TOY FOR THE MILLION!

Well friends I've been thinking and made up my mind
To say a few things for the good of mankind,
And if you take my advice in what I shall say,
I'm certain your troubles are ended to day.

I know it is pleasant to fit minus the blues, Pleasant to think, and do as you choose. And when peace and contentment can easily be found. Why should ye go sorrowing sadly around?

Just see the crowd passing as if in pande. All luggying around for Hush's Arcade, Where Loussesses & History, its everywhere known Are selling like hot cakes, the glorious "Old Home."

Old Mr. Jenkins spoke these words to me. Fin as contented and happy as a mortal can be A smile of delight upon the countenance shone. He'd been to Lowaskous A Henny's and bought an "Old Home."

A sparkle of gladness is seen in each eye. As the people in hundreds go hurrying by. To think of the joys and the sorrows that's flown Since they've, invested a little in the famous "Old Home."

Now homes that were cheerless are merry and bright. And hearts that were saddened are happy and light,

And the children exclaim in a loud joyfultone Pap's ended his (roubles since he's bought an
"Old Home," And the young and the old the low and the high To Bush's Areade are hurrying by, And thousands of mortals whose troubles have flown nown sunging the praises of the glorious "Old Home."
