THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

——Wheat in this section is just budding to blossom.

——Philipsburg, this county has a population of 1,738.

——Many of the little folks in the vicinity of Snow Shoe, are suffering with scarlet fever.

——The work of rebuilding the torn-down portion of the new jail wall is progressing rapidly

——Mrs. Schimpf's concerts on Monday and Tuesday evenings last, at Bush's Hall, were but tolerably well attended.

——About fifty thousand dollars expended upon the public roads of this county would enhance the value of real estate more than tripple that amount

——The front of the old Episcopal church, lately purchased by the Lutheran congregation of this place, is undergoing some much needed repairs at present

——If men want to pay exhorbitant rents and enormous taxes, let them fix their families inside the imaginary line, known as the "limits of the borough of Bellefonte."

——Wonder if the lady, who thinks little what's his name, the "sweetest little fellow in town," don't think our blind-eyed mulley cow, the handsomest female, hereabouts

——A large party of gentlemen from Lock Haven, visited this place on Wednesday evening last, for the purpose of bidding farewell to Gov Curtin, before his departure for Russia

——Some of our sporting men are very proud of their fast horses We notice them frequently driving to and from the trotting grounds, looking as proud and dignified as the king on his throne

——Butter, in Bellefonte is now sold, twenty cents a pound This is the first instalment of the good times promised us by the men who promised us everything from the election of General Grant!

At the rate the commissioners have been paying off the county indebtedness during the past five years, it will take less than two years to put the county entirely out of debt A joyous fact for tax payers.

Considerable interest is beginning to be manifested in local political circles just now The question of who will be and who is not to be, is being asked very frequently To all anxious ones we will just say wait and see ——The fly season has made its appearance, and the little buzzers have entered upon their brief existence As yet, they are comparatively few in number, but their presence tells unmistakably of Summer and the maturity of the year

A new drug store has been opened in Brockerhoff's brick building, on Bishop street, by Messrs Zellers and Jarrett, of Lock Haven As soon as these gentlemen get their stock opened, they will ask for a share of the public favor

POCKET PICKED We understand that one of the witnesses in the Thompson-Hill-Barlow case that has been on trial before a board of arbitrators at this place, for several days past, had his pocket picked of $20 on Tuesday evening last

The place to get job-work done, neatly and expeditiously, is at the WATCHMAN office We have just received an elegant assortment of new job and card type, and are now better than ever prepared to execute all orders Call and see

CHANGE OF TIME The Bellefonte and Pinegrove stage will hereafter leave Bellefonte at 2, o'clock P M, and arrive at Pine Grove at 6 o'clock P M, returning, leave Pine Grove at 6 o'clock A M, arriving at Bellefonte at 10 o'clock A. M, daily Sundays excepted.

——Rev Joseph Burchard again preached two interesting sermons to the Presbyterian congregation, in the court house here, on Sunday last Mr B, had just returned from New York, and was on his way West to resume his pastoral duties at Waukesha, Wisconsin He left here on Monday evening

——His excellency, Gov Curtin, United States Minister to Russia, has been visiting his Bellefonte friends for the last few days The Governor left here last night for Philadelphia, where he is to have a public reception in Independence Hall, on the 12th instant, prior to his departure for the Russian Empire, the use of that old revolutionary building having been tendered him by the common councils of that city The "farewell" to Mr Curtin here last night, at the court house, was largely attended, and a great many persons shook him by the hand He leaves his native town with the best wishes of our entire people

HOW THEY LIE—THE JAIL WALL.—From the negro suffrage organ, the Republican, we clip the following:

> Put a few days ago and a part of the jail wall in rear fell down. Workmen are now engaged in rebuilding it. Repairing the new jail, built at a cost of $70,000! Who gets the spoils this time? Who is to blame for such mismanagement? The Commissioners the Architect or the Contractors? The tax payers want to know.

A cause must be utterly hopeless that condescends to all manner of deceptions to keep its adherents clinging to it.—From an entire column of just as bare faced lies, we take the above as a specimen. The facts in regard to the rebuilding of part of the jail yard wall, are simply these: In giving out the contract, the commissioners specified particularly how the work was to be done—well and permanently. When the jail yard was finished, and they began inspecting it, they found that one side was built crooked, although strongly put up, yet they refused to take the job off the contractors hands, and held back some three thousand dollars of his pay, until the job was completed, in accordance with the contract The contractors wanting their money, and knowing they could not get it until their work was done properly, tore down the wall last week, and re-built it as the contract demanded If the commissioners had acted, as the republican officials about this town do, they would have taken the job off the contractors hands—crook and all, paid for it in orders, and then paid an exorb'tant price to some one else to do it over

NIG OR SO NIG—On Thursday of last week, the day of the menagerie, we noticed four of the dirtiest, drunkenest, greasiest, sanctest niggers it has ever been our misfortune to look upon, staggering through the streets, insulting all who came in their way In front of Bush's Arcade, we understand, one of the "spotted knobs of the freedman's bureau seized hold of two respectable white girls from the country, and wanted to know what they came to the circus, and how much they were to pay The ladies, frightened half to death, after struggling a while, got loose and ran up street, when one of this darkey's companions wanted to know, "why the h—ll, didn't you kiss her"

> "Only this and nothing more"

Ain't it delightful, radicals, to live on such intimate terms with these "brilliant men of color, who fought, bled and flew, "every hen-roost, south of Mason and Dixon's Line? Ain't it beautiful to have these blackamoors, who smell loud er than the condensed perfume of a hundred skunks, think and believe that they are just as good as you or your daughters? Goin Nag! Gorramall! One's about as good as the other

CASE OF POISONING.—A case of poisoning occurred in Lock Haven on Monday night Some cheese had been brought to town by one of the Germans, and bought of a [illegible] all of whom had been more or less severely poisoned by eating thereof. In the family of Mr Kunz nearly all are ill at present, and four are entertained for their recovery the worst cases being Mr K himself, wife, son and two [illegible] The cheese had been [illegible] the poisoning occurred. The cheese was analyzed by Dr Rothrock of the Dickinson Seminary, and found to contain arsenic in large quantities. Dr Rothrock will be here to-day to [illegible] the cheese in question

——On Tuesday of last week a monster trout was caught at the Mill's town dam, in the Juniata river, in a dip net, by J A Leinaweaver It was 16 inches long, 4½ inches broad, and weighed 2 lbs 2 oz.—Patriot

That may be a big one for Millerstown and the Juniata, but a Bellefonte fisherman would scarcely stop to look at it

——The case of small pox, alluded to last week, is the only one yet reported, and as we are informed by Dr Harris, the attending physician, it is convalescent The probabilities are that the disease, with proper care on the part of the sanitary authorities, will disappear with the recovery of the present invalid

——Upon accident should happen them before ripening time, peaches, cherries, and other fruit will be unusually plenty the present season, in this section.

——Strawberries have made their appearance in this locality

——The special auditors appointed by the court, under recent act of assembly, to re-audit the borough accounts, from 1860 to 1869, were sworn in and began overhauling things on Monday last

The following is a copy of the Act authorizing and requiring them to audit the accounts:
