The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA:

Friday Morning, May 28, 1869.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

——The cu-cumbrous cares of glorious gardening times, are pressing rapidly upon us.

——Fewer weddings have taken place in this section during the past month, than for any month for three years past

——We notice the new assessor of this district Bow-en round on our streets on Tuesday last. Exit the battle-scarred soldier. Enter the Radical stay-at-home

—— A crazy lecturer by the name of Carney, held forth in the court house, on Monday evening last, on the subject of "Mormonism" It was very slimly attended

——Some defect having been noticed in the new jail yard wall, workmen are now engaged in tearing out a portion of it for repairs.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a visit from C T Huston, Esq, editor of the Daily Gazette, at Williamsport, on Wednesday last.

——The season for "ye travelling minstrels" is again at hand, and Bellefonte has this week been blessed, or cursed, with several hand organs and monkeys

——The bed room of Mr John Miller, sr, of Hublersburg, was entered and robbed of some thirty dollars in money, a few nights since, while Mr and Mrs Miller were in bed

——Mr Daniel Derr, up on the hill, having built a substantial residence and shop, has had it painted a handsome color, and it now presents quite an attractive appearance

——The Methodist congregation were regaled and highly edified by a discourse on "Sampson" on Sunday evening They should have another now about the "Foxes," to complete the subject

FIRE.—The old Methodist church at Beech Creek, that had lately become the property of John Nestlerode, esq, and occupied by David Kurtz, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last

PERSONAL.—Hon Fred Kurtz of the Centre Reporter, brightened our sanctum with his presence on Friday this week

We also notice Capt R D Cummings of the Eagle Hotel, Philadelphia, in town this week

Dogs are still running at large in this place without being muzzled Does our chief burgess want to wait until some one is mad and all the dogs in town are hitten? We hope, for the safety of our people, that some steps will be taken to prevent cases of hydrophobia in our midst.

John Holabaugh, aged about 13 years had his leg so badly crushed by being run over by one of the truck cars, of the Snow Shoe Lumber Company, at their mill, on Tuesday last, that amputation was deemed necessary Dr Dobbins of this place performed the operation and the patient is doing well

——The clerk of the weather seems to have at last got the elements into some kind of subordination, May promising to go out with the mercury up among the seventies, June, the sweet month of roses, approaches with every prospect of delightful enjoyment The season for picnics, and boat-rides by moonlight, will soon be here

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Wednesday evening last, the Foundry at Erbertown, above Pine Grove, together with all the patterns, a wagon shop, and four or five new wagons and tools, a black smith shop, and a dwelling house, was entirely destroyed by fire The loss will not be less than eight or ten thousand dollars.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Sunday school convention held in this place during the present week, closed last night It was well attended and considerable interest was manifested in it by the friends of Sabbath Schools The proceedings in full, which we were unable to obtain before going to press, will be published next week.

CIRCUS.—Byran's great circus and collection of wild beasts, will exhibit in this place on Thursday, June 3d, in the afternoon and evening This is conceded to be one of the largest, best equipped and most completed in all its departments of any establishment now travelling upon this continent. The exhibition comprises a rare collection of Animals, Birds, &c., many of them of species never before seen in Bellefonte of which a sight would be ample compensation for the money invested. Besides the menagerie, the splendid performances in the arena are well worthy a visit to witness the agility and display of beautiful riding, acrobatic feats and drolleries of the clowns Some of the most distinguished circus actors in the world are connected with Byran's troupe, while the clowns keep the audience in good humor during the progress of the entertainments, whenever they can possibly mix in.

FROM BELLEFONTE TO SAN FRANCISCO.—For the benefit of those who contemplate risking their necks on that grand humbug known as the Pacific Rail Road, while trying to get to San Francisco, California, we give the following table of distances:

	Miles
Bellefonte to Pittsburg,	150
Pittsburg to Chicago,	468
Chicago to Omaha,	491
Omaha to Bryan,	858
Bryan to Ogden,	231
Ogden to Elko,	278
Elko to Sacramento,	405
Sacramento to San Francisco,	117
Total,	3079.

Those who intend trying the trip, can calculate the distances from Omaha, and divide them by the number of miles they can walk in a day, which will give them the exact time it will take to reach the "golden shore," allowing three days to reach Omaha.

