Late Publications. The Democratic Watchman.

. BY P. GRAY MEEK.

Terms, $2 per Annum, in Advance.

BELLEFONTE, PA Friday Morning, March 26, 1869.

Grant as a Cabinet Maker.

The Age in an annusing strain, no tices the odd ansemblage of names in GRANT's Cabinet. It says : "His premier is Fisu-not "preserved," but its pages, although they are unques HAVILTON, we believe-but fishy with. [tionably very entertaining When this al. His familiars are Wash-BURNF, and magazine first made its appearance last two or three what the Scotchi call mey. January, Mr. KIEROLF was in the edier-do wells," Bout-well and CRESS-well, torial chair of the Warenvan, and in At Gt R, by name and nature, is a great foticing Captain REID's new enterpipe borer, and, of course, our Secretary is he spoke of him as being "a gallant a bore. Here we must pause. The cochney come over to plant in America names of the Attorney General and the poisons breathed forth from Exeter the Secretary from Ohio arc not to be spoken of except by allusion. We would pay a forfeit for a glimpse at feet. In reference to this expression, the private letters of the British Minis- and to the article generally, Capt. ter to his chief at home. describing the REID, in the number of "ONW ARD" now unction with which he availed himself of the diplomatic language of Mad ame, in making his bow, when the laame, in making his bow, when the lat-be, in a State saction to the shade of Ben-dy addressed, can be comprehended in Franklin, also coming from a town called that chaiming tongue, without pronouncing her name " the rabble of army officers by whom the President is surrounded and who doubtless torm a kitchen cabinet, no administration in this Republic has ev that it is possible we ought to ple id guilty to er included to small an amount of talout, or produced equal surprise at the strangeness of its composition. A min istry described by BURKE, that was formed by a celebrated Premier of histune, had so many points of re-enblance that we copy the description He sulthat-"He made an administration, so checkered and speckled. he j ment put together a piece of jointery, so crossly indented and whimsically dovetailyd , a calanct so variously-inlaid : such a piece of diversified Mosaie . such a tesselated pavement without cement . here a bit of black stone, and there a bit of white ; patriots and flat tevers courtiers and republicans. whig- and tories ... treacherous triend and service, upporters , that it was indeed a curious show ; but utterly untruckle-bed.

Thus our President manifests no | HAN's and the ARMSTRONG'S' is continin obscurity had not eivil war thrust Annut n. greatness upon them.

Interested Parties as Witnesses.

neglected to notice Capt. MAYNE REID'S new magazine, entitled "Onwarp" for March. This magazine is ostensibly devoted to the "Youth of good deal of talent as well as taste. give at once a pleasant impression of America," and it certainly displays a Whether, however, the style and character of its contents are peculiarly 'adapted to the improvement of the minds of the rising generation, we are not just now prepared to say. It strikes us that there is a lack of solidity about before us, writes as follows:

A newspaper printed in the great State of Pennsylvania, prettily printed too, as it should Bellefonte (typos will understand the allusion), has called us a "BRASH COCKNEY it.

As this, in bold type, was the heading of the Besides the whimsisal association of article, we could not at first tell whether or not trames, the meongruity of the materi it was meant to be abusive. We knew it could als composing the cabinet is not less | not well be complimentary, since we are ac als composing the cabinet is not less inderwerde complete study is not where a composing the cabinet is not where a composing the cabinet is not where a composing the cabinet is not a composing the cabinet is a composing the cabinet is not a compos Lave been appointed, without including more especially puzzled us. as shot into our hunds

"Brash? On getting the definition it occurred to us

ly take exception. And we protest county against being de-scribed as a sublant cocknet come over to plant in America, the poisons breathed forth from I veter Hall, and the rich seed of England s funkeyism

On looking to the head of the newspaper to see who was our accuser, we discovered the editor to be '2' Gray Meek " a name that should have guaranteen us "milder" treat-

In & Mr. Meck, von have sadly notstaken We venture to say, that in all your youastnan random bring, you never made a worse shot in your life

We have no desire to do the Captain any injustice, and rehalf continuty appreciate whatever he may do "to in struct, elevate, and conduct the youth along that path leading to the highest and noblest manhood

