

The ladies of the "Borosis" Club, in New York, gave a dinner, or, as it was styled, a tea, on Saturday, at Delmonico's, to some fifty or sixty gentlemen, more or less connected with the press. For four hours speeches were delivered continuously by about a score of the ladies—none of the bearded guests being permitted the pleasure of speaking. Mrs. Cook presided, and in the opening speech, she was followed by other members of the society. Emily Fern responded to the toast, "The Man of the Period," (Miss Clara Nichols) to "Men and their Buttons," Mrs. Mary Davis to "The Coming Women," Mrs. D. Tompkins to "The Professional Woman," Mrs. Tompkins to "The Newspaper Man, from a Domestic Point of View," Mrs. Willson to "The Coming Women," Mrs. Noble to "The Committee Women," "Mine Demorest to "The Monopoli-ster," and Mrs. Hillard to "The Gentleman, Heaven's first, best gift to Woman." Many witty and wise things were said in these speeches, and the occasion was one of rare pleasure to all participating.

When Queen Victoria was married, twenty-one years ago, she had twelve bridesmaids. Sixteen of these young ladies has since been married, one has been married twice; one is now a widow, and three are dead. In a dozen instances selected at random from any class of American society, the statistics after such lapse of time would be likely to be very different.

A committee of the Bloomington, Iowa, Temperance League recently made a canvass of the women of that city as to their position on the temperance question. This is the result: Women in favor of prohibition 1,433 Women opposed to prohibition 143 Women neutral or indifferent 31

The canvass lately made of this place shows that our Bellefonte ladies, feel and think on the Temperance question, just about as the women of Bloomington do.

The latest styles of bonnets have been reported in Albany as a cabbage leaf trimmed with three red peppers and a cherry salsa for top. It is called the jockey. Has one advantage—can be eaten as salad when the fashion changes. One composed of three sighs and a lot of pink colored fog was considered cheap.

Prospectus of the Bellefonte "Democratic Watchman" for 1869.

With a record of thirteen years of unqualified service in the cause of Democracy, for American supremacy, for strict observance of Constitutional obligations, for State Rights, for Free Trade, and for Liberal Government, the BELLEFONTE

DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN enters upon its fourteenth volume with renewed vigor, with more life, and hope, and determination, than at any other period of its history. When in the past many other Democratic journals had to the storm of fanaticism and bigotry, it battled on regardless of every thing but duty. When many of the friends of State Rights cringed beneath the torments of armed Federalism and Tory usurpation, it true to the Democracy of Jefferson. Who, thousands of the leading advocates of Free Trade surrendered to the domination and exactions of the New England Tariff robbers and plunderers of the people, it held aloft the banner of justice. When Abolitionism and its kindred train of infamies, invaded the rights of property and the popular institutions of "sovereign States, it fought the good fight of the States and People.

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN has never sought for fame by shouting "infamy, nor for rewards not worthily earned. Its record is before it, and upon that record it enters the new year, seeking to advance to the FRONT RANK of State and National Journalism, that it may be enabled to battle on for the cause of Justice, Equality, Right and Democracy, with an earnest desire to aid in the restoration of stricken Liberty throughout the Confederacy.

To accomplish the purpose in view, we point to its proud and well-earned record of the past thirteen years, asking the kind offices and good will of

BRAVE, BOLD, UNCONQUERED DEMOCRATS in all parts of the country, toward building up for it a commensurate and useful circulation.

Now is the hour for safe and bold counsels and careful preparations. Never before was there such need for organization and harmony and unanimity among the friends of Liberty and Democracy. If Democrats fail to hold firmly to the cause for which they have sacrificed so much, then Liberty is lost to them and their children, and the Despotism and Tyranny of Federalism is secure forever, and a monarchical government permanently succeeds the wise, liberal, plain and unostentatious system which the patriot fathers reared for unworthy sons.

It is needless to say to the readers and friends of the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN, that it will continue

TO STRIKE AT DESPOTISM, MONOPOLY, AND WRONG, and to defend and uphold the Constitution and the people against their enemies—to war against all manner of robberies, frauds and other frauds upon consumers; to uphold free trade and the rights of the many to oppose the building up of all species of monopolies, and to do its duty fearlessly and fully in all things.

The BELLEFONTE WATCHMAN will each week contain more strong and stirring original matter than any other journal in Pennsylvania, and will aim to be worthy of support by Democrats in

ALL THE STATES. Friends desiring to raise cause should write for terms, etc.
