THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

——The election in this place passed off without a single row—rather strange

——Taffy and cotillion parties are the rage hereabouts at the present time

——A lively time is expected at the race course on Wednesday next.

——Sherry's Theatre is now at Lock Haven.

——The Bellefonte Rads are going for Pete Herdic for Governor next fall.

——Game is said to be plenty in the regions hereabouts the present season

——The last account we had of it, the Agricultural college had fifteen students

——The corn crop that is now being gathered in this section will not average over a half crop

——The Presbyterians are making arrangements to erect a church on Buffalo Run.

——The fall crops—wheat especially—look exceedingly well the present season.

——Several members of the Good Templar order were pukeing drunk in this place on Tuesday night last.

——E F Bottorf, esq., of Harris township, husked in his field an ear of corn measuring in circumference 10½ inches, and containing thirty two rows

——Some of the largest potatoes we have seen this present year, was presented to us on Tuesday last, by C. Cambridge, esq., of Benner township.

——Bald Eagle Valley wants a poor house. It would like the Democrats of Penns Valley to keep the poor devils along there who live only to vote for loggers and taxes

——It is said that the managers of the Snow Shoe and Bald Eagle Valley Railroads, are stirring up the people to repeal the bill compelling them to fence their roads in this county

——A young Radical of Howard township who voted at the Howard and Liberty precincts at the October election, boasting that the second vote after him, cast by the county for the county ticket

——A little rumpus in the "happy family" that runs the radical organ up town, occurred a few days since, in which one of the pretended proprietors picked up a shot-gun and attempted to open the head of the editor of that sheet, in consequence of which, he seceded from the concern, and has now made arrangements to start a paper of his own.

——Under the auspices of W. W. Brown and A. Boyd Hutchison, Esqrs. a new Radical paper is to be started in this place in the course of a month.
