THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

——Most of the schools of this county will open on Monday next

——The radicals along Bald Eagle wanted "Grant and good times." They got Grant, now they want a poor house

——Capt. R. D. Cummings of the Eagle Hotel Philadelphia, was in town on Tuesday last.

——"Cousin Kate" will have to send her proper name before we can find place for her "Falling Leaves."

—— A splendid place to pass an evening—at the rooms of the Democratic Association

——Sportsmen are daily passing through this place, to the mountains in search of game As yet we have seen but one deer in the market

——We do not publish marriage notices unless forwarded by persons whom we know to be responsible. "A good Democrat," must let us know who he is, before we can insert the ones sent last week.

——If Doesticks were in Bellefonte a few days he would find no lack of friends There are more "Damphools" in the radical party in this place than in half the State put together There is scarcely one who voted for Grant, but is now an applicant for an official position

——The Democrats of Ferguson township can claim the honor (?) of leaving more voters at home on the day of the presidential election than any township in the county There are too many sound Democrats in that district to allow such a result to happen again.

——John A Stover, esq., formerly of this place has been elected Congressman, from the fifth Missouri district If he had brains in proportion to his brass, belly, and boots, he would no doubt be recognized as the leading member of the next Congress

——Our Democratic friends from the country, when in town over night, should not fail to visit the rooms of the Democratic Association The "latch string" is always out to them They will find papers and magazines from all parts of the country—a pleasant room, and a hearty welcome

——A valuable mare belonging to Mr. Joseph Alexander of Union township, was killed by the cars a few days since. If the rail road company refuses to pay for the horse Mr. Alexander will proceed in accordance with the act past last winter and collect the amount by law

——Our friend Blake Walters Esq of Clearfield, a fellow prisoner during the time we were in the United States service as a political prisoner at Harrisburg, paid us a short visit on Monday evening last Blake is just as sound a Democrat as ever and if times were as they used to be "under the benign reign of the 'late lamented,'" he would stand a good chance of again being theatened to for having courage and independence enough to say what he thinks of those in power

——Rev I C Long of Hublersburg who attempted to cast an illegal vote at the October election, has been amusing himself since distributing Salt river tickets to Democrats in that vicinity, the following is a copy of the ticket

Salt River Ticket. The holder of this ticket is entitled to one passage on the fast sailing steamer, "Rebel," Capt Seymour, and 1st, Mate Blair will leave loyalty wharf State of Pennsylvania on the evening of the third of November to join our brothers on a cruise of twenty years

N. P. None but first class Copperheads need apply as all Union men found on board will be murdered

W A Wallace, Commander.

——A big blow and bluster about the Centre and Mifflin county rail road, is just now being made, by a few persons in this vicinity. If they would spend the time they are talking about the thing, in trying to raise money to complete it, it would look considerably more like business We are as anxious to see the road built as any one can be, but we don't see the sense in trying to make people believe that it will be finished before the money to build it is subscribed If a few of our enterprising men would go into the matter heart and hand, it could be put through without much trouble, but as it is getting along now, it will end about where the Atlantic and Great Western did—with the route surveyed and not enough of money to pay the board bills of the engineerers.

Buffalo Run, Nov. 7, 1868.

P. Gray Meek, Esq—Dear Sir:—An effort has been made, on the part of a few abolitionists in this township to leave the impression, that, as township assessor I violated my oath of office by adding the name of my brother to the assess list after the time specified by law had expired. I would not notice this slander, were it not for the fact that those who do not know me may be led to believe, that my failure to deny it, is an acknowledgment of its truth. In place of there being any foundation of truth about it, it is a most unmitigated lie. My brother, who it is said I assessed the Sunday before the election has had his home with me all Summer he told me in the presence of two others to be sure and assess him, as he expected to make my place his home until winter set in. I told him I would attend to it, and when I went to put his name down, I remembered that the regular assessment had been returned to the Commissioner's Office on the 15th of June, and that he would have to be put upon the "ten day list" Shortly after he gave me orders to assess him he started to the western counties to by stock, and did not return until the Saturday before the October election,—looking over the regular list and not seeing his name upon it and not thinking of the "ten day list," he remarked to some one that "Ben had forgot to assess him and he would be cheated out of his vote" From this I suppose my political enemies started their report—they were mad because I had not neglected my duty and left his name off of the ten day list, and to satisfy a political animosity, they have taken up this lie, started I believe by John F Smith, a man who swears that "John Brown was the damndest smartest man in America," and are circulating it, to injure the party I have the honor to belong to, as well as myself There are many republicans in Benner township for whom I have the highest respect, and there are a considerable number who are so lost to all sense of honor, decency and truth, that they have no respect for themselves, and for whom I can certainly have none They are the men who take pleasure in slandering the characters of their neighbors—who knowing that they are telling a barefaced and cursed lie, are going about the country reporting that a "copperhead assessor on Buffalo Run, assessed his brother on Sunday before the election" They may yet have an opportunity of proving the reports they are now circulating and until they do, I pronounce any man who makes the assertion, a liar, a wilful, malicious and cowardly liar

