BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, February 19, 1869.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

——For first-class oak and pine lumber, send your orders to Leathers, Griest & Co., Fleming, Pa.

——A loose horse, full of fun as a circus-struck nigger, gave a free performance on Allegheny street on Wednesday.

——The Altoona Vindicator office was burned down last Monday. We regret to record such evil luck to our enterprising cotemporary.

——During the past week the weather has been exceeding mild—at times spring-like and balmy, and there was no snow on the mountains to speak of.

——The Drug Store of F. P. GREEN, will be removed, April 1, 1869, from Brockerhoff's row, to the new hotel of BUSH & MCCLAIN, over the creek.

——A petition is being circulated for signatures praying the Legislature to reject the Federal proposition to enfranchise the negroes of Pennsylvania.

——We have received calls during the week from JOS. W. FUREY, Esq., late of the Clinton Democrat, and FRED. KURTZ, Esq., of the Centre Hall Reporter. Call often, gentlemen.

——GEO. O'BRIEN has gone East for a new and choice stock of books, stationery, etc., and will open out on his return with everything in the line and a host of friends as his customers.

——Mr. D. C. GARDNER, the baggage master of the Bald Eagle Express, was injured by a fall from a horse on Saturday night last. He is on duty, but quite lame. Sorry for the mishap, my boy.

——Next Tuesday will be the 22d—the birthday of the "Father of his Country." Will the day be observed becomingly in Bellefonte, as it should be? We hope so, as it will mark the approach of a holiday.

FAST NAG.—Our old friend Capt. R. O. CUMMINGS, the popular host of the Eagle Hotel, North Third street, Philadelphia, has met with decided luck in becoming the proprietor of fast horses lately. He is now the owner of a pretty roan mare, purchased in this section, that makes her mile in 2.28. Not bad time for Centre county stock.

——MARTIN MAST, one of the woodchoppers on Liggett's job, at Pencock, on the Alleghenies, received a severe concussion of the brain on the 11th inst., from which he is still laying in a partially comatose condition, though hopes are entertained of his final recovery by his attending physician, Dr. THOMAS Bowersox of Eagleville.

The Republicans of Bedford are to decide the postmaster question next Saturday, by an election of all Republicans who get their mail matter at that office. We commend a similar tribunal in Bellefonte for a solution of the question between the friends of the several candidates. The P. M. question is the absorbing topic here at present. Possession being nine points in the law and in the favor we are disposed to let em hold.

——We paid a hurried visit to the well-known glass works in this boro, on Saturday, and found Messrs. JACOB THOMA & SON, the energetic proprietors, in full blast. They have a large force at work, and are putting out large quantities of the best glass made in Pennsylvania. We rejoice to see such evidence of the energy and thrift of Bellefonte. We understand that the Bellefonte glass has a ready sale east and west and wherever known.

——A new accommodation hack line has been established by Mr. J. S. GRAY, proprietor of the Moshannon House, to run regularly between Philipsburg and Port Matilda, connecting with all the trains, East and West. This is a great accommodation, as by the change in the railroad time, passengers would otherwise not be able to get through in less than two days. It is now through daylight of the same day, and passengers owe GRAY a vote of thanks and their patronage.

We regret to have it to say that some of our stores the clerks offer to wait upon the ladies and other customers with their hats on. It may be manish to stand behind the counter with a hat crammed on the top of the head and it may aid in establishing the fact that their wearers are probably not female; but it is neither polite nor proper. Whether or not those nobler days of chivalry are dead, the requirements of society still impose upon the sterner sex an air of courtesy, if no more, to woman. Will the young gentlemen of our town, who have fallen into this error, see the point? Will they not also admit its correctness?

This is the season of Lent, which commenced on Wednesday, the 10th. All Catholics who have completed their twenty-first year, are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the Fast of Lent. They are to make only one meal a day, excepting Sundays. The meal allowed on fast days is not to be taken until about noon. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening; no general rule as to the quantity of food permitted at this time is or can be made. The church of England, as well as the American Episcopal church, observes Lent, though not as strictly as the Roman Catholic church. A great many people, too, outside of all churches, observe the custom of lent. It is easier to have things lent out, than to have them collected in. And in this connection, we would request the gentleman who "lent" two dollars from us some time ago, to return the same soon.

MORE DEBTS FOR THE BOROUGH.—A bill has been forwarded by the Town Council of this place, to the Legislature, giving them authority to borrow any amount of money, not exceeding Fifty Thousand Dollars. Last year they were authorized to borrow Twenty Thousand Dollars, and almost every year since the erection of the water works, they have had supplements, giving them authority to borrow sums, varying from five to twenty-five thousand dollars. Do the people of the borough want to pay interest on fifty thousand dollars additional? If not, let remonstrances against the passage of this act be forwarded to the member from this county, at once.

——The young folks of our boro' made merry the anniversary of St Valentine. As usual, old bachelors and those quiet misses spitefully termed old maids, were the objects of the young folks caricature-infliction. It seems to be a part of young mankind's business and aim, apparently, to try to make old mankind cross and ill-tempered, but we do not remember to have seen more pleasant faces at any time, than those very generally worn on last Valentine's day. Hence we come to think that the anonymous missles failed to sting their victims, or perhaps, the Valentines were all such as flattered, rather than annoyed, their recipients.

——We learn that a wedding of a rather private nature took place on Monday last, at the Conrad House, in this boro. A few friends only were honored with the invitations which were rara avis, solo voce, and the affair was conducted with great propriety and solemnity. We have not yet been furnished with the marriage announcement for publication, and we do not feel justified in giving names; but were we frank we would give the whole proceeding to our readers, who doubtlessly take great interest in these happy episodes, and who expect to find correct reports of them in the WATCHMAN. We cannot, however, avoid remarking the happy manner in which the officiating parson conducted the affair. It is said, we are apprised, to withhold the particulars, but doubtless matters will develop themselves in time. We can but hope, however that the happy couple are in the full and felicitous enjoyment of that true sentiment of love which nulls the reverse with its tones of gladness, and such, on the occasions, in the wedded world, is merely wrapt up:

> Two souls with but a single thought
> Two hearts that beat as one.

——The embarrassments of the groomsmen and bridesmaid on the conclusion of the ceremonies, was said to be very flattering testimony, tears to the obscure eye of more than one soul tempested by the blasts of misfortune. They appeared equally as happy as the married couple. Selah!
