Harris township can claim the credit of having the worst road in the county.

Three valuable town properties are now offered for sale by Committee on N. Hillish. See advertisement in another column.

Coal that sells for 5.75 in Harrisburg, brings from eight to nine dollars per ton in Bellefonte. Quite a difference.

The libel suit brought by the faculty of the Dickinson Seminary against the editor of this paper, has been continued until the January term of court.

A protracted meeting has been going on at the United Brethren Church, in this place during the past week, as to their success we have not heard, but wish they may do a great deal of good.

On Sunday morning last, a horse which was hitched in front of Mr. Brockerhoff's residence became frightened and broke loose, but he was caught before any serious damage occurred.

Rev. Jno B Meek, well known to a large number of the elder citizens of this county, died at his residence in Washington city, on Saturday morning last. Next week we shall give a more extended notice.

L. C. Humes, Esq., of this place has been appointed by Gov. Geary, one of the state delegates, to attend the convention at Springfield, Ill., called for the purpose of taking some steps to prevent the spread of the cattle plague.

Work has already commenced on the new Episcopal Church to be erected on the corner of Allegheny and Lamb streets, in this place, it promises to be a great credit to the congregation, and will add much to the improvement of our flourishing town.

We give the following as it was handed to us a few days ago for publication: A white boat pig a snout-looken' pig that would weigh a bout a hundred pound it strayed a way from home a bout six weeks ago...

Common schools will open in this place on Monday next. The schools will be held at different places owing to the fact that the new school house, now being erected has not been completed.

The municipal organ, called, it we remember rightly, National, Industrial, Guide &c. &c., is now published in a cellar, in what they are pleased to call West Bellefonte, but better known as Chesapeake. We give this information for the benefit of those who may desire to seek them in their distress, almost impenetrable, cave to the members of the stock company.

We are pleased to call the attention of the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity to the fact that an enterprising friend S. J. McDonald, intends opening a first class Oyster Saloon, at his stand on Bishop Street. He will open next week, and we cheerfully advise all lovers of the delicious beverage, to give him a call.

Another big Klux outrage was perpetrated on Monday last. An unoffending negro who for simply exercising his civil right of stealing a horse and when followed cutting its throat, had been sentenced to the Penitentiary, was conveyed to Philadelphia by Sheriff Klux, handcuffed and hooded. At the next session of Congress a committee will be appointed to investigate this atrocious attempt to re-enslave the freedman "with power to send for persons and papers." What! Permit the enslavement of one of the "Nation's wards"? Forbid it, oh Congress!

MAVIN IS CUSTODY.—On Saturday morning last, policeman Mullen arrested Jack Turner, a colored man well known by the citizens of this place, on a charge of stealing money from Wm Carr, bartender at Rikard's Hotel, a portion of the money was found on his person when arrested. He was committed to jail in default of bail. We have no doubt that Jack will get another trip down east.

Since the above was in type we are informed, that, on Wednesday night, Jack made his escape by tearing out the registers in his, and the adjoining cell and passing through the cavity thus created into the latter; this being unfinished easily permitted him to once again breathe the "air of freedom" now so popular with his race. The "poor" freedman was yesterday morning found secreted in an alley, and returned to his old quarters.

VENISON.—The season for hunting is fully inaugurated, the sportsmen of this place and vicinity are making profitable use of the time, as deer seem to be unusually plenty this season.

We notice, almost daily, quite a number of fine bottles of this delicious meat, exposed for sale in our streets, and ranging in price from 15 to 18 cents per pound.

We have also heard of several hounds being killed in this vicinity this fall. The lovers of wild meats, and good living generally, can have their appetites fully appeased at all times at the Brockerhoff House, as the gentlemen proprietors of that hotel spare no pains in procuring all that may add to the pleasure and comfort of their guests.

We notice that very great inconvenience is experienced, particularly by strangers desiring to find certain places in the different streets of this place, as there is not a single one of them with the name upon the corners, nor a single house numbered in the borough.

This is not as it should be, nor is it in keeping with the rapid growth and progress of our city. As but little expense would be incurred in securing this great convenience, and as it would add much to the appearance of our thriving town, we may respectfully call the attention of our city fathers to the suggestion and ask their aid in accomplishing this matter.

