BELLEFONTE, PA;

Friday Morning, June 18, 1869.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

——The most popular line hereabouts is a fishing line with a trout on the end.

——Sam'l Foster, Internal revenue assessor of the Potter and Gregg districts, has been removed to make room for a loilist by the name of YOUNG.

——Bellefonte is to have a new town hall, after the first of October. T R Reynolds is now contracting for the erection of one 110 feet in length by 60 feet in width

——It is reported that a general revision of the revenue districts presided over by Rankin, Irwin, Dunlap and Foster, in this county, is to be made, and that the four are to be consolidated into two, hereafter.

——The widening of the Spring Creek bridge, to correspond with the street at that point, is an improvement that our borough dads might be considering just about this time

——In order that readers in other parts of this "moral vineyard" may have an idea what kind of weather we are enjoying hereabouts, we would take our pen in hand to inform them, that there has been but four days this spring and summer that compositors could work at ease, in the WATCHMAN office, without a fire

The lower end of the Lewisburg and Spruce Creek R R will be formally opened on the 21st inst It is the part the Lewisburgers are particularly interested in, and connects that town with the Philadelphia and Erie On that day we understand that Mr Gay, president of the P & E R R and Mr H J Lombaert 2nd vice president of the P C Railroad will start from Lewisburg on a tour of inspection along the proposed Penn Valley route to Spruce Creek We suppose the opinion of these gentlemen, will have considerable to do in securing the aid of these two roads in building the Valley road, if after an examination they think it will pay. Our friends over in the Valley would do well to see that they do not return without a full knowledge of the wealth of resources and enterprise of that portion of the county It will be of vast benefit in getting them a rail road.

——House rents are too high in Bellefonte We believe in men being fairly compensated for the use of their houses receiving a liberal percentage on money invested in dwellings, but we don't believe in the one dollar policy which is so prevalent in this place of owners of houses demanding from ten to twenty per cent over and above what they should really have, so that men in moderate circumstances find it difficult to secure comfortable dwellings for prices within the range of reason, or suited to their pockets We could not put on the screw to ask more than fifteen per cent on any property in this town in fact, the best property is not worth more, but the real estate owners and capitalists can it appears, ask an unlimited price a figure beyond the reach of an ordinarily compensated mechanic, thus driving away and preventing families who would contribute a large share towards building up the town and advancing its interests in every respect This grasping system of demanding exorbitant prices for shelter, some of which has far as our experience is concerned, can favorably be compared with swine shelter, is pursued to the detriment of the town and its best interests

——Some days ago a sharper, a Yankee from "Massachoosetts, or some other Radical Paradise, we presume, made his appearance in Larmer Tp, Clinton co, claiming to be the son of Mr Jno Knyder, (formerly of that township, but now of Stevenson co, Illinois) and a nephew of Mr Samuel Knyder, an old and well-known citizen of Larmer "Jno Knyder's youngest son Mike, as he styled himself, stopped around among the folks for a day or two quite large, knowing everybody especially the Knyder family, from great-grand father down He was a good judge of horses and admired the farmers stock thereabouts very much But having his memory refreshed on evening as to "Jno Knyder's youngest sons name, (which is not angelic "Michael, but plain Joseph,—he concluded twas high time he "vamosed the ranche," and has neither been seen nor heard from since That night two fine horses, owned by Mr Wm Hughes, of Larmer Tp, got out of their owners stable, and a pair of saddles also disappeared mysteriously, the same night, from the barn of Mr. Henry C Brown, another farmer down there Of course "Jno Knyder's son Mike," didn't steal them! He was only visiting his relations But the horses were caught up in somewhere up Half Moon valley, in this county, and the saddles were also found. Mr Knyder thinks his simplicity "is a decidedly smart young man" Wonder if "Mike" didn't go to school to Benjamin of New Orleans noterity?

HARVEY LAURIMORE.—It is the lot of all men to die. This is the Divine Ukase the Great Decree. Therefore when, on the morning of the 11th instant, we turn back from a contemplated visit to the bedside of our genial and much-loved friend, Harvey Laurimore, learning from the Doctor, on our way out, that he was dead, we thought, sorrowfully, that this was only another victim of the curse which God pronounced on the children of Adam for their great first Father's sin Sad as was the reflection that we should no more forever see his tall form on the streets of his native town, we reflected, with a kind of melancholy pleasure, on the fact that a good man had gone to rest—that the narrow bed in which he had laid him down would shield him hereafter from all the cares and trials and troubles of life

