

The Democratic Watchman.

The Josh Billings Papers. AN ESSAY ON LONG BRANCH Long Branch is a work of nature and is a good job. It is a summer resort for men, women and children, especially the latter. Children are as plenty here, and as sweet as flowers in an out door garden. They play in the sand for work, and get their feet wet for fun. There is some attempt at style here, but the prevailing disease is good common sense, you can see this stick out in the way people take it natural and easy, and don't try to outstrip each other in wearing a fit clothes, and them exquise. I didn't see but one woman here who was dressed too economical and her dress was plenty long enough at the bottom, but the front side of her shoulders seemed to lack something. I put up at the Continental Hotel near the roof of the building from choice. I can say that this house is kept a good deal; without neutralizing my dignity, for I paid the same price that the rest of the boarders did for my vittles. I shall put up here again, when I can if I have to straddle the ridge pole. I never leave a good hotel for a better one, I learnt this fishing for frogs. If I am where the frogs bite good, that's my puddle. I have known folks to swap a good horse for a poor one, just for the sake of 10 dollars less boot. My wife put up with me at the same hotel; it is an old fashioned way, we have overdone things. She always goes to fashionable resorts, when young widowers are anywhere plenty, few put me on my guard, for I am one of the easiest critics on record to be imposed upon. She has saved me (by the bare of the head) more than sixty times already, from being spilt by the wadders. She is an ornament to her socks—my wife is. I would like to see a young widder, or any other man, get the start of me when I wife is around. If I just step out sudden few get a tender cocktail few cool an aching brow, my wife goes to the end of the verandah with me, and waits for me, if I go down onto the beach to astronomy, just a little, all alone by moonlight, she stands on the bluff, like a beacon light, few warn me of the breakers. No man whose feet are slippery, and who hasn't been accidentally insured against recent widowers, ought to be allowed on the Branch without a wife who understands her buzz. The hotels now are what with folks, all a whomack first rate, except the pecky olders, and I don't see anything new about them, but my wife do, and she knows. The biggest thing they have got here, for the present, is the pool of water, in front of the hotels. This pool is set big good judges to be 3,000 miles long, and sun place five miles thick. Into this pool every day at 12 o'clock, the folk all return, for females, and widowers, promiscuously. They dress in flannel attire, or meany colors, and look as neat alike when they are in the pool, as a flock of ducks and brakes. The water in this pool has stood so long it has got nearly salty, and ought to be changed, and I believe they have got a bill before the New Jersey legislature for that purpose, but New Jersey folks are shy about making experiments. They are always willing to invest a little something in a fool sure thing, but I don't think they will ever undertake to freshen the pool. The Greenian Crock is prevailing here, just as among the young lads. The head seems to be some where near the broad of their backs, and gives them a very intellectual look, the same as the ashunt grecks had altho I think their walk resembles few much a sore-footed goose. The turnouts are uncommen menny, and sick fun in hand are frequent. I had the especial honor of being slung around the beautiful avenues and through the queenly grounds of Mrs. Huoy bi four white-footed sorrels dressed in risset and white harness, and driven to an elegant drag by their owner, Prof. Eastman, ov po' keepsie. I get on the back seat as stiff as a hedgehog, and every body seemed to have their eyes close reefed on us. The Hon. Abiah Palmer of the New York senate, sat with the Professor, and the Rev. Henry Frost supported me. The bands of music in front of the different hotels played for us. I must say I felt a little big. And it ain't to be wondered at for I have been going in the habit of late years, ov being afoot, when I rode. The scenery here is grand, especially the pool, and the air is as bracing as a milk punch. The tables are full ov vittles, and the servants are as polite as dancing masters. I gave one of them a 50 cent whinplaster and he opened and shut in front of me for five minits, as easy as a jack nife that had been recently greased. Drink are reasonable especially out of the pool, and cigars must be plenty and cheap, judging from the vast concourse of stub ends being around loose on the lawn. The last touch of civilization has finally reached Long Branch. Sum enterprising missionary has just opened a club house, where awl kinds ov gambling is taught. I leave to tomorrow at 7 o'clock p m

Hoofland's Bitters.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the pure quality of Sweet Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. In those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructation, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swelling of the Throat, or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering of the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Pudden Flashes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits. The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies— HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Twenty two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public. These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Discharge of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines. DEBILITY Resulting from any Cause whatever prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years. WOMEN It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of weakness, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed. TESTIMONIALS Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes Philadelphia, March 16, 1867 "I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward." Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Philadelphia, April 28 1868. "I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect James Thompson." From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M.