The Land We Love.—The Land We Love for December is up to its usual high standard.

The leading article by Dr. Dabney, The Duty of the Hour, is a manly protest against sacrificing principle to expediency. The Defence of Beas Butler is novel and entertaining.

The Letters from Mount Vernon will be read with interest by all, who revere the name of Washington. Pen-feather is a spicy burlesque of would be poets and authors.

St. Louis, Missouri, is a valuable article full of important statistics. The fiction, poetry and humor in this number compare favorably with the preceding numbers.

CARPET BAG QUARREL.—The carpet-bag officials of Florida are quarrelling like cats and dogs. There are two Governors, two Lieutenant Governors, and two Attorney Generals, each set claiming to be the bonafide carpet baggers, and both sets are in court fighting for the spoils.

At the recent Woman's Suffrage Convention in Boston, Senator Wilson stated that, under the fourteenth article (the amendment) of the Constitution of the United States, he would have no hesitation in voting for an act of Congress to give colored men in every State the right to vote.

The Republicans were clearly in the majority, but their appearance at the polls in New Orleans and in certain of the parishes, would have been only to invite a general massacre.

Who ever heard of the majority miscreanting the majority? The majority ought to be able to take care of itself. This is a poor excuse for a stupendous fraud.

In the time of Benjamin Franklin, serious doubts were entertained of the propriety of his starting a new paper in the city of Philadelphia. Prominent men doubted whether it could be sustained, as there were already two newspapers published in the United States.

There is a remembrance of the deed to which we return even from the chains of the living. Oh! the grave! the grave! it buries every error—covers every delusion—extinguishes every resentment.

A man was killed by a horse thief, near Holly Springs, Miss., on Monday, of last week, and as the horse was being taken to jail, he was lynched by a party of his men.

A good conscience is the best looking glass of heaven; in which the soul may see God's thoughts and purposes concerning it reflected as so many shining stars.

Business Notices. MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

500,000 feet of white Pine flooring, dry for sale at the Moleburg Planing Mill.

Mr. Akers is still continuing his canvass of our town, for "Crimes of the Civil War, and finding Systems," and we are pleased to see he is meeting with good success.

This work comes from the gifted pen of one of America's ablest statesmen and contains truth that every taxpayer in the land should know. We bespeak for this work, a wide circulation. Good canvassers are wanted to whom a large commission will be paid. Address: U. H. Akers & Co., Huntingdon, Pa.

Now that the holidays are at hand, it behooves every one to repair without delay, to the store of Zimmerman, Bros. & Co., No. 6 Bush's Arcade, and purchase at least one of the many fancy and useful articles suited for holiday presents.

Economy is a virtue that merits recognition, to purchase material for suits for the little ones in the family, and manufacture them, home industry is becoming such a general custom that we suggest to mothers to look over the stock of goods displayed at Keller & Musser's. New store on Bishop Street they are cheap and can't be beat, and very thing they have is desirable. Give them a call.

A fine head of hair is such an indispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use the best preparations to be had to increase its growth, restore its color or prevent its falling off. King's Vegetable Ambrosia is one of the most effectual articles for the purpose we have ever seen, besides being one of the most delightful hair dressings and beautifiers extant. It is free from the sticky and gummy properties of most other dressings, and being delightfully perfumed recommends itself to every lady or gentleman using fine toilet articles.

The "BARLEY BEER" COOK.—The skill and genius of Philadelphia Mechanics have long since passed into a proverb. At home and abroad, the productions of the artisan of this city have been signalized for their ingenuity, durability and general efficiency; and there is not, perhaps in our whole country, a city which has in this respect, achieved a greater triumph. Prominent among those who have aided in producing this result, is the well known firm of Messrs. Stuart, Peterson & Co., Stove and Hollow Ware Founders, and Manufacturers of the celebrated "Barley Beer" Cook. Our space to-day being limited, we are only permitted to say that the trade and all interested, will find in the "Barley Beer" an article of substantial merit—the result of great ingenuity and years of scientific thought and study. It is adapted to both wood and coal. Send for a Circular. For sale by W. W. Wetzel, Milesburg, Pa.
