THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

RALLY, RALLY, RALLY, WHITE MEN!—There will be a meeting of the Democracy of Bellefonte and vicinity at the Democratic Club Room on Saturday evening, July 24th, 1869, at eight o'clock. Business of importance. A full attendance is requested. All white men who believe themselves better than the negro, and are opposed to the radical policy, are invited to attend.

D. F. FORTNEY, Secretary.

—Edward J. Pruner, formerly of this place, son of David I. Pruner, is a candidate for the radical nomination for Assembly in Blair county.

—We understand that a son of the Rev. Elijah Chambers, who is stopping with his uncle in Half Moon, shot himself through the hand with a pistol on Wednesday last —A snake said to be 20 feet long and as "thick as a stovepipe," is troubling travelers between Stormstown and Port Matilda Mr Caleb May, we understand, attempted to kill it with a rifle ball the other day, but the monster put him to flight.

—Charley M'Afferty, the popular builder and contractor, had his hand severely crushed by the sudden closing of the slide door of a car, during a jam, on the Snowshoe railroad. He now carries it in a sling, but we learn it is doing as well as can be expected

—The Wyckoff pavement on High street in front of the Bush House is completed. The tax-payers of the borough can now chew the cud of reflection over the nice little additional item of three thousand dollars to be paid by them for this humorous freak of our fun-loving town council

—W. D. Rikard, late of the Cummings House, has become "mine host" of the Bush House, as will be seen by reference to his card in another column This arrangement will, we trust, be advantageous to all parties concerned, and Mr Rikard will certainly make the Bush House an attractive stopping place. He knows how to keep a hotel.

—Mr Wm J Hosterman is the new landlord of the Cummings House Mr. Hosterman has had charge of the Montour House, in Lock Haven, and comes here with the reputation of a first class hotel keeper He will make the Cummings House one of the best hotels in the country See his advertisement in another column

ON DIT—That the senior editor of the radical organ here would get his head punched for his late slanderous attack on the character of private citizens, were it not that his pate is so soft that the "puncher" is afraid a good clout would knock his silly brains out. Don't be afraid of that, anybody His brains all went to dumplings, long ago

—Keller says the reason the senior editor of the Republican pitches into him, is because he refused to trust him to a plug of tobacco.

—Dobbins says the reason why the senior editor of the Republican abuses him, is because he presented the gay and festive cuss with a bill for curing him of bad disorder.

—Lipton says if the senior editor of the Republican will pay him back the dollar he loaned him one morning to buy a breakfast for his family, he will forgive him for his mean and slanderous attack upon his character.

—We had no intention of doing hotel keeper Snyder, at Milesburg, any injury, in our statement of the Clearwater affair We simply gave the facts as they were related to us by responsible and, as we have reason to believe, disinterested parties. The attempt of the Radical organ here to make political capital out of the matter, don't amount to anything, in our estimation. It is welcome to all it can get out of it We simply repeat here what we said before, that any man guilty of the conduct alluded to, is unworthy of patronage.—If Mr. Snyder feels himself aggrieved, or if the statement we made is incorrect, our columns are open to him to set himself right before the public.

MURDER AT PHILIPSBURG.—On Saturday last a murder was committed at Philipsburg. The circumstances, as near as we can learn were as follows: Levi Ennis, with a party, were in a ten-pin alley on Back street—one of the party Johnson, went to the bar, got a drink and told the bar keeper to charge it to Ennis, who said he would not pay for it. Some words were then passed between them, ending by Johnson calling Ennis a liar; whereupon Ennis struck Johnson, who then drew a knife and stabbed Ennis in the abdomen, the cut extending round to the back bone. The wounded man lived for about twelve hours. Johnson is a young man of means, and was formerly an agent of the Adams Express Company, in New York City. Mr. Ennis was a married man, and resided in Phillipsburg.— Clearfield Republican.

WILL WANT BUT ONE.—The individual who began his career as a thief in a Lewistown shoe store—graduated in the gutters about Bellefonte—squandered his wife's means in grog shops and on lewd women—robbed the county treasury of twelve thousand dollars—played coward in the army and jail-bird at home—betrayed his party for forty dollars—washed diapers for nigger babies in Tennessee—was proved a perjurer at the January term of Court in this place—was caught in Cherry alley with a wench not six months ago—has not credit enough in Bellefonte to be trusted for a pound of coffee—nor character enough to make a decent dog post—who is known to be not only a liar, but a thief and coward—and who has got control of a radical organ with two hundred and twenty-five subscribers—is trying to get noticed through the WATCHMAN by libeling and slandering the private characters of gentlemen "whose shoes he is unworthy to unloose" The senior editor of the Republican will want but one notice from the WATCHMAN. We give him fair warning

—We had the pleasure of witnessing the working of Marsh's Illinois Harvester, an improved reaper and mower, on the farm of Mr. Robert Valentine, near the old furnace, last week This machine is, in our estimation, the best we have ever seen It delivers the grain at the side into the hands of the binders, who keep on the mach ine, with the driver, and only requires the services of three men to operate it It cuts clean and low, and the sheaves, as they are bound, are thrown into piles of from four to half a dozen, and not scattered all over the field, as is the case with most reapers. As far as we are able to judge, it is superior to anything of the kind we have seen It cuts rapidly, with slow driving, which is a great saving of horse flesh, and takes a swarth of about four and a half or five feet It is not heavy, but it is a neat and substantial piece of machinery We believe there are only three of these machines in operation in this part of the country now, but, if we mistake not, there will be a great demand for them next season.

