The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, January 29, 1869.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

THE members of the Democratic County Committee are requested to meet at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, the 26th of January, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of appointing conferees to elect Senatorial Delegates to the State Convention

J. D. SHUGERT, Chairman.

——Our readers in sunnier climes will be interested to know that the sun is not observable in this latitude much oftener than in Greenland or Iceland during the winter months.

——The Brockerhoff House continues to be crowded with guests and the traveling public. It is excellently well kept, and this is not reflecting upon our other first-class and creditable hotels and houses of entertainment ——The trial of P. GRAY MEEK for libel occurs on Monday or Tuesday next. He is awfully "skeart"—of course! Poor fellow, how bad he'll feel when we look through the grates and bars at him, seated so nicely on his bench in his room in "the house on the hill," with a fine-tooth comb in his hand!

——The ceaseless jingling of the merry sleigh bells is assurance that the belles and beaux of Centre county and the mountain region of Pennsylvania are having a season to be pleasureably remembered in after years. How many longed-for words have been spoken we know not, but will have to await the record made by the next census report

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—On the 27th of this month at 7 32 o'clock, p. m., the full moon, in the sign of Cancer, will move into a portion of the shadow of the earth, and becomes a little less than one-half eclipsed. The middle of the eclipse will occur at 9 32 and the end at 11 32 in the evening. The size of the eclipse will be 2 digits on the northern limb. The moon rises one hour above the eastern horizon 37 minutes after six o'clock on that evening.

——Our neighbors at the Gazette office have introduced girls as typos there, and they are said to be learning the art very fast. Young ladies are generally more ready to acquire any art requiring nicety than boys. There are a large number of young ladies employed as typos setters now, where a few years ago, prejudice excluded them entirely. We are in favor of giving the girls a chance to learn such trades as are suitable, in order that they may become more independent in all things—less dependent upon the whims of fathers and brothers.

Young ladies are much distressed when they misplace little things. We heard one yesterday, who had lost her bunch of trunk and bureau keys, inquired of our friends at the "Anvil Store, "Please, sir, have you a key that will fit my drawers?" There was nothing remarkable in this, but it was said so sweet. Another lady, a married friend, seeing us look for something which he had hidden, said to us, innocently "O yes, I think I have what you need in my drawers." Neither was there anything remarkable about this; but we went about our business, reflecting upon the curious jumble of words the English lexicon contained.

A SHAMEFUL FORGERY.—We last week received a letter containing what appeared to be a genuine marriage announcement, which was published unsuspectingly by us. It was as follows:

MARRIED.

TWITMYER—RITZ.—On the 31st of December, 1868, by Rev. Bigbee, C. Wells Twitmyer, of Millsburg, to Josie C. Reese, of Madison burg, Pa.

We are informed by Mr. TWITMYER that the notice is a fabrication—that the parties were not married as stated. It is palpable that some low, unprincipled scamp has taken advantage of the parties, who are persons of the highest respectability in our county, but were personally unknown to us, to commit a forgery and to drag them before the public in a very questionable manner. We depend upon friends in all quarters for news, and are sorry that we have learned of the existence of the scamp who would act in this way. If we can get his name, we will give him the benefit of a free, if not a complimentary notice, and it will not be entitled "married."

——A new series of postage stamps is in course of preparation by the post-office department. They will be somewhat smaller than those in use at present, but of superior finish. The two cent stamp contains an engraving of a post-boy on horseback in full speed. The three cent has a locomotive under a full head of steam, the great carrier of our domestic service. The five cent stamp contains a head of Washington. The ten cent, the finest in design, has a miniature engraving of the Declaration of Independence, executed with such delicacy and precision that the picture suffers nothing under the magnifying glass. The twelve cent stamp has an Ocean steamship, and the thirty cent stamp has a finely executed engraving of the surrender of Burgoyne.

——Valentine's day, which causes so much fluttering among the young ladies, comes on Sunday this year, and is three weeks off from Sunday next. For the benefit of our fair friends, we would state that the custom of sending "Valentines" originated many hundred years ago. Saint Valentine was, according to some writers, a bishop, while others insist that he was a presbyter, who was beheaded at Rome, in the reign of the Emperor Claudius, A. D. 270. Historians remark that "he was a man of admirable parts, and so famous for his love and charity, that the custom of choosing Valentines upon his festival took its rise from thence." No doubt our fancy and stationery stores will soon have their stocks of St. Valentine goods in store.

——That peculiar phase of superstition which has regard to lucky or unlucky, good or evil days, is to be found in all ages and climes, wherever the mystery-man of a tribe, or the sacerdotal caste of a nation, has acquired rule or authority over the minds of the people. All over the world, and especially among the nations of the East, are to be found traces of this almost universal worship of Luck. The following is said to be a list of unlucky days for this year: January—1st, 2d, 4th, 5th, 7th, 10th and 15th; February—6th, 7th and 18th, March—1st, 6th and 8th; April—6th and 11th; May—5th, 6th and 7th; June—7th and 15th, July—5th and 19th, August—15th and 19th, September—6th and 7th, October—6th, November—15th and 16th, December—15th, 16th and 17th. Those of our readers who are superstitious and believe in lucky days, will keep themselves in agony just so many days in the year by observing this list.

Business Notices.

SPECIAL SALE AT COST.—As it is our intention to reduce our stock between this and the first of April. We are now offering our large stock of Dry Goods at cost to cash buyers. The stock consists of a large and fine assortment of ladies dress goods of all kinds, Prince Satin lings and furs. Also a stock of gents, cloths and cassimeres, ready made clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, together with a large variety of domestic dry goods such as delaines, calicoes, ginghams, muslins, sheetings, pillow casings, &c., &c. All of which we are offering at cost and as the above named goods are rapidly advancing in eastern markets now is the time to call at Howell, Gilliland & Co's. for cheap goods.

BUSINESS CHANGES.—We notice among the many changes in the Philadelphia Jobbing Houses, that of J. P. Chalfant & Co., auction jobbers in Hosiery Gloves, Notions, White Goods &c., at Chicago Block to P. Chalfant alone, who will still continue the same business at the old stand No. 37 North Third street.

It is with pleasure we hear that our old young friend Edward W. Miller is beginning to look chirk with the new firm this year which event we take pleasure in laying before our merchants.

Our friend Miller has won for himself and his house a host of friends in this and adjoining counties by his gentlemanly conduct, kind attention to the wants of the trade, careful and prompt filling of all orders entrusted to him. We bespeak for him and his house a prosperous New Year. As our merchants generally favored him in the past we hope they will equally favor them in the future.

There are some merchants in the county who have failed to make the acquaintance of this firm. We hope they may soon find out where to get the most goods for the least money.

J. P. CHALFANT monitor and their card appears in the month of the Messrs. Chalfant for the Pacific.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL & WON DERFUL INVENTION

SAVING MACHINE OF

WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR

Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler. Does its work in from 20 to 30 minutes can be used on any stove or range. Has been thoroughly tested and pronounced

UNEQUALED AS A CLOTHES WASHER.

JOHN RUSE Patentee.

This Boiler operates upon entirely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes and forced through the fabric with a searching rapidity cleansing all articles in the finest laces to the wool blanket. For flannels it is invaluable as it does not felt them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and in all three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric.

THOROUGHLY ERADICATING THE DIRT WITHOUT LABOR

or the use of A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

WARRANTED TO DO THE WORK IN DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the

in the wear of clothes.

The invention can be used in any locality, and the low price of the article is within the reach of every family.

The great value of this invention appears so clear and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval etc