---- It is hardly possible to have a sale to touch, and unsure to stand on "more pleasant companion than AR [hear it -Ex. The colleagues whom he had assorted THER'S HOME MAGAZINE, SO delightful at the same conner) table. Jared at (R edited by T. S. ARTHUR and VIReach other, and were obliged to ask, Janix F. Townsenp. We have the "Sir, your name ? ----- ir, you have the April number on our table, and are advantage of me -Mr. Such a one - 1, tempted to drop everything else to read "beg a thousand pardons" -- I venture to 'it - The cry for copy, however, forbids say, it did so happen, that persons were | this indulgence, and we are compelled gathered into the same administration. to postpone till a more convenient seawho had gever spoken to each other in son "Telling the Old Story" and their lives, until they found them ("Birds at the Window" are very sugselves, they knew not how, pigging to gestive engravings, representing those gether, heads and points, in the same two sacred phases of the human char acter-love and mercy "The GRA greater aptitude for Cabinet making | ned, with "A Bachelor's Story," and than he had for tanning. It is strange) much other interesting reading, besides how many men would have remained tashions, recipes, &c. Subscribe for > March, bright and beautiful is at hand.

-THE LADY'S FRIEND for April had

-Thus far, we believe, we have also come to hand. We have looked over its pages with great pleasure, and pronounce it up to the times and even with its rivals. "The Fortune Teller," "Les Model Parissonnes," "The Avalanche," &c., are well gotten up, and the book. The ladies cannot fail to delight in it.

> --PETERSON'S LADIES NATIONAL MAGAZINE, for the coming month is also before us. There is so much in this magazine always that 14 good, that it is hardly necessary for us to commend to the public favor. It is well filled with choice literature from the pens of our best - romance writers - and - poets, and is a drawing-room delight that cannot well be dispensed with. The ladies, and gentlemen, too, should all take it.

was a time when fashion was more sensible or economical than now, pro--ONCE A MONTH, for April, anothprovided people are willing to be sensier of T. S. ARTHUR's inagazines, we ble and economical. Suits and cushave not yet had time to examine tomes are the leading features of the closely, but it seems to us to be worthy new spring styles, and are, many of of praise. An article on the coal mines of Pennsy Nania, is worth reading, and them, pretty in design as well as hand I resistance worn?

the "Mills of Tuxbury," "After the some in material. Of all that we have Lessons," "A Pistol Shot," with a seen in preparation, the prettiest and indest grist mill in the State-of having been number of other shorter articles, look the most serviceable arc_made in built in b.75 of one hundred and ninety years as though this magazine was made up changeable or fine chane silk trimmed, ago double raching of the same. The shirts of most of them are of moderate The amputation of his nim WAS IT AN ERROR " - We have heard of clerks in mercantile houses making walking length, the spinwalking length, the upper skirt is refew dollars, but as Mr Butler showed many pretty and stylish varieties of the other day, a Congressional clerk made an error which has cost the country about fifteen hundred thousand the spring advances. When the basque dollars' Thus little fact of slight of hand consisted in omitting from the trimfied with fringe to simulate a TheNew York distillence have stopped in appropriation bill a provision require square or pointed pelerine, sometimes consequence of the exactions of the revenue ing bonded warehouse owners to reals a pointed cape is attached open upon officers burse the Government for calaries paid the back as well as upon the front and ble successful attempt, one day recently, to to storekeepers. Mr. Butler testifice or finge that this provision was in the bill when it became a law, at three o'clock on the morning of the 4th of March. but when the bill was enrolled, lo ! the provision was not in it.

Every con will have to judge for hunseli whether this omission was an error or an "on purpose". In forming a judgment, not only the weakness of human nature, but of Washington human nature, should be taken into the may be remarked that the arrange account-also the weight and influence of the whisky "ring" Mr. Schenck says such errors are common at Washington. We are sorrow to

Only the storm-tossed soul that has a sure haven on the "other side, " will endorse the sentiment of the following lines Youth and hope are sweet and but few, we think, would refuse to go back and live life over again. It is only those to whom the past has been but a • bitter disappointment, whose paths have been all thorns and no flow ers, who can look into the great, un fathomable Future with entire confi dence and on the part without -n long ing to retrace their steps

WOULD YOU BE YOUNG AGAIN Would you be young again? So would not I.

