The Convention was largely attende ed by the friends of the Sunday School cause, and by the citizens gen erally of Tyrone and vicinity. Some of the meetings were of the most in corry that we have not space to lay the proceedings in full before the pub-lic. On the whole, the Convention was a grand success, and we have no doubt all the friends of SundaySchools returned to their homes feeling that "it was good to be here." and animated with a strronger desire to promote the interests of the schalers of their schools, and the cause of Christ.

Too much cannot be said in praise of The Tyrone School and those hav ing it in charge At the Children's Meeting, on Wednesday afternoon, 72 they carned an enviable reputation When as a school of singing children near three hundred youthful voices commenced to sing that most beauti-ful hymn, "Gather at the River," ic seemed as if the heavens had suddenly opened above us, and our ears ere clarmed with the house of angelie voices.

We cannot close this imperfect rebort, without speaking of the ho-pi-5,760 | tality of the citizens of Tyrone, and especially of those private families and hotel-keepers, ("Ward House," From the above data, which are believed ['City Hotel,' and Exchange to be substantially correct, it appears [Hotel,']) who so kindly received and Erchange entertained the delegates during their [ LAZARI - A MORRIS CELIERA the children and youth of Centre county preacher in charge at Tyrone, who have thus far been brought under Sab provided them with homes. -THE PRODIGAL SON-ON THE BACK TRACE -The prodigal son came back, on a run, Said he, "I think it is wretched fun To do any more as I have done!" His knees were out and his coat was torn And, altogether, he looked forlorn, His buttons were off, his pants were split, And his clothes were all of such horrible fit, And this was the way he looked so odd-he Had purchased goods that were made of these

And now, said he, it's foolish and rash. The stupid way that I've spent my cash used to deal at the "Great Bush Hall," And now I ve been to the places all, Where ther say they keep, at processed, , Better goods than at "Great Bush Hall," And I ve looked argund, and at great cost form That they're neither chesper nor better at all And the prodigal wiped away a tear And said, "look here, my friend, look here, Hereafter 1 m coming all the more To buy at Zimmerman Brother « Store For on what they tell you, you can depend And what they sell you is good to the end, And I ll never buy any more goods scall, Except the goods at the Giroat Bush Hall
