The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA:

Friday Morning, February 26, 1869.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

——Wanted at this office a good compositor.

PERSONAL.—We were honored during the week with a call from W. P. FUREY, Esq., of the Clinton Democrat.

——Locomotion has been exceedingly risky during the week, owing to the icy condition of the walks on the hill sides.

——We publish elsewhere another beautiful contribution from "N. E. IDE," in the style of LONGFELLOW'S HIAWATHA.

——A terrible storm howled in the mountains on Tuesday, on Wednesday morning the sun shone with a spring like glow, and in the evening the storm again howled.

——Mr. KERRULF returns home to Louisville, Kentucky, preferring to be with his family. If he has added anything to the interest of the WATCHMAN, he is pleased. He says good bye to his readers and friends. In the absence of Mr MEEK, Mr JOE W FUREY will conduct the paper hereafter.—A S B.

SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.—The Conference of this (the 21st) Senatorial District assembled at the Exchange Hotel, in Huntingdon, on Friday, Feb 19, '69, for the purpose of selecting two Delegates to represent the district in the next Democratic State Convention.

The Conference proceeded to business by the selection of W J JACKMAN, Esq of Juniata county, President, and Messrs. S. P. MCFADDIN, of Blair, and ANDREW REED, of Mifflin, Secretaries.

The following gentlemen represented the several counties of the district:

Centre—A A Curtin, C D Kedar.
Mifflin—Gen J Ross, Andrew Reed, Owen Coyle.
Perry—W Rice, J M Miller, J Rice Meneant.
Juniata—W J Jackman, W Lees, J L Metzland.
Huntingdon—L M [illegible], Dr A P McNitt, J S Corbin.
Blair—S McFaddin, J [illegible] Brady, J B Orvin.

On motion the two Centre votes from Centre county were authorized to cast three votes.

On motion the Conference proceeded to nominate and elect Delegates to the State Convention, when Maj. R. B. PETRIKEN, of Huntingdon, O. A. PEALER, of Blair, S. T. SHUMAKER, of Centre, and Jas. SCHWARTZ, of Perry were nominated. The balloting resulted as follows:

R. B. Petriken	20
O. A. Traugh	1
S. T. Shumaker	1
Jas. Schwartz	1

The election of Messrs PETRIKEN and PEALER was then made unanimous.

Resolved, That the Delegates this day chosen to represent this Senatorial District in the next Democratic State Convention be instructed to vote for Hon. George W. Case for Governor and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for that position.

On motion the Conference adjourned sine die.

——Some young men of this town in a contemplated scramble for eggs, induced by free venison and unlimited application to Mr Earl Speer, who was expecting to stand for that office, went on Friday evening last to the habitation of a coon phenomenal, and engaged in a waltz in violation of the ruling power of the same. They reported a mirror to admire, and went away shivering at the consequence. When asked by the indignant damsel of several summers to pay for the damage, the principal replied that she could have to wait till Monday, daddy not then up in cousin.

——The Howling at the mansion of a couple of our citizens in Dr. Gs Good Templar Lodge room, on last Friday night, with 22d in mind. On motion of Hon [illegible] M Allison, Rev. H. H. Pardee was called to the Chair. The meeting was opened by prayer by the Rev. Mr Andrews. The President then stated the object of the meeting in a few appropriate remarks. A song was then sung. Mr A. H. Rankin read and explained National Grange, a call for a National Temperance Convention, to be held in Harrisburg on the 22d inst. and advocated the appointing at this meeting of delegates to that Convention. Hon. R. N. MCALLISTER offered the following:

Resolved, That it is expedient for this meeting to send three delegates to the convention at Harrisburg and they are hereby instructed to use their influence to inaugurate a movement to have an amendment to the Constitution of the State submitted to the people for their approval, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

It was adopted, and Maj. Jas. Armor, J. H. Rankin and Rev. H. Colegrove elected the above convention.

Rev. Mr. McGann made some remarks advocating the organization of a temperance meeting outside of the Good Templars organization. A committee of seven persons—Rev. Mr. McGann, Rev. Mr Heckenberg, Rev. Mr. Roberts, Hon. R. N. McAllister, Wm. McClellan, J. H. Rankin and D. H. Hastings—were appointed to form an organization and report to a meeting to be held in the Good Templars lodge room, on Monday evening, March 1st, 1869. A collection was then taken up to defray the expenses of the delegates to the convention at Harrisburg.

IN MEMORIAM.—At a meeting of the Degree of Rebekah of Centre Lodge No. 153, I. O of O. F., held on the 13th, inst. at their Lodge Room, the following [illegible] were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard, with sincere regret, of the death at Pittsburgh, of our esteemed sister Mrs Mary Tate, and that we hereby express our condolence with the friends and relatives of the deceased.

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Divine Providence, our Lodge has lost a worthy sister, society at large an exemplary member, and our brother an affectionate companion, whose virtues should be imitated and cherished upon our hearts.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to another visitation of Death this admonition to our bereaved brother, is significant to us all as the portal to life and immortality.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of our respect a copy of these resolutions be certified by the secretary and given to the husband of the deceased, and they be recorded along with the minutes of this degree and furnished to our different county papers for publication.