No would not 1, One tear to memory given, Onward 11d die Life'n dark ettenin torded o'er All but a røst on shore, Nav, would yeu plunge onee more With home so uigh ?

If you could, would you not Retrace your way ' Wander thro' stormy wide Faint and estray ? Night a gloomy watches fled, Norning all gleaming red, Hone's smile around us shed, De's smile around u Heavenward, away

Spring Fashicns.

With the advent of March the ever impairs an air of distinction. Narrow strings are absolutely required to tie recurring question arises, what is to be their little hats under the chignon, and What will be the spring fashothers are now used upon all imported ions? Have hoops gone out entirely ? bonnets, to tie under the chin. Will short dresses be worn on the CURLS AND COMPLEXITON. street? Are bonnets to be enlarged ? More hair is worn than ever. The And from a thousand different voices bonnets therefore cannot be enlarged. from all parts of the country comes The shignon is not only composed of the inquiry, how can we dress fashionlarge puffs, but a profusion of curls ably but not expensively ? Commencspring out from the centre and fall at ing at the beginnig we beg to assure the back of it, not below it. It is also our readers, that, as usual, pretty much everything will be worn ; that spring worn very high upon the head and crowned by a massice braid which forces the crimping and curls down upon the forehead or leaves them only the smallest amount of space on which contispiny themselve. JENNIE JUNE consitutes the appearance of hight and State News.

-The Damocratic, Guard published at Bunbury, favors the nomination of Gen M'Cand-

-Messrs Baker, Feistel and Tolbert have -built the Gettysburg Forge, and again put

-The Butler Herald advocates the election of State Treasurer by the people instead of the

- Holmesburg, Bucks dounty, beasts of the

-Mr Thomas Hugh foreman of Borgers of the "cream" of literature Send for with rich fringe or with ruffles, or a plage malt, in Devide, had he hand out of it, double ruching of the same. The by a encular say last week, was hist week.

> Jency W. Kohler son of Jevennah Kohler, of Hanover. York county, being refused money by his father, hanged himself in the garret a tight fitting basque, or by one of the of the family residence, on the 12th mst -- Mest kinds of roots and bark are now used > capes which will be worn largely as as medicines except the cute root and the back of a dog

-Philadelphia is sending about three thousis retained it is generally ruffled, or and barrels of whiskey to New York weekly.

-- A man residing at Loretto made a proba edged all around with drop trimming computering out by entire by entire by entire the success of the second second

- An oid lady named Mathias, residing (). Paniers, proper, are but little worn. Somerset borough, accidentally set jup to her Funities, proper, are but fittle work, complete on huged, a work, and was inerally but the large sash, bows and ends are considered on death before assistance could reach in a pour at the back, which adds to ery has determined to hold its next annualex, the prominence given to the fulness of hibition on the 2sth of September, 1866, to con-'nnue four days The place of exhibition is notyct determined but will be annoa ced

The second attempt to burn the residenof Cipt Patton in Mercersburg was made on the oth mat. In Robinson and two others have been arrested and are in the Chambers

On the 16th inst, a young lady, Miss. Crua-thanel, residing with her brother at Line Lex-

to get rid entirely of the front of the Clar, near Penn street, Pittsburg last Thurs-to get rid entirely of the front of the law evening by two men and robbed of a, hun upper skirt, and drape it with trim dreddollar watch Jas, bunn and Jas Allen ming from the sides disposing it full at wire arrested the same hight charged with

