A New Dodge.

Telegraphic dispatches have for the past two weeks announced in all parts of the country that, a new issue is to be sprung by the Republican party of Pennsylvania in the campaign now before us. That issue is to be an enforce ment of the Alabama claims, or, in other words, a war with England; with a view of forcing the Democratic party to follow in its wake, or be charged with British toryism, or sympathy with England. This is the dodge, and the wisest headls of the Jacobin party of the country have been gathered together in hatching out the programme. A meeting of some of these oversmart fellows was lately held in Philadelphia, including our townsman Circus, Sun, NEE, and others.

It is a weak attempt to get up a false issue, behind which they hope to hide, in deceiving the people into a quasi in dorsement of the TRUE ISSUE-NE GRO EQUALITY!

But we say to them. You shall not dodge nor evade that issue. They may beat their drums, and cry aloud, attempting to distract public attention to any other question, while they are at their devilish work, but it will avail not—the issue in this campaign is the infamous action of the last Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania which dar ed to barter away the birthright and liberty of Pennsylvanians at the bid ding of a corrupt and revolutionally power outside the Comm onwealth.

The issue of the campaign is -The Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality outrage of the last General Assembly. and no dodging or effort to introduce any other more will avail!

The settlement or non-settlement of the Alabama claims is as nothing to Pennsylvanians compared to the out ragous action of the late Legislative con -piratora.

The Democracy of the old Keystone will maist on holding the profligates of Pennsylvania to their dark record, nor ing authors till they are overthrown, and the people are tree from their in " of insult and wrong.

Poor Old Tennessee.

The South I the South! the South!

Down and d Tennessee,
Where the white man's a serf,
And the negro is, free,
Where a thing if its black,
With a vete in its hand,
Can crush the Caucasian,
And rule o'er the land.

It is there where one may find examoles of the devilishness of Radicalism, Negro Supremacy, and Mongrelism in their most revolting forms. We observe that the campaign in Tennessee opened out last Saturday, between the champions of Loyalty split in two. The infamous Stokes-cruel, vindictive, tyrannical cowardly, jacobinical Stokes, backed with his hords of unlettered and untutore ! African pagans, presented his platform; and SENTER, a more moderate rascal, followed with his. STOKES is for nothing charitable r christian, and seems to desire a perpetual reign of blood and turmoil in | ri, and who, during the winter of 1867-8, the State which tolerates him. He is opposed to granting the franchise to the disfranchised white men of Tennes see, except in rare cases. He longs to band of brigands under Gov. The political slaughter of the devil palmiest day of barbarity Senten, with him, as stated. Here is the conpandering to the conservative element, winch is unrepresented on the stump. With the Radicals now supporting, him, he believes that the conservatives, that cause the greatest rejoicing, or the can elect him over Stokes, whose platform repels the conservatives largely heralded. Modesty often pre-Hence, it is a race between a devilish charlatan and a demagogue. Strange as it may appear. > STOKES more than he loves SENTER Senter, as we have said, is the act law of the Legislature, passed to give lamselt in office permanently, States may elect himself over Stokes; for he has the power to throw out all precincts or countries which dare to vote against him. This is fortunate for the Senten party, and a very unhealthy state of affairs for Stokes. So it matters little how the nigger Radicals vote, SENTER is already elected, if he desires to be. In view of this fact, and the further > one that Stokes is a fair representative of a Mongrel revolutionist, it is not unlikely that after the election is over an appeal may be made, a la Mexicaine, to bullets and bludgeons, and a lively revolution be the consequence. But again Sexten will have the advanta e as Governor.

Viewing the case thus, we can but hope that our fears will be fully realized and that the Negroes and Radicals fairly divided, well armed, and arrayed , their banners, and the whole people be and encouraged, will go for each other in the finest South American style, and that the close of the campaign will crew for the buzzaids and jackals!

Missouri --- A Radical Leader.

