BELLEFONTE, Pa., April 20, 1869.

DEAR WATCHMAN:—I do not often trouble you with a communication or ask a place in your columns. But I would like to have a little information, and being at considerable loss to find what I desire, I am constrained to apply to—to—to anybody who can give me the desired information. Some day or two ago I was reading one of Forney's 2 papers—both daily—The Philadelphia Press, and noticed an article on the Imperialist, the new advocate of Monarchy published and but lately started in New York City, and which you have noticed in your two last numbers.

Now Forney says in one of his two papers, the Press, that it (the Imperialist) is clearly a Democratic affair. Now this is what I want to know. How clearly is it a Democratic affair? That Democrats should establish a paper advocating the establishment of an Empire (beautiful word) in this free and happy (?) country, or that a paper, whose avowed object is to overthrow our Republican form of government, and substitute in lieu thereof an Imperial Despotism, should be a Democratic affair, is something very new, and also very queer.

Now Forney's notice of the newcomer is very short. Suspiciously short and refreshingly cool for spring-time. We are inclined to do all justice to Forney. But, we think that he is somewhat muddled—decidedly mixed, amalgamated—in fact he must have no little wool over his eyes. Democracy—Imperialism and as a consequence—Despotism.—Democratic I cannot parse that, can you? Would like to know in what dictionary it is found. Not in Webster, is it? I think it looks more like the outcroppings of a disease which has long afflicted our Radical brethern, since Hamilton's time. Particularly since the close of the late war. Namely, their numerous attempts to override the constitution; obliterate State lines; denial of the right of States to control and direct their own affairs; their repeated attempts to establish a central directory, legislating outside of the constitution to cripple the arm of an executive who could see through their schemes, and had patriotism, and firmness enough to oppose their designs on the liberty of the people.

When the authors of the Imperialist are known, and they will be, they will be found to have been disciples of Hamilton and Adams, fierce black Republican abolitionists — Loyal union men, blatant stay-at-homes and reconstructionists who shouted, loyalty and union forever! meaning a Union, under an Imperial Despot. Such a Union it shall never be. BAYOUE.

CATABILITY.

Oh! miserable cats, that screams and squa.
Upon my neighbor's garden wall:
That howl, and bite, and quarrel, and fight,
About the middle of the night!

Your midnight music shocking taste,
And if you don't stop, with all the haste
I dvance you to Castor Doolittle Quick,
By meaving unonz you the light Cavalick

You monstrous cat, with back like an arch,
I wish you, specially, hurry and march,
Better move off, sir, or, you may depend,
This brick will give you a Grecian Bend!

And you, old cat with squally voice
You can't conceive, I would rejoice,
To get a good shot, and to knock you flat,
You horrible, howling, old feminine cat!

Well cats, yowl on, and I'll seek repose,
And think about Sternbergs clothes,
And merry will be the song I'll sing
Of the elegant suits for the opening Spring

PRINTING EXECUTED IN THE most improved style at this Office.

Pospectus of the Bellefonte "Democratic Watchman" for 1869.

With a record of thirteen years of unquestioned service in the cause of Democracy, for Caucassian supremacy, for strict observance of Constitutional obligations, for State Rights, for Free Trade, and for Liberal Government, the BELLEFONTE

"DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN"

enters upon its fourteenth volume with renewed vigor, with more life, and hope, and determination, than at any other period of its history. When in the vast many other Democratic journals bent to the storm of fanaticism and bigotry, it battled on regardless of everything but duty When many of the friends of State Rights cringed beneath the tornado of armed Federalism and fiery usurpation, it was true to the Democracy of Jefferson When thousands of the leading advocates of Free Trade surrendered to the domination and exactions of the New England Tariff robbers and plunderers of the people, it held aloft the banner of justice When Abolitionism, and its kindred train of infamies, invaded the rights of property and the popular institutions of sovereign States, it fought the good fight of the States and People

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN has never sought for fame by courting infamy; nor for rewards not worthily earned Its record is before its host of readers and friends in all quarters, and upon that record it enters the new year, seeking to advance to the

of State and National journalism, that it may be enabled to battle on for the cause of Justice, Equality, Right and Democracy, with an earnest desire to aid in the restoration of stricken Liberty throughout the Confederacy

To accomplish the purpose in view, we point to its proud and well known record of the past thirteen years, asking for it the kind offices and good will of

in all parts of the country, toward building up for it a commensurate and useful circulation

Now is the hour for safe and bold counsels and careful preparations Never before was there such need for organization and harmony and unanimity among the friends of Liberty and Democracy. If Democrats fail to hold firmly to the cause for which they have sacrificed so much, then Liberty is lost to them and their children, and the Despotism and Tyranny of Federalism is secure evermore, and a monarchial government permanently succeeds the wise, liberal, plain and unostentatious system which the patriot fathers reared for unworthy sons.

It is needless to say to the readers and friends of the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN, that it will continue and to defend and uphold the Constitution and the people against their enemies—to war against all manner of robber Tariffs, and other frauds upon consumers; to uphold free trade and the rights of the many; to oppose the building up of all species of monopolies, and to do its duty fearless and fully in all things.

TO STRIKE AT DESPOTISM, MONOPOLY, AND WRONG,

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN will each week contain more strong and stirring original matter than any other journal in Pennsylvania, and will aim to be worthy of support by Democrats in

ALL THE STATES.

Friends desiring to raise clubs should write for terms, etc.
