COLR CORR BYTZYM!

This long tried and popular Remedy is again called to the attention of the public. As often as the year rolls around, the proprietors annually make their bow to the prople, and remind them that amongst the many things required for the bealth, comfort and sustonance of the family through the long and tedious months of winter Coo's Cough Balsom should not be forgotten. For years it fins been a household medicine—and mothers apxious for the safety of their child-ren, and all who suffer for any disease of the throat, chest and longs, cannot afford to do without it. In addition to the ordinary for once so long in the market, we now fur-nish our mamoth family size bottles, which will, in common with the other sizes, be found at all Drug Stores.

FOR CROUP,

The Balsam will be found invaluable, and may always be relied upon in the most exreme cases