——Bellefonte, as a summer resort for city folk, is unequaled in its facilities for enjoyment by any town in the State We have here large and elegant hotels, excellent trout fishing within a mile or so of the town, splendid roads, delicious water, woods to hunt in, in which there is plenty of game, a couple of good billiard rooms, first-rate liveries, and the most beautiful and romantic scenery in the whole country Our mountains climb up to the sky all around us, sending down upon our hot and weary heads cool and delicious breezes, combining with the sweet and languid perfumes of the South, the fresh, sweet smell of the honeysuckle and the delightful odors of a thousand flowers from our "crags and peaks" Besides all this, we have beautiful women, whose very presence is a joy forever. Tired, suffering, languishing, heated denizens, of the city, come to la Belle Fontel

——We preceive by "General Order No 3," promulgated from the headquarters of the Grand Army of the McElhattan, at Lock Haven, which reached this place on Tuesday last, that the army would be engaged in another great battle, at Wayne station, Clinton county, on the farm of Hon James W Quiggle, yesterday Officers and soldiers of the "army" at this point, were ordered to report at headquarters immediately The "Hostetter, the "Mishlerians" and the "Plantationites, under the command of "Mrs Nancy Bowman," are becoming somewhat obstreperous and it is to disperse those unbelieving hordes that the Grand Army has again been ordered into action

UNSEATED LANDS.—Among the bills passed by the legislature is one providing that the Treasurer of each county shall keep a book to be called the receipt book, in which shall be recorded the receipts of all payments made to him on account of taxes paid on unseated lands, designated the number of acres warranted passed and the name or names of owners or alleged owners of each tract of land, the township where situate and amount of taxes paid and when and by whom paid a certificate copy of which receipt and book to the Treasury and the seal of the courts shall be the only evidence of the payment of taxes except when duly recorded in accordance with the provisions of the first section of the act of March 15th 1815, that the owners of unseated lands shall have two years from the passage of this act within which to have their receipts for taxes on unseated lands recorded in said book, whereby the same have not already been entered in a book heretofore kept by the Treasury of the county for that purpose, that no parol evidence shall be received to prove the payment of the taxes on unseated lands

LECTURE.—The Rev Francis Ogden the able and popular lecturer, will address the people of Bellefonte, in the Catholic Church, on Wednesday evening, June 2, 1869 Subject, "The Bible"

As it is admitted that God is the author, happiness of all kind, and wills not even the death of the sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, it follows, that to gain this end He must furnish an universal means of salvation.

Taking this as granted, the Rev lecturer's train of thoughts, syllogistically expressed, will assume this form An universal means of salvation must be adapted to suit the age, condition, capacity, &c, of every human being As will be proved, the Bible is not thus adapted therefore the Bible is not an universal means of salvation

The Rev lecturer is not an enemy planting thorns in the vineyard of Christ, but a skilful gardener pruning the withered vines, and cutting down the "barren fig-trees that incumber the ground;" he is not a vandal, devastating the Kingdom of God upon earth; but a valiant champion of the Cross, marching over the ruins of human pride, pointing out, with infallible certainty, the palace of the great King "built upon the rock against which the gates of hell shall not prevail," and when endowed with "Holy Ghost, the spirit of truth; the teacher of all truth, and bringing all things to our minds."

This will, undoubtedly, be a very interesting and instructive lecture for all those who believe there is a God, and that his creatures are bound to serve Him in the manner He has commanded ——By reference to an article in another portion of this issue of the WATCHMAN, it will be seen that the faculty of the Agricultural College in this county, as a return in part for the liberal endowment bestowed upon it by the State, offer to fit a number of teachers for imparting instruction in the sciences, in our schools and academies, free of charge. This is an offer that will give an opportunity to young men, who do not feel able to pay for tuition, to acquire a scientific education that will not only be greatly to their intellectual advantage, but may result in great pecuniary benefit to them The offer of the college is a handsome one, and will no doubt be eagerly accepted.

Business Notices.

—There is nothing in this world prettier than a pretty lady prettily dressed in a pretty bonnet, trimmed in a pretty style with pretty ribbons, flowers, &c' Pretty fixings for pretty ladies can always be had at pretty low prices at Miss LEMMEY'S Notion Store, west end of Spring Creek Bridge.

THE MORE THE MERRIER.—People used to talk about high prices as something inseparable from big stores Oak Hall has done much to do away with that foolish prejudice by giving a live example of the Largest Clothing House in the State selling goods at the lowest prices And men are coming to understand that the truth is just the reverse and that the houses doing the most business and so requiring the largest accommodations are the ones who can and do sell the Cheapest In this as in every thing else except courtship and marriage, "the more the merrier"

The merriest place in town is WANAMAKER & BROWN'S S E corner Sixth and Market Street

THE DYSPEPTIC.—The trials and sufferings of the Dyspeptic cannot be realized by those so unfortunate as to be afflicted by this disease, and yet how many of them suffer and continue to suffer Why they do this so patiently it is impossible to tell It may be from ignorance of any certain remedy, or, it may be from prejudice against the use of a Patent Medicine HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS has cured thousands of the worst cases of Dyspepsy, and each day adds new names to the record of its usefulness Give the Bitters a trial

HOOFLAND'S BITTERS contains no liquor in any form

While in Philadelphia last week, we, as a matter of course called upon our good friend J W MILLER with I P CHAPMAN & Co, 57 North 3rd St We found him, as well as Mr Chalfant and the balance of the firm, in business up to the eyes After looking over their immense stock and noting the very low prices we thought it was no wonder they were busy for they were not only doing their own customers in the country in the shape of a tremendous stock to assort from at lower rates than were dreamed goods could be sold for, in retaining for them a custom second to no house in Philadelphia Mr Miller we believe, intends visiting our county and the western portion of the State early in June with samples of notions, white goods, &c and the few of our merchants who have not yet seen him their orders will have an opportunity of closing so after examining samples of such goods as they intend We know they will save money by giving him their orders, and will at least lose nothing by waiting to see samples and his prices

