A physician, on being inquired of concerning a friend, replied that he had been arrested for taking what did not belong to him, and what he had no business to meddle with.
"By whom was he arrested and what did he take?"
"He was arrested by death for taking the typhus fever."

RETALIATION.—A witness in a late divorce suit kept saying that the wife had a retaliating disposition—that she "retaliated for every little thing."
"Did you ever see her husband kiss her?" asked the wife's counsel.
"Yes, sir; often."
"Well, what did she do on such occasions?"
"She always retaliated, sir."

A suite of rooms was advertised at a fashionable watering-place as having among its attractions "a splendid view over a fine garden adorned with numerous sculptures." It was found, on applying at the address, that the garden adorned with sculpture was the cemetery.

A short time since, as a well known English master in a grammar school was censuring his pupil for the dullness of his comprehension, and consenting to instruct him in a sum in Practice, he said, "Is not the price of a penny loaf always a penny?" when the boy innocently replied, "No, sir; the baker sell'em two for three half pence when they are stale."

At a moment of difficulty does a husband, knowing his own utter helplessness, draw so closely to his wife's side for comfort and assistance as when he wants a button sewed on his shirt collar.

A good word for a bad one, is worth much and costs little.

Return pay wages to a servant, than accept the offered help of occasional attendants—such are never paid.

NAMING AN ANIMAL.—"Can any boy name an animal of the order 'edents,' that is a front toothless animal?" a boy, whose face beamed with pleasure at the prospect of a good "mark," replied—"I can."
"Well what is the animal?" inquired the teacher "My grandmother?" replied the boy, in great glee.

"Justs, spose dere are sild chickens in a coop, and the man sells tree, how many are dere left?"
"What time ob day was it?"
"What time ob day was it?"

Why what de-debit has dat to do wit it?"

A "good deal, honey. If it was arter dark der would be none left; dat is, if you happened to come along dat way."

"Look here, nigger, just stop dere, plode you head, de nigger, de nigger die. I will, sartin as Moses!"