Solo are now officed at $600 and even at this

-One of the editors in heading had a clean the house they are sometimes made the house they are sometimes made $\frac{1}{1}$ = in the 12th met, as a little boy are dataon with a single puff at the top, or lightly deten years, grandson of t. Haman, of Lick puffed all the way down from the top 'mg track township. Fulton county was felling to the bottom. They are also worn a small tree standing close to a fence, his head Glothing—Tailoring. half long, and pinched with lace or I tree, killing him almost instantly MERCHANT TAILORING, ES the elbows This is A few days ago a little girl of Wip. Swoop. a good style for the warm latitudes, of Licking Creek township, Fulton county, aged closen or twelve years, was attacked by a victors ram, which butted her upon the undersigned taxes pleasure in informits head with such violence as to cause conclusion the upper part being straight, puffed aged cleven or twelve state, was attacked by or filled in lengthwise, according to taste. Bodies cut or opened to a point of the brain, scriously endangering the life of in front, and worn sufficiently off from thechild spleaded and Rich Amertment of Foreign and the throat to display a black velvet - Alexander Job ison, the father of Fx Gov ernor to new a new returner to be the sear of his age, must search at the transfert Massachas the pendant locket, will be very fushionin ble the coming season, and we recom-United States (terving prined the order as In-CLOTH hand he is the reaction is Westmoresed from eres mend it as a good style for house and county two lac males east of three asburg 010185 summer morning dresser. Single capes -A frightly some as related by the Courton ciona worn with suits, are looped high upon Democrat which took place near that place a the shoulders instead of at the back, as few days ago A dog first started a fox, the fax last season. Round bows with ends then started the dog and chased it home where CASSIMERS i.tid VESTINGare more factionable than resatter. it has remained ever since refusing to leave CASSIMER6 nnd VESTING Souare bodies and trimmed bodies scem the door CASSIMERS VESTING -On the 18th instant a lad named Lantz and as if they had obtained a perpetual aged about 14 years, at South Easton, accident-ly fastened his foot between the track and the lease, and the reason is undorbitedly because they are becoming to our flatplanking of the railroad and was unable to ex-Which he is prepared to make to order in tricate it in time for a passing train, which cut the latest and most fashionable styles, for men chested, small-armed warnen More of his leg directly below the knee. or boys. Goods sold by the piece or by the yard He also keeps on hand a full line of out-door exercise, more good broiled -On the ovening of the 16th inst. Mr. Guo (not fried) beefsteak, less paster, bread-Allen, of Wheeling, Wost Va., was passing kneeding instead of harp and guitar along Se nth street, Pittsburg, wearing a gold GENT8 watch worth \$125 and carrying \$335 in green-backs in his pocket, was met by a couple of twanging, would soon remedy these physical difficulties in the achierwise FURNISHING highwaymon who knocked him down and G001* handsomest race of women in the went through" him in the most approved world. Elegant dinner dresses of rich style, relieving him of the valuables above of every style and description silk or satin- are still cut out square, stated -The Huntingdon Globe notices the fact of but they are not unfrequently out out woman in Iowa, whose house took fire, and ho took a barrel of crout and carried it out, v12n18 JOHN MONTGOMERY both front and back, forming a com and left a package of bills amounting to \$400 to plete pompadaur, and the effect, when Furniture. hurn. She must have been a near relative to filled in with rich lace, is very distinthe Globe editor, for the first thing he would gue. The square may be traumed probaby do, in case of fire, would be to imitate FURNITURE WARE ROOM Howard Street, Bellefonte, Pa., where with lace, ruffles or fringe, accordinghe woman and carry out his crout barrel ---Standard. to the material of the dress, but if of Bureaus, Lounges, Hat Racks, -A new hotel to cost \$35,000 is to be built near the Katalysine Springs, at Gettyaburg, during the coming antimer-or else the Om-piler is inistaken in its prognostications. They will have to have two or three hotels of that kind down there if they want to equal Belle-fonto.-Bellefonte Watchman. satin or very rich silk, the trimming What Note, what Note, Stands, Chairs, Stools, Extension Tables, Etc., should be point or point applique lace. BONNETS. The distinction between hats and Of every description, quality, and price, for ale cheaper than at any other establishmen's of the kind fa Central Pennsylvania. v8n20 HENRY P. HARRIB fonte.—Bellefonte Watchman. Btuff! stuff! Mr. Furey. If you were here to see the extensive foundations and cel-lur-walls (nearly completed) for the Litha Ho-tel, you'd "shut up" forever about your Helle-fonte trevera.—Gettysburg Compler. Probably, the foundations and cellar-walls bonnets will be very small this season; the one is nearly merged into the oth a workman he diamissed simply for er. The size is not in the least en-WILLIAM BROWN, Licensed larged, but the brim is universally bigh position of his personal friend, thrown up, depecially from the left side will be all of that hotel that will be faitshed. Schuyler Colfax, sould not save him. tend to all alles entrusted to him with ears and fidglity. Having had eighteen years ears the ence inthe business, he fatters himself that is can give general satisfaction. v00000

-Speaking of the doings of the Methodist Conference at Danville, the Intelligencer thus notices a certain Reverend, well known in the locality .

locality. In all deliberative assembles it appenrs there must be an excentric character, and the Cor ference had one. A Mr. Mann. Hot header nerrous, impulsive, with a pugnacious dispo-sition, he was a sort of religious latificadit, who warred with every brother who presumed to cross his pathway. Wo happened to be pre-ent one day when Elder Crever made some remark which touched this "soldier; of the fatcontradiction. This was a stunger to the ond thought, in tone and matter, genity Bu-for this breach of good manners, irrepressible Mann was obliged to take his seat.

