MIL SECRET OF HAPPINESS.

Some folks, are always firetting W. Tthen troubles never cease Will cothing ever bring them Too blessed boon of peace?

To prace and true contentment The wat is very plain, And it vou'll pay attention The secret I ll explain

Smith's home was all confusion.
His wife would scold and fieta
And such a scene I really think
I never shall forget

His wife would spank the children, And chase them off to bed; Su down and cry, as wom in de And wish that she were dead

She die dit her husband awful nam Armasty, horrid man,' And if he "did it change his ways." She diego right home to mam." When smith returned to bed one night

He thought the matter o er . He yowed he'd end this foolish fight -Have pecae at home once more

Ere long the neighbors noticed.
His wife had changed her tone,
And Smith was "giv and happy,"
For he'd bought an "Our Old Horne

Now has wife is ever siming, And all her wrath has flown, And she calls her husband "darling," For he's bought an "Our Old Home" Smith says his "wife has really.
The sweetest temper known,
And everything is lovely.
Since he's be tan "Our Old Home

And now be takes his comfort;
He's found happiness at list;
And surbeams bright and glanen g.,
Around his way are east.