William Harvey Laurimore was born in June or July, 1837, and was, consequently, at the time of his death, near about 32 years of age His boyhood was spent on the old Laurimore homestead, near Pleasant Gap, and in attending the village school at Harrisonville He was an attentive scholar, and a serious, thoughtful student His memory was a very retentive one, and whatever he read or studied, he never forgot Secretly, he was somewhat reserved, but with one fairly became acquainted with him, his genial nature shone forth resplendently and his true disposition manifested itself in the most ardent, fruitful and affectionate friendship WHAT he was as a boy, he became as a man and all through life, vexed by many cares and sorrows, these traits in his character shone pre-eminent He was always the loving, faithful friend the firm incorruptible, honest MAN

At one period of his life, "Harvey," as we may be allowed to use the familiar and endearing name, was a student at the West Point military academy, but ill health never permitted him to enter active military duties After he studied law, at Bellefonte, became a counsellor who seldom gave bad advice At the time of his death he held the office of Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue office which, owing to the bad state of his health, gave him much trouble and was of but little pecuniary benefit to him But he served the Government as he served his God, quietly and unostentatiously

In another place will be found the resolutions adopted by the Legal fraternity in reference to the decease of this most estimable and much lamented man Words but express the feelings of the community and are a fitting tribute to his integrity and moral worth

During the last days of his life, our friends affectionate nature manifested itself most touchingly He was very anxious to see everybody he knew and was greatly disappointed when they did not come to see him His entire illness affected the family greatly, and no doubt the home circle will feel the loss of a father more than any other. It is a time of sorrow that only a mother's heart can feel to its last throb

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon the 12th instant, and was largely attended, some fifty or sixty vehicles being in line The remains were deposited in the burying ground of the Lutheran church, at Pine Grove, the funeral services being performed by Rev Mr M'Cann, of Oak Hall About two weeks prior to his death he had visited the dead and was buried in the same place Now, he has gone, we trust to rest in the happy land He was the good neighbor the kind friend and the Christian gentleman May he sleep in peace

——At a meeting of the Bar of Centre co, on the fourteenth day of June A. D., 1869, to give expression to the sentiments in relation to the death of William Harvey Laurimore, a member of said Bar, on motion, James McManigal was called to the chair, as presiding officer, and Jas H Lapton, Esq Secretary

On motion, H Y Stitzer, D F Fortney and S D Gray were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions to report the same to said meeting, whereupon, withdrew, and after consultation, reported the following resolutions, which was unanimously adopted, after which the meeting adjourned

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty Providence to remove from our midst by the hand of death, William Harvey Laurimore, a most esteemed Associate and worthy member of the Bar, who being thus cut down in the prime of life, and the height of his usefulness, has made sad the heart of all with whom he was wont to associate, and

WHEREAS, He has suddenly been separated from his family—from the companionship of his many tried friends, and the busy and changing scenes of life, and we who survive, have met here to testify our appreciation of his worth, and our sorrow at the loss that we have sustained in his death—Therefore,

Resolved That in the death of William Harvey Laurimore, the Bellefonte Bar has been deprived of one of its most worthy members, an attorney to whose counsel purpose and unbending integrity and prompt attention to his professional duties we hereby bear testimony:

Resolved, That in this bereavement the family of the deceased have lost a kind husband and father, the parent a cherished son, and the surviving brothers and sisters a kind, warm-hearted, and most affectionate brother

Resolved That his manly virtues as a citizen, his good social qualities, and his untiring industry and perseverance in behalf of client and person, commanded our highest esteem.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all the papers of Centre county, and that C. T. Alexander be appointed to announce the death of William Harvey Laurimore, in due form, in open Court, at the next regular term, and move the Court that these resolutions be entered on record, and that the officers of this meeting be instructed to furnish a copy of its proceedings to the widow and family of the deceased.

EAGLEVILLE, June 15th 1869

P GRAY MEEK, Esq

As yet I have noticed no announcement in the county papers of candidate for sheriff. This township presents none, but will urge the nomination of GRIFFITH DAVIS Esq, of Spring township He has been one of the hard working, active Democrats, of the county, for years back—a democrat who worked for the cause, without expectation or hope of reward in office He is an intelligent, energetic business man, who would fill the position of sheriff, creditably to the county, honorably to himself and party Down here he has a host of friends and the radicals admit that if he receives the nomination their majority will be reduced to less than half what it has formerly been Let us give him the nomination, for he deserves it "LIBERTY."

Two musical and literary entertainments will be given our citizens, by the students of the Bellefonte Academy, at the Court House on Thursday and Friday evenings June 24th and 25th, exercises beginning at 8 o'clock All interested in such exercises are cordially invited to be present.
