has determined against the assumed power of the States to withdraw at pleasure from the Union. The institution of slavery also found its destruction in a rebellion commenced in its interests. It should be borne in mind, however, that the war neither impaired nor destroyed the Constitution; but, on the contrary preserved its existence and made apparent its real power and enduring strength. All the rights granted to the States, or reserved to the people, therefore, are intact. Among those rights is that of the people of each State to declare the qualifications of their own State electors.

It is now assumed that Congress can control this right, which can not be taken away from the States without impairing the fundamental principles of the government itself. It is necessary to the existence of the States, as well as to the protection of the liberties of the people, for the right to select the electors in whom the political power of the State shall be lodged involves the right of the State to govern itself. When deprived of this prerogative, the States will have no power worth retaining. All will be gone, and they will be subjected to the arbitrary will of Congress. The government will then be centralized, if not by the passage of laws, then by the adoption, through partisan influence, of an amendment directly in conflict with the original designs of the Constitution. This proves how necessary it is that the people should require the administration of the three great departments of the government strictly within the limits of the Constitution. Their boundaries have been accurately defined, and neither should be allowed to trespass upon the other, nor, above all, to encroach on the reserved rights of the people and the States.

The troubles of the past four years will prove to the nation a blessing, if they produce so desirable a result. Upon those who became young men amid the sound of cannon and din of arms, and quietly returned to the farms, the factories, and the schools of the land, will principally devolve the solemn duty of perpetuating the Union of the States in defense of which hundreds of millions of national obligations were incurred. A majority people will not neglect the training necessary to resist aggression, but they should be jealous lest their will be made subordinate to the military element. The need to encourge, in every legitimate way, a study of the Constitution for which the war was waged, and a knowledge of and a reverence for whose wise checks by those so soon to occupy the places filled by older seniors will be the only hope of preserving the Republic. The young men of the nation not yet under the control of party must resist the tendency to centralization—an outgrowth of the great Rebellion—and be familiar with the fact that the country consists of united States, and that when the States surrendered certain great rights for the sake of a more perfect union, they retained rights as valuable and important as those which they relinquished for the commonwealth.

This same old doctrine, far different from the teachings that led to the attempt to secede, and a kindred theory that States were taken out of the Union by the rash acts of conspirators that happened to dwell within their borders, must be received and advocated with the enthusiasm of early manhood, or the people will be ruled by corrupt combinations of the commercial centres, who, plethoric from wealth annually migrate to the capital of the nation to purchase special legislation. Until the representatives of the people in Congress more fully exhibit the diverse means and interests of the whole nation, and the laws cease to be made without full discussion at the behest of some party leader, there will never be a proper respect shown by the law-making power either to the judicial or executive branch of the government. The generation just beginning to use the ballot-box it is believed only need that their attention should be called to these considerations to indicate by their votes that they wish their representatives to observe all the restraints which the people, in adopting the Constitution, intended to impose upon party excess. Calmly viewing my administration of the government, I feel that I with a sense of accountability to God, having conscientiously endeavored to discharge my whole duty I have nothing to regret. Events have proved the correctness of the policy set forth in my first and subsequent messages. The woes which have followed the rejection of offered magnanimity and constitutional rule are known and deplored by the nation.

It is a matter of pride and gratification, in retiring from the most exalted position as the gift of a free people, to feel and know that in a long arduous and eventful public life, my action has never been influenced by the desire for gain and that I can, in all sincerity, inquire whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed, or of whose blood have I received any bribe to blind my eyes therewith? No responsibility for wars that have been waged or blood that has been shed rests upon me. My thoughts have been those of peace, and my effort has ever been to allay contentions among my countrymen. Forgetting the past, let us return to the first principles of the government, and, unfurling the banner of our country, inscribe upon it, in indefaceable characters, the Constitution and the Union, one and inseparable."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a protection against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled have been completely cured, and the patient restored to perfect health by the Cherry Pectoral. Even in its mastery over the severest forms of Lung and Throat disease, it has performed many wonderful cures, and often when all other remedies had failed. Asthma and Bronchitis are generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, for Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons. As the name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified to be gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residents, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Billious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world. Price, $1.00 per Bottle.

DANFORTH'S PETROLEUM FLUID!

NON-EXPLOSIVE!

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN!

SAFE UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES!

THE NEW LIGHT

THE PETROLEUM FLUID.

Manufactured by J. J. Palmer, under Letters Patent, supplies a necessity as well as a household convenience. It has been in use more than a year, and is growing in favor wherever used. It makes the neatest and in every respect the best light. No offensive odor, no smoke, no grease to soil garments, no danger from explosion in lamps, does not injure weak eyes, gives a softer light than Kerosene, can be used with or without Chimney, can be burned in any lamp with the trifling expense of changing burners.

IT IS CHEAPER THAN ANY LIGHT EXCEPT DAYLIGHT

All who use it will endorse what we say.

Our patrons put our Fluid to various uses, and they give us many becoming accounts of its efficacy in cleaning tin, floors, clothes, removing grease or mildew, in relieving rheumatism and curing burns, etc.

The small Patent Brass Lamp packed with cotton, is popular run about light, and is a neat and convenient thing for a traveler to take in the pocket.

This Fluid requires no more caution in its use than kerosene. We advise no one to fill a lamp while burning, if any of it spilled, a flame should not be brought near it, for though it will not explode, we do recommend it as good to burn. If in case of carelessness or accident it should be set on fire, smother it with a cloth or hat. If a lamp does not work well, having on it our Burners, there must be a defect in the burner, and it should be soldered.

