He asked the bridgerom (a soldier by the way) for bridegroom (a soldier by the way) for his marriage license. The man in blue responded that he had been engaged to the girl four years, and thought that would do. The clergyman thought not, and remarked as the specifiest, way to obtain a license: "You had better take your girl and go to Helser!" "You go to hell yourself!" retorted the angry veteran. And seizing the bride by the arm, he dragged her from the bouse, wondering what manner of a porfane minister he had met with.
