

The Democratic Watchman

BELLEFRONTE, PENN'A.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 30 1868.

TERMS - $2 per year when paid in advance...

National Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT. HORATIO SEYMOUR OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR OF MISSOURI.

ELECTORS AT LARGE. GEORGE W. CLAY, WILLIAM V. MCGRATH DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- 1. C. E. Kameery M D 13 Jesse C Armerman, 2. C. M. Leisenring, 14 Wm P Wilmington, 3 Simon W. Arnold, 15 Wm R Gorges, 4 George R. Berrell, 16 Wm P Schell, 5 H R Cogshall, 17 Cyrus L Pershing, 6 Reuben Stahl, 18 A C Noyes, 7 R E Monaghan, 19 Wm A Galbraith, 8 David L Weirick, 20 John R Packard, 9 Barn J M Givanni, 21 James C Clarke, 10 William Shick, 22 James H Hopkins, 11 A G Broadhead Jr, 23 Edward S Golden, 12 John Danding, 24 Samuel B Wilson

A Prize Banner from the State to Cost $500.

I am directed by the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, to offer to the county, giving in November the largest per centage of increase over its Democratic vote in October...

Mistook the "Time of Day."

In November 1867, the New York Tribune, the leading organ of the Bondholders party, declared as follows...

It then proceeded to say that the nomination of Grant would be a virtual surrender of every principle of the Republican party...

It then proceeded to say that the nomination of Grant would be a virtual surrender of every principle of the Republican party...

The people therefore, will take care that Grant shall not be elected...

Stand by Your Colors!

Let every Democrat, every Conserver, every man with the blood of a true white man in his veins, rally to the standard of Seymour and Blair on the 1st of November...

Shall the Country or the Radical Party Survive?

Before casting his ballot next Tuesday every reader of the WATCHMAN should ask himself this momentous question—shall the country or the Radical party survive?

A Last Word.

Go to the polls on Tuesday, fellow citizens of Centre county, and declare against the Radical heresy that the military power in time of peace may be made superior to the civil power...

The Supporters of the Radical Party.

After the descendants of the "Pilgrim-fathers" had made all they could out of "human slavery," they sold the remnant of their "human chattles" to the people of the South...

Relief to the Country.

By sending those filthy and destructive elements back to their dens of darkness, but, knowing this, they react, with their storm-acquired power, upon the waves of passion and prejudice...

The Radical "Policy" Condemned.

In his testimony before the Rump Impairment Committee, some time before his nomination for the Presidency, Gen Grant said...