stirring pieces of music the President addressed the audience in a few forcible and felicitous remarks, upon the conclusion of the introductory speech he presented to the sea of up-turned faces the indomitable Thomas Baker, Esq., of Lewisburg, Union Co. Mr. Baker in coming upon the stand was received with loud and vociferous cheering. In opening his speech he complimented his old friends and continued in a strain of eloquence and argumentation reasoning unsurpassed and unsurpassable. His remarks were interspersed with anecdotes that convulsed the audience with laughter, every allusion to Seymour and Blair our gallant standard bearers, was rapturously applauded. His great oratorical abilities, his undimmed devotion to Democratic principles and his uncompromising opposition to the destructive measures of the radicals were never shown to a better advantage than last evening, the rebuke he administered to the radicals, though respectful, was justly severe. He enchaind the audience for nearly two hours with his logical force.

Mr. Kreps of Bellefonte followed and in his mild and pleasant manner, demonstrated with good effect the late Reconstruction act and &c. He also explained the meaning of the naked and hypocritical prayer of Gen Grant "Let us have peace, he showed that whilst the radicals make great cry "peace" they are getting ready for a war. Adam Hoy Esq. made a closing and impressive speech.

OSCEOLA, PA, Sept. 28th 1868. HON. WATKINSON.—I left Bellefonte on Friday morning last, in company with our candidate for President Judge of this judicial district, C. A. Mayer Esq., and arrived in Philipsburg before noon. The rain poured down in torrents all day long, and we had little opportunity of looking about. Several prominent Democrats called upon us during the day at the hotel of ex-sheriff McCoy, where we were stopping and gave us most favorable accounts of the political condition in their locality. In the evening we proceeded to the hall where meetings are wont to be held, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, it was soon filled as full as was comfortable. I had the pleasure of addressing the people of Philipsburg for the first time, in my humble way, upon the interesting and important political issues now before the country, and was followed by Mr. Mayer in a very able, interesting and instructive speech. The Democracy of the place manifested great interest in the meeting, and are evidently working in earnest for a good result in October. By Saturday morning the rain had ceased, and we were able to get about a good deal in the afternoon. When the train arrived from Tyrone we had the pleasure of meeting ex-governor Bigler and our gallant candidate for Surveyor General Gen. Wellington H. Egan who were on their way to attend a mass meeting in Clearfield on the 29th inst. They gave most favorable reports of the political situation wherever they have been.

In the afternoon we took the train for this place, which, as you are aware is situated on the Clearfield county bank of the Moshan creek, four miles by rail road, above Philipsburg. We were met at the station by Mr. Lawshe, of this place, and our former townsman, Leverage G. Lingle Esq. We were most hospitably entertained by the former gentleman and his estimable lady at their elegant home. In the evening, we proceeded to the Democratic club room, where we found a large congregation of ladies and gentlemen who had met to reason and be reasoned with upon the great political questions of the day. I must say that I was most agreeably surprised to meet so refined and intelligent an audience in the "back woods." No town in the State of the same population can excel this little borough of Osceola in these respects. The ladies were out in force, and gave their refining and delicate influence to cheer and soften the harsh and oftentimes bitter feelings of gentlemen in a political contest. It is always pleasant to meet the gentler sex anywhere, but nowhere is their influence upon men more useful or more pleasant than at political meetings. I am glad that it is becoming more fashionable than formerly for them to attend such meetings, and I hope that I may meet many of them wherever I may be called to speak. Mr. Mayer and I addressed the people in the same order we had done the evening before. The Democracy manifested great enthusiasm and it has never been my pleasure to attend a more pleasant political meeting.

The club room is a temporary building of rough boards, of good proportions, and calculated to seat comfortably three hundred and fifty people. It is a perfect little structure in every respect for the purpose it was erected for, and speaks well for the activity and energy of the Democracy of this place. It was nicely lighted up, decorated with evergreens, carpeted with clean saw dust, and altogether much better and more comfortable for a meeting than one of our close rooms in larger places. It is christened the "bee hive," and for a while I could not see the propriety of the name, but when the whole club assembled and I saw their enthusiasm and energy in the cause it was no longer strange. They have no drones in the hive, but are all "workers," and I could ask for no surer guarantee of success in the approaching election than the knowledge that the Democracy everywhere were working as actively and efficiently as they are in Osceola. J. A. Wattenberger Esq., is president of the club, a perfect gentleman and an active and influential citizen. John Lawshe Esq., and our old friend L. G. Bing are also most efficient members, and together with many others whom I only know by the work I saw them perform in one evening, are doing their whole duty to secure a Democratic triumph in October. This place owes much to the energy and perseverance of Mr. Lawshe, who is widely known as an able and fearless advocate of Democratic principle and is in addition a kind and courteous Christian gentleman.