If there is one State more than another, crushed, oppressed and outraged, by the rule of unannointed villians, that State is Missouri. It has been the camping ground of the thieves and cut throuts of the Mongrel party, ever since the days of "bleeding Kansas." And in place of getting better as time wore on, it has been growing worse and worse, under the reign of radicalism, until, in outlawry, crime and villiany, hell "cannot hold a candle to it." For officials, it has the most brazzen set of devils, that ever run unhung -outlaws, cut throats, conviets, footpads, pirates, thieves, and any and every kind of villians, that the good Lord ever allowed to live, to enrse the earth and disgrace humanity. From Tox Fletcher, down to his God that the people-the toilers-are pettiest appointee, the whole host of awaking from the fatal sleep they have officials are of the same ilk-covered fallen into. "Srikes," however, are no with crimes, -daubed over with deviltry and pregnant with all manner of offences against Gop and man. Tennessee under the rule of man-planting Browntow is rough enough, but Missouri under Tot Fletcher is worse. In order that our readers may hav an opportunity of judging who rules and holds sway in that radical be deviled state, we publish the following confession of one of the band Jo. Lit-TLE, whom justice in the shape of a halter, overtook a few days ago at refers, is one Major William Monks, one of FIETCHER's militia Major's, who is now acting as peace preserver in Howell and Shannon countres, Missouwas a leading radical member of the Legislature of that State. Some six months since he was at the head of a of Arkansas and still retained his head quarters in Missouri. It was

Another Victory for Radicalism.

It is not always the biggest victories most sputling events, that are most vents an organization from chronic! ing successes, and it is the "native modesty of indicalism that keeps it from principle at stake, but because he hates, would give occasion for it -It is only a certain kind of victories that it crows I much over they are victories of " poling Governor of Tennessee and by a tey," victories of the principles of rad icalism -a successful carrying out of Browshow the opportunity of keeping the teachings of that party,-but little are said about. Its papers have a pecuhar prospensity for remaining silent, when the great work of that ogunization is being prosecuted with the most vigor, and is being crowned with Wruly, wonderful triumphs. Below we give, just as we get it, from the South east corner of one of our exchanges, the fact of a most overwhelming and substan tial victory of the principles-the teach ings-of that party. It takes but few lines to chronicle the facts, but they carry with them a world of thought and meaning. Here it is.

In Franklin county, Ya, on Bunday, Mrs Rump, a widow, was outlaged, under circum kinnely of peculiaratrocity, by a negro named John Price

Our Coal Fields --- "Strike" for Liber ty.

NO. 25

Notwithstanding the beauties suppos ed to be at the bottom of the "protective tariffs" for Workingmen, so shamefully are they robbed, that the scales are falling from their eyesin the Pennsylvania coal fields, and great strikes are the consequence. The deluded masses now begin to see that protective tariff's have built up great monopolies and impoverished the laborer. The operatives now are beginning to see that they are little more than slaves, owned by wealthy lords of the coal fields and iron beds-mero chattels, who labor incessantly to keep life in their bodies, while the monopolists are possessing themselves of the whole country, its money, houses and lands. We thank remedy for the evils. Vote right-vote every time and always against these monopolists and their domands-that is the road to liberty. Vote right and unanimously and the chains on your limbs, ye toilers, will drop off of their own rotten weight, and your bodies will he free. Vote this year for a Democrat for Governor-vote for Democrata for office-vote for Liberty-and you may yet be free. Don't strike, but VOTE RIGHT. One correctly polled vote will go down into the festering corrupbittle Rock, Arkansas. It must be tion and cause an eruption. One good remembered that Mosks to whom he vote will break your shackles. One good vote, with fill your houses with cheap confforts. One good vote will drive your enemies to the wall-but that vote must be unanimous and determined.

Hang her? Certain o do with this womai ly not. The moral feeling of the Common wealth would not bear it.—As Fork Tribuas.

"Moral feeling Lof Massachusetts is good! It's a kind of moon-struch moral feeling, acting at different times in entirely different ways. But a few years ago, this same "moral feeling" gloated over the outraging of Southern women, by Northern beasts,-the ravushing of young girls, throughout the Contaderney by fiends in blue coats. and the murder of helpless babes, in "honor of the flag." When poor, innocent Mrs. SURRATT was hung in Washington, for a crime she knew nothing about, this same "moral feeling" turned up its eyes to Heaven and prayed that more "rebels in peticonts" might share the same fate; now the moon that controls the" moral feeling of Massachusetts has changed, and it will not bear" the hanging of a cold blooded, murderess, because she can sing through her nose, eat clain chowder and "punkin pies," and believes that Plymouth rock, is the "rock of ages," and that Almighty God is a full blooded African.
