Names of Days---Their Origin.

The idols which our Saxon ancestors worship, and from which the days of the week derive their names, were various, and the principal object of their adoration.

THE IDOL OF THE SUN.—The idol which represented the glorious luminary of the day, was the chief object of their worship. It is described like the bust of a man, set upon a pillar, holding with outstretched arms a burning wheel before his breast. The first day of the week was especially dedicated to its adoration, which they termed the Sun's Deag; hence is derived the word Sunday.

THE IDOL OF THE MOON.—The next was the idol of the moon, which they worshiped on the second day of the week called by them Moon's Deag—and since by us, Monday. The form of the idol is intended to represent a woman, habited in a short coat and hood, and with two long ears.

THE IDOL OF TUISCO.—Tuisco was at first deified as the father and ruler of the Teutonic race, but in the course of time he was worshiped as the son of the earth. From this came the Saxon words, Tuisco Deag, which we call Tuesday. He is represented standing on a pedestal, as an old venerable sage, clothed in the skin of an animal, and holding a scepter in the right hand.

THE IDOL OF WODEN, OR ODEN.—Woden, or Oden, was one of the supreme divinities of the northern nations. This herd is supposed to have emigrated from the East, but from what country or at what time is not known. His exploits from the greater part of the mythological creed of the northern nations, and his achievements were magnificent beyond all credibility. The name of the fourth day in the week, called by the Saxons Wodens Deag, and by us Wednesday, is derived from this personage. Woden is represented in a bold and martial attitude, clad in armor with a broadsword uplifted in his right hand.

THE IDOL THOR.—Thor was the oldest and bravest of the sons of Woden or Friga, and was, after his parents, considered the greatest god among the Saxons and Danes. To him the fifth day of the week, called by them Thor's Deag and by us Thursday, was consecrated. Thor is represented as sitting on a throne, with a crown of gold on his head, adorned with a circle in front, wherein were set twelve bright burnished gold stars, and with a regal scepter in his right hand.

THE IDOL OF FRIGA, OR FREGA.—Friga, or Frega, was the wife of Woden, or Odin, and, next to him, the most revered divinity among the heathen Saxons, Danes, and other northern nations. In the most ancient times, Friga, or Frega, was the same with the goddess Horta or Earth. To her the sixth day of the week was consecrated, which, by the Saxons, was written Friag's Deag, corresponding with our Friday. Friga is represented with a drawn sword in her right hand and a bow in her left hand.

THE IDOL SCATER.—The idol Scater is represented on a pedestal, which is placed a perch, on the sharp, prickled back of which he stood. His head was uncovered, and his visage lean. In his left hand was a pail of water, wherein were flowers and fruits, and his dress consisted of a long coat, girded with lines. The appellation given to the day of the celebration is still retained. The Saxons named it Scater's Deag, which we call Saturday. Thus the days of our week are derived from heathen ideas and heathen worship.

WILLIAM PENN AND THE INDIAN.—WHAT WILLIAM PAID FOR PENNSYLVANIA.—We give below the deed by which the State of Pennsylvania was transferred to William Penn by the Indians in 1682:

This indenture witnesseth that we, Packehanke, Jackham, Sikal, Partquessett, Jervis, Essepen, Folktroy, Hollapapans Econus, Machtoka Methcogan, Wissa Powey, Indian Kings, Sachemakers, right owners of all lands from Quing-Lumgus, called Duck Creek, into Upland, called Chester Creek; all along by the west of the Delaware river, and so between the said creeks backward as far as a man can ride in two days with a horse, for and in consideration of the following goods to us in hand paid and secured to be paid by William Penn, proprietary and Governor of the provinces of Pennsylvania and territories thereof, viz: 20 guns, 20 fathoms match coat, 20 fathoms stroudwater, 20 blankets, 20 kettles, 20 pounds of powder, 100 bars of lead, 40 tomahawks, 100 knives, 40 pair of stockings, 1 barrel of beer, 20 lbs red lead, 100 fathoms of wampum, 30 glass bottles, 30 pewter spoons, 100 awl blades, 300 tobacco pipes, 100 hands of tobacco, 20 tobacco tongs, 20 steels, 300 flints, 30 pair of scissors, 30 combs, 60 looking glasses, 300 needles, 1 skipple of salt, 30 lbs. of vermilion, 5 gallons of molasses, 20 tobacco boxes, 100 jewsharps, 20 hoes, 20 gimblets, 30 wooden screw boxes, 100 string knives. Do hereby acknowledge, &c., as given under our hands, &c., at Newcastle, second day of the Eighth month, 1683.

A dispatch dated Lima, O., May 9, 1868, states that two confidence men, reported as from Chicago, swindled a countryman from Pennsylvania, one day last week, on a train of cars near that city. They were arrested and lodged in Allen county jail to await trial. Last night a Vigilance Committee, supported by some of our leading men, took them from jail, shaved their heads, gave them a coat of tar, feathers and eggs and with a kick and a warning to depart at once, dismissed them. Our citizens are determined that lawyer men shall not carry on their nefarious trade here, and it will be healthy for them to give Limatown a wide berth hereafter. The town has been overrun with these miserable scoundrels, until our people feel that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

A worthy Quaker thus wrote: "I expect to pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there may be any kindness I can show, or any good I can do any fellow human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I will not pass this way again."

Medicines & Restoratives.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other.—Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cured their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once, it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, where ever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstruction which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required to change the diseased action of the system.—With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. SIR, J. C. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.—A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm the most delicate.

HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