—The following highly complimentary notice of our townsman, Dr J D WINGATE, we get from the Lewisburg Herald, every word of which we know to be deserving

POP VOX.—Our old and esteemed friend, Dr J D Wingate of Bellefonte, gave us a social call one day last week during the Dental Convention in this place last week The Dr is a genial gentleman and no one is more welcome in our sanctum In his entry the Doctor leaves nothing undone to qualify himself so as to do justice to his patients Having originated useful improvements as well as contributed to its literature, he is recognized by those engaged in the same business as well as the public at large as one of the leading lights in the science of his profession

THE PRODIGAL SON ON THE BACK TRACK.—

The prodigal son came back on a run,
Said he, "I think it is wretched fun
To do any more as I have done!"
His knees were out and his coat was torn,
And, altogether, he looked forlorn
His buttons were off, his pants were split
And his clothes were all of such horrible fit,
And this was the way he looked so odd—he
Had purchased goods that were made of shoddy

And now, said he, it's foolish and rash,
The stupid way that I've spent my cash,
I used to deal at the "Great Bush Hall,"
And now I've been to the places all,
Where they say they keep, at prices so cheap,
Better goods than at 'Great Bush Hall,'
And I've looked around, and at great cost found
That they're neither cheaper nor better at all"
And the prodigal wiped away a tear,
And said, "look here, my friend, look here,
Hereafter I'm coming all the more
To buy at Zimmerman Brother's store,
For on what they tell you, you can depend,
And what they sell you is good to the end,
And I'll never buy any more goods at all,
Except the goods at the 'Great Bush Hall.'"

Once in a long, long while an old customer wanders off elsewhere for a little while, but he soon finds what a mistake he has made, and comes back to buy at the cheapest of all cheap places, the elegant goods of all kinds sold by ZIMMERMAN Bros & Co, Agents for American Buttonhole and Sewing Machine. 22-3t

A MYSTERY.—I that rustic path was trending, when the sun his rays were shedding—beaming, fairly streaming through the trees; and I watched the streamlet glistening, as entranced I there was listening to the melting, merry music on the breeze, when beneath the trees reclining where no ray of sun was shining, lo! I saw a fellow-being on the ground! Though no other feature flaked, quickly soon his eyes uplifted—upwards lifted as he wildly looked around. "Good friend," said I, approaching, "do not charge me with encroaching—are you waiting for some messenger of news?" But no other word he uttered, and no other sentence muttered, save—"You'll find there's none like Graham's boots and shoes!"

That's a strange expression, surely!" said I, looking down demurely. "I trust good, good sir, that you the question will excuse."

But he only looked the prouder as he spoke the words the louder, "There's always perfect comfort in Graham's boots and shoes"

"Why, bless me, man!" I shouted, as his sanity I doubted, "'Tis surely nought to me what people's goods you use!"

But he only cried the higher, with enthusiastic fire, "You'll save your cash by wearing Graham's boots and shoes!"

So I left him there reclining, where no ray of sun was shining, and frequently I wondered at the words the man did use, thinking surely 'twas a mistery, and that some hidden history was weaving round myself and Graham's boots and shoes. So then I resolved to buy them; nay, I felt compelled to try them. And behold! I've cause for gladness that the words I deemed were madness induced me thus to purchase Graham's boots and shoes!

JOY FOR THE MILLION!

Well friends I've been thinking and made up my mind
To say a few things for the good of mankind.
And if you take my advice in what I shall say,
I'm certain your troubles are ended to-day

I know it is pleasant to be minus the blues,
Pleasant to think, and do as you choose.
And when peace and contentment can easily be found,
Why should ye go sorrowing sadly around?

Just see the crowd passing as if in parade,
All hurrying around for Bush's Arcade,
Where LONEBERGER & HENRY, its everywhere known
Are selling like hot cakes, the glorious "Old Home"

Old Mr Jenkins spoke these words to me,
I'm as contented and happy as a mortal can be
A smile of delight upon his countenance shone,
He'd been to LONEBERGER & HENRY'S and bought an "Old Home"

A sparkle of gladness is seen in each eye,
As the people in hundreds go hurrying by,
To think of the joys and the sorrows that's flown
Since they've invested a little in the famous "Old Home"

Now homes that were cheerless are merry and bright,
And hearts that were saddened are happy and light
And the children exclaim in a loud joyful tone
Papa's ended his troubles since he's bought an "Old Home."

And the young and the old, the low and the high
To Bush's Arcade are hurrying by,
And thousands of mortals whose troubles have flown
Are singing the praises of the glorious "Old Home"