The wick does not require frequent cutting. When charred the blaze flickers and then the coal may be removed by rubbing or cutting. Chimneys seldom need washing. There never was a portable light that required so little work to keep it in order.

It does not increase the rate of Insurance where used as stored.

Is not considered dangerous by the Chicago Board of Underwriters.

Received the first Premium at the Stark and Tuscarawas county, (O.) Fairs, last Fall.

Firemen can control a fire, but they cannot an explosion, therefore the Fluid is preferable on this account.

IT CANNOT BE EXPLODED!

$100 offered to any person who will produce a legitimate explosion of its Vapors.

In use by over 10,000 families, 1,500 of which are in Cleveland and the vicinity, all of whom recommend it cheerfully.

I want to rouse each sleepy head,
Who stands upon the brink,
Who o'er yawning gulfs disclose the dead,
Who naught, but did not, think.

I want to warn the living ones
Who blindly grope along,
Ye fathers, daughters, mothers, sons,
What perils round you throng!

Look out, my dear friend, are you free,
Or do you wear the mark?
Most all are blind and cannot see,
Yes, groping in the dark.

Catarrh, a demon in the head,
Consumption is its son,
Kills hosts, yea, countless millions, dead,
Perhaps you may be one.

That hacking, hawking, spitting, shows,
Catarrh affects your head;
Matter and slime in throat or nose,
Runs down your throat instead.

Your lungs and liver soon will show,
Consumption has its birth,
Catarrh, I assure, will feed it too,
'Till you return to earth.

If colds affect your head and throat,
ANNIHILATOR buy,
Now don't forget what I have wrote,
Or think this subject dry.

WOLCOTT'S ANNIHILATOR cures
Catarrh, the demon dire;
It saves the lungs, good health insures,
And Catarrh quickly dies.

I want to gratify my friends,
Who wish to understand
About PAIN PAINT, its use, its ends,
And why it's great demand.

I want to show you, plain as day,
Why PAIN PAINT stops all pain,
That you may never have to say
"I'll not try paint again."

PAIN PAINT will cool but never scald,
Pumps inflammation out,
'Tis harmless on the breast or brain,
A trial stops all doubt.

When inflammation leaves the frame,
All pain will cease at once,
Remove the cause, 'tis all the same,
None doubts unless a dunce.

The pores will ope and drink PAIN PAINT,
Absorbents fall with ease
To store the weak, the sick, the faint,
The greatest of Opties please.

Evaporation cools the place
As inflammation dies,
Hot blood at the absorbent's base
Makes PAINT in vapor rise.

'Tis thus PAIN PAINT removes all doubt,
Removes the very cause
By pumping inflammation out,
On this we rest our cause.

I wish you, speedily, hurry and march,
Better move off, sir, or, you may depend,
This brick will give you a GRECIAN BEND!

And you, old cat with squally voice,
You can't conceive, I would rejoice,
To get a gobd shot, and to knock you flat,
You horrible, howling, old feminine Cat!

Well cats, yowl on, and I'll seek repose;
And think about Sternberg & Brandies' clothes;
And merry will be the song I'll sing

Pospectus of the Bellefonte "Democratic Watchman" for 1869.

With a record of thirteen years of unquestioned service in the cause of Democracy, for Caucasian supremacy, for strict observance of Constitutional obligations, for State Rights, for Free Trade, and for Liberal Government, the BELLEFONTE enters upon its fourteenth volume with renewed vigor, with more life, and hope, and determination, than at any other period of its history. When in the past many other Democratic journals bent to the storm of fanaticism and bigotry, it battled on regardless of everything but duty. When many of the friends of State Rights cringed beneath the tornado of armed Federalism and Tory usurpation, it was true to the Democracy of Jefferson. When thousands of the leading advocates of Free Trade surrendered to the domination and exactions of the New England Tariff robbers and plunderers of the people, it held aloft the banner of Justice. When Abolitionism, and its kindred train of infamies, invaded the rights of property and the popular institutions of sovereign States, it fought the good fight of the States and People.

"DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN"

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN has never sought for fame by courting infamy, nor for rewards not worthily earned. Its record is before its host of readers and friends in all quarters, and upon that record it enters the new year, seeking to advance to the of State and National journalism, that it may be enabled to battle on for the cause of Justice, Equality, Right and Democracy, with an earnest desire to aid in the restoration of stricken Liberty throughout the Confederacy.

To accomplish the purpose in view, we point to its proud and well-known record of the past thirteen years, asking for it the kind offices and good will of

in all parts of the country, toward building up for it a commensurate and useful circulation.

Now is the hour for safe and bold counsels and careful preparations. Never before was there such need for organization and harmony and unanimity among the friends of Liberty and Democracy. If Democrats fail to hold firmly to the cause for which they have sacrificed so much, then Liberty is lost to them and their children, and the Despotism and Tyranny of Federalism is secure evermore, and a monarchial government permanently succeeds the wise, liberal, plain and unostentatious system which the patriot fathers reared for an worthy sons.

It is needless to say to the readers and friends of the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN, that it will continue

TO STRIKE AT DESPOTISM, MONOPOLY AND WRONG,

and to defend and uphold the Constitution and the people against their enemies—to war against all manner of robber Tariffs, and other frauds upon consumers, to uphold free trade and the rights of the many, to oppose the building up of all species of monopolies, and to do its duty fearless and fully in all things.

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN will each week contain more strong and stirring original matter than any other journal in Pennsylvania and will aim to be worthy of support by Democrats in
