H. Forster, from the assistant Assessors and clerks of the 18th district " Oliver Donaldson, Esq., made the presentation in a few appropriate and well timed remarks, to which

Major Forster responded in a short speech full of feeling and over-flowing with thanks to the donators for their appre-cintion of his endeavors to do his duty as a public official, after which the party partook of a splendid oyster supper, prepared for the occasion.

It was a pleasant occasion for the little party gathered together to show their appreciation, not only of a gentleman, a true friend and genial companion, but a trusty officer, a faithful official and an honest, upright citizen. Major Forster, retires from the Assessorship of the 18th district, with the good opinion, and the [well wishes of all with whom his official capacity has brought him m'connection" He retires from office without a stain of suspicion resting upon him – He did his duty, taithfully to the power that ap-pointed him -furly to the people, and they are missing upon him - furly to the people, and they are missing upon discussion of the people.