We presume the individual alluded to bove is the same Mann who so often acted the boy at Milesburg, in this county.

According to the Reading Eagle, Berkscour ty is the greatest iron county in the greatize State of Pennsylvania. But don't be too certain about it, Out

Centre's bowels are pregnant with iron-ore

At the finieral of a MYN. Brenizer, at Ream-town, Lancaster county, recently, five of he sisters were present, the youngest of when, was over eighty years of age. -Miss Susan J. Willessey, postinistress ackson Station, Pa., has been held to answer a charge of robbing the mails. It is said possi proof exists against her. It strikes inthat Miss Susan missed it when she under nok to rob the mails in this manner, and ve hope for the offense she may be confined a ome prison, or hung about the neck of some mule she does not like - Bruck Pomeroy .

-Geo W Whitling, of Cochranton in empting to get into a train of cars whils a notion at Meadville on the 12th instant, p under a wheel which crushed his left leg p such a manner as to require amputation, wh resulted in his death on the following s day

-Asn Armstrong, a citizen of Hengerville, Mercer county, was knocked down wa a blow from a brick in the town of Mercer the evening of the 13th instant, and died in fe the effects of the blow the same night freere Brown, a young man of some 18 years ta-| been arrested as the perpetiator of the day.

-- In honest boy was discovered in Pittsbur. on Friday last, who found a pocket book the Union Depot containing $715-which he immediately gave to the ticket figent to away identification.

-Mad dogs are still prevalent in Montgome ry county. Pa Nearly a dozen persons have seen briten by them during the season

--- Lewis Giles, of Earltownship, Berks conty committed spicide on the 12th instant? hanging himself to a rafter in his stable

Dry Goods.

NEW STORE -- HARPER BRO S Have opened an

FNTIRE NEW STOCK OF GODDS

Of every description, at then new store re-an Spring streets which were

PANIC PRICE PANIC PRICE PANIC PRICE Purchased at

And will be sold as low if not lower than be found elsewhere fathiusection — There's comprises in part.

Dry Goode Dry Goode Notions Homerika, Fanci Goode Clothe,

Boots and Shoes Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes, very charg Hats and Caps Hats and Caps Hats and Paps at lowest pro-Carpet-Bag-Umbrellar Umbrella Umbrellar

SECTIONERA

4.

١

burg jail charged with the offence

ington Montgomery county, was so shocking less upper skirts form a turne divided | ly burned by the explosion of a lampastocan-- A man named John Lee was garoted in St

-There is a great decrease in the rent of Carpet-Bage high priced houses in Philadelphia the present year Houses which rented one year ago for PANIERS. as important as ever, and the basque her or upper skirt is very often arranged) _ The Pennsylvan o State Agricultural Soch the skirt and the small bustle now almost universally worn with or attach- about the 16th of April. ed to the hoope. And en passant it ment of the skirts, long and short, remains the same , the fullness is gath ered at the back, the sides laid in large pleate, the front left entirely plain un into puttings in front as well as at the her almost instant death back. There is a tendency, however, the back, but at the present it is a more the offence a question of taste than a fashion.