Altogether our trip thus far has been a most agreeable one. Rush township and Philipsburg borough are thoroughly roused up, and will send us a good contingent of themselves after the October election. Party lines are tightly drawn, and the strife is fierce and bitter, both parties claim a majority in the borough but I think there is little doubt that the outcome will result in our favor.

J. P. M.

HOWARD, PA, Sept. 23d 1868.

Mr. EDITOR:—A Democratic meeting was held in this place on yesterday evening, and notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather, the school house was packed full to overflowing. John P. Mitchell first addressed us for an hour and a half in an eloquent and able manner. He expounded the weakness of the radical notions of "reconstruction," and followed up by pulling to pieces their system of taxation and showing its dishonesty and inequality. He was followed by Gen. Wm. H. Blair in a most telling speech on all the issues now before the people. While carefully avoiding anything calculated to stir up the bitter feelings of the opposition, he nevertheless scathingly exposed their hypocrisy and dishonesty in a most sarcastic manner. The effect of the meeting was good, and though there are many ugly influences, including large iron works, against us here, we expect to hold our own.

A meeting of the citizens of Belle and Harris townships residing near Thomas' school house was held on Monday evening the 21st ult. John P. Mitchell Esq., of Bellefonte first addressed the meeting in a speech of over an hour, in which he utterly annihilated the radical plans of "reconstruction" he barely alluded to the financial issues upon the other question, and was followed by John H. Orvis Esq., in one of his overwhelming speeches against the financial system of the radicals. The meeting was well attended, both parties being very well represented, the Democratic brass band discoursed lively music and the best of feeling prevailed, you may expect a good report from this locality on the second Tuesday.

An impromptu meeting of the Democracy of this town and vicinity was held in the Court House on Thursday evening last, after their return from the mass meeting at Centre Hall. Although but a few hours notice had been given, the room was well filled with a large and attentive audience. We were glad to see the occasion graced by the presence of ladies, who, when they interest themselves in any subject, always stimulate men to greater exertions—induce them to put forth their full strength—in order to triumph in any cause which they know to be right. The meeting was called to order by the appointment of Col. W. H. Blair as President, Maj. Harry Foster and Col. J. F. Weaver as Vice Presidents, and J. H. Dobbins and P. Gray Meek as Secretaries. Col. Blair thanked the meeting for the compliment conferred in a neat and appropriate speech. He then introduced the Hon. L. A. Mackey, the Democratic candidate for Congress, to the audience. His remarks were listened to with great attention. He placed himself squarely upon the Democratic platform and his work on ability as a humorist gave the portion of his remarks relating to the land question peculiar significance and great importance. He believes that the wealth and capital of the country should pay their just and lawful share of the public burdens, and that our government should make any discrimination let it be in favor of the labor of the country. To say that Mr. Mackey made a favorable impression here would be a very mild term of praise. Democrats were enthusiastic for him and Republicans were heard to speak of him with respect and admiration. He was followed by Gen. McCandless, of Philadelphia, whose military record is as bright as any soldier's in the service. He was commended with the Pennsylvania Reserves, and entertains a profound admiration for his old commander, Gen. McClellan whom he did with him, the hardships and perils of the Pennsylvania campaign. The views of the General on Reconstruction evidently made a strong impression on his hearers. He thought when he last saw his sword, when the Southern people were willing to acknowledge the supremacy of the United States government—that then our duty was to treat them with justice, and not force upon them, "down to the sea" as they were, the infamous measure of negro suffrage and negro equality. The meeting was entertained by music from the L. C. Hay and Bellefonte bands. Adjourned with three cheers for Seymour Blair and Mackey.