Hoping that you will excuse me for trespassing upon your time, I am and shall remain

Yours Democratically
Benj F Hunter

——We notice in the radical paper, up street, of last week, a reference to a series of protracted meetings held by Rev Mr Love, in and around Beech Creek, where it is said, Cupid enjoyed himself The modesty of the loquacious sub of that paper forbade his reference to a series of meetings he held there not by himself, and which we have been credibly informed were most highly enthusiastic with the evidence as a most marked favor, but which lately by the way have been discontinued. Passing his open window the other night we heard this sad refrain.

"O, ever thus from childhood's hour,
I've seen my proudest hopes decays,
I never loved a tree or flower,
But 'twas the first to fade away
I never nursed a dear gazelle
To glad me with its soft blue eye
But when it came to know me well,
And love me, it was sure to die

Friend Meek.—Would you what the Red would I take for himself who tried to malign the character of his old Father in law by stating at the Unionville School House, on election day last, that the old gentleman never had any naturalization paper, not his father before him, which was a base falsehood. If the old gentleman had the misfortune to be as atlantic, he is now a man of seventy seven years, and a resident as well as a legal voter for the last fifty years in this country. Think he must have had a bad memory or cursed with the sin of ingratitude, if he did not remember the time the old gentleman advanced him the money to pay his commutation, when this rad had been drafted and was trembling in his boots. So much for radicalism

Worth Remembering.

Six are moments are the golden dust of time

"He who sends the storms, guides the vessels"

Matter has express opinions, few form them

Meekness and modesty are the rich and charming attire of the soul

Be much the God in secret, as He shall Be with you in public

No man has a right to do as he pleases, except when he pleases to do right

Think little of yourself, and you will not be injured when others think little of you

Tears are nature's lotion for the eyes The eyes see better for being washed with them

A thousand portions of pleasure do not balance one reflection worth that of a good action

He who is not willing to fill a place he is fitted for, will find no place fitted for him to fill

Sometimes a bit of false money, and he who passes it is frequently as bad as he who originally utters it.

When an extravagant man wishes to borrow your money, consider which of the two you had rather loose

Forget injuries and remember benefits, if you grant a favor, forget it, if you receive one, remember it

Divine love is like a rod of myrtle which, as Pliny reports, makes the traveler who carries it in his hand so lively and cheerful, that he never faints or grows weary.

We offer to the public the most perfect Illuminating Stove of the age. Many efforts have been made to produce a perfect illuminating, self feeding stove, but the power of illumination has soon failed or been destroyed because no adequate means was invented to prevent the mica windows from being smoked while the fire was burn. kindled. We are happy to state to our customers that we have overcome this great deficiency in self feeding stoves, by placing the mica windows in a Revolving Cylinder the windows can thus be closed while the fire is being kindled, and after the combustion the cylinder can be removed throwing the windows open, entirely free from smoke and presenting a perfect and clear light, which cannot be produced in any other stove By this improvement we have entirely overcome the great objection to be found in all other Illuminating stove And in addition to this the Revolving Light is supplied with Spear's celebrated patent poker, by which the fire can be poked without dust or dirt escaping into the room, it is therefore entirely free from dust, so common to all other stoves We also keep all of Spear's make of Stoves, and a variety of tinware and pipe made sale or retail.