SLEEVES AND THINGS

In sleeves there is a great variety, " Best and cheapest figure tenants cannot be procured. Cheaper the styles being adapted by modustes of ; houses are in as brisk dentaul as ever taste and judgment to the materials Parsols Gentlemen and Ladies Furnish's Goods Ladies Cloaks and Circulars (Silk and Coth, Carpeting, Gro-ceries, Queensware, etc. and requirements of the dress. The , shirt, about which he made a brag, and abused sleeves are adaped to the arm, but more this cotemporaties for net having non- It af closely to the cut to the wrist, is still terwards appeared that he had stolen it off a employed for walking dresses. For pole from a brother ofton who was to bed Vor exercise the energy store is the local α website keel country store. Country product taken in exchange for goods, and the higher market price paid \bullet with?

fashions are under the snow as yet, in this latitude, but that we shall endeavor to exhume them ; that hoops (very small) will be more likely to come in than go out with warm weather ; That short dresses, are permanent; that small bonnets will be worn at least another season ; and that there never less for Governor it in operation

Representatives and be signed by the Governor It will then be law of the State

This well makes radical charge in the mode of conducting suits in our courts. where, In some places it has given satisfaction, in others it has not Whilst it is containly calculated to throw mass light upon the case where the interested parties are honest men, it affords a good opportunity for dishonest men to perplos a jury by contradictory testimony. Itsthrows open a wide door for the commission of perjury Men have no regard for their oaths, (and in our day their are entirely too many of this kind,) will use it for the purpose of swearing money into their own pockets. We do not object says the Valley Spirit to the trial. One thing is certain, that at will put ppon the witness stand the very persons who know the most about a transaction, and a discreat jury may the able to sift out the druth in a majority of cases.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL AR original manazine for boys and girls, and for older people, who have young hearts. This is one of the most interesting magazines now published, and should be in the family cifcle of every house where there is any one to enjoy good books. It is published by Alfred L. Sowell & Co., Chicago.- It costs the small sum of one dollar per annum.

-Mr. William Mobray had his leg badly inc erated by being ouight between two cars at the with at 809. Chestaus street, Philace of the Grave Brothers. No. as somes were broken. Ho says the Intelligencer.

.

A bill has been passed in the Senate This is one of the most elegantly prinof our State which allows parties in in- ted specimens of the typographic art j terest to testify in all civil cases. It is extent, and is correspondingly appreciathough that it will pass the House of led by the craft. The present number contains a well written criticism of Shakspeare's play of "Much Adoabout nothing," m which the pleasing char acters of those two very pleasing per sonages, to BFATRICE and BENEDICK, are but whether for the better or worse, we held up to our unqualified admiration. are not successed to say. It will be an There is nuch other matter of interest, experiment here as it has been elso bendes a great deal of information for legislation which destroyed the Lycom the frateratty. B. S. MENNERS, at ing judicial district has not yet passed 515, minor street, Philadelphia, is edid the House of Representatives. FETE tor and publisher

> PACKNEDS MONTHIN, for April 16 now before us. Its change of form, en larged and improved. It differs from most other periodicals in being thoroughly readable from begining to end. It knows nothing about the dignity of dullness It is the cheapest periodical in the country, souwithstanding [that it is the best. Subscriptions to this valuable magazine is the small sum of $1.00 per annum. Address, S. K. PACK-ARD, 937, Broadway, New York.

is out, looking as fresh and pleasant as may be, and filed with choice and entertaining reading. The fashions occupy considerable space, so that the ladies need not be at a loss where to find out, what is to be the pnewailing spring styles. Godoy is an accellent family magazine, and ought to be in every household. Address Logis A. Goozy, Philadelphia.

-THE CREENBREN'S HOUR for April, a pleasant little magazine for children, in received. It is edited by T.S. Andelphia.

8

Where are those dear once now, 4ur joy and delight? Dear and more dear, the new Hidden from sight? Where the y rejoice to be There is the land for me; Fly Time, fly speedily ' Come life and light '

Senator Brea's bill to repeal the Henore such that it shall not pass, either, and has openly boasted that he can buy the Penney Ivabia Legislature like so many sheep. If Mr. HFRDIG controls the law-making power of this State, the people ought to know it. in order that they may be able to" apply the proper remedies to such an insidious disease of the legislative func tions.

---- The Stockton Hotel at Cape May is one of the most entensive and beautiful buildings any where in the bounds of our continent. With Mr. ALBERT W. MARKERY, as president of the company, the public can rest assured that no pains will be spared in the faish of the building. For full particulars of the house we refer you to an article on unother page of to-days paper.

-A. M. Clapp, editor of the Buffalo Express, has been appointed public printer at Washington, in the place of J. D. Defries, removed. This serwed Defries right. He was a narrowminded, small-potate politician. Many being a Democrat. So unpopular he had become, however, that even the

.

• • • •