—Last Monday the Bellefonte National office, in this place, a defunct Radical newspaper, was sold at sheriff's sale for the sum of $3,100 to Edmund Blanchard, Esq This paper was one of the one that was always blowing about the good times which radicalism had produced, but the sequel seems to be that it was not able to meet its liabilities, and, consequently, came under the Sheriff's hammer Only a few weeks since the furniture of one of the editors of the Republican, the other radical paper here, was sold for taxes, and yet these men have the lick-spittle effrontery to talk about the "good times" of Radicalism Certainly, Radical good times have not done much for them, as has been most forcibly proven, and we can now see that their deceitful representations to the people were only made in order to secure them into the support of their rotten party Good times, forsooth! A Radical editor with his office in the grasp of the sheriff, and another with his household furniture in the fingers of the tax collector are the last men in the world who ought to talk about "good times"

—The Bellefonte Academy has been renovated and refitted in good style for the fall and winter session, which begins in September Mr Hughes, the accomplished and indefatigable principal, is sparing no pains to make this institution first-class, and, we are pleased to know, is succeeding beyond his most sanguine expectations The support that is accorded him is the best proof that his abilities are appreciated by our people, and we have confidence that ere long we will see the Bellefonte Academy quoted as one of the best classical schools in the country Read the advertisement in another column

—A friend, writing from Clearfield under date of July 20, says: "In conversation with some of the prominent citizens of Clearfield yesterday, I learned that a big effort was to be made during the coming session of the Legislature to have Philipsburg and Rush township annexed to this, Clearfield county." We rather imagine that our Clearfield neighbors will learn, before they get through with their job of stealing part of our county, that the citizens of Centre will have a say in the matter. A movement of that kind was started last winter, but didn't get far. Clearfield had better be satisfied with what she has got, or we'll hitch her on to Centre, and turn her Court House into an academy to educate the descendants of her hemlock hewers and raft runners.

—The Republican states that Gen. Gregg is no longer agent for that paper, and intimates that it would like to see him in that sanctum. From the way the article is worded, we are left to the conclusion that the gallant radical General has been pocketing the Republican's "spondulics."

—Mr Samuel Litzel, of Buffalo run, had his hand badly crushed by a reaper a few days ago.

On the Fly.

—Lonebarger & Henry have dissolved partnership.

—Duelistic matters quiet this week.

—Mr. Hosterman takes the Cummings House

—The Clearwater matter raiseth a stink. VIDE Republican.

—Lots of strangers at the Brockerhoff House.

—Some sweet city girls in town. Rustic beaux brushing up.

—Cold! Cold! Snowballs and icicles but it's cold!

—Ye gentle housewives busy putting up fruit for winter use.

—Plenty of garden stuff in Market now

—Playing "ten-pins" all the rage in Bellefonte.

—Moonlight is the sweetest thing now to our young ladies and gentlemen.

—Packer and Pershing are the Democracy's delight in this locality.

—Don't forget the club meeting on Saturday evening.

—Our band sometimes make musical the midnight hours.

Gen Beaver preparing to move in Gov. Curtin's new house.

—Kurtz doing some nice sign painting

—Police items scarce as "hens teeth"

—Forgot to mention party from Altoona last week Fifty ladies and gentlemen Excursion

—A harvest reception will be given at the Agricultural College, by President Burrows, beginning on Monday next and continuing until the 31st inst., to which the public generally, and especially the friends of the college are cordially invited Plain substantial meals, and clean beds will be furnished gratis

SHERIFFALTY.—As the time approaches for holding the County Convention, it is not more that right to discuss cursorily, the qualifications of the different gentlemen for the same, and also for the different offices within the gift of the people of Centre county. By the way we have plenty of candidates Will they all render full service for the compensation they are to receive? Or do they think the pay more than service rendered? Something, sir, that makes men so greedy for office. How they do bore the good people, even to intolerance, and how basely one candidate misrepresents his fellow-competitor They are not brotherly. One office seeker will assert that his most formidable competitor will run as an independent candidate should the former be successful in convention? Another proclaims long and loud that his opponent has been at the public crib long enough, and so on through the whole catalogue of charges, falsehoods and crimes. Magnanimous men

But the people will settle this dispute before long, and in it, as in all other things, they will be awake to their own interests They know who served them in time of need, and they are aware who it is that misrepresents his fellow-candidate They remember that it is only good, honest men that can lead them to victory The time is here when to overcome the wiles and machinations of the enemy, we must put true, earnest and brave men into the field, men of honesty of purpose, and great moral worth, and to have such men we must not select those who have grossly misrepresented their opponents

But, honest men of Centre county, some six or eight of our fellow citizens present themselves to us as candidates for sheriff out of that number we must select one to fill that position We have nothing to say in derogation of any one of these men, but we have a word in favor of one, and that one is D Woodring, of Worth township They may all be worthy men, and all fit for the position, but this one alone by association and experience is eminently qualified for such a responsible trust Honest, unimpeachable in character, and unswerving in his devotion to the Union and the principles of the Democracy He obeyed the call of his country in 1862, and enlisted in the gallant 148, the P.V. He freely offered his life to his country, while some of his competitors remained at home. An arm only was demanded, and it was given He holds no position within the gift of the people, only by choice of the high Sheriff, and is paid by him regular wages. And the poor pittance the government pays in shape of pension is not enough to keep a church mouse on snugly, much less a human being Disabled for our benefit, let us feel it our duty to give him a place where he can make a decent living With him as our standard-bearer in this campaign, we can carry Centre county by five hundred majority The enemy will be stricken with terror, and we will rout him horse, foot and dragoons Their infernal howl about the "boys in blue" whom they have thrown out, even kicked out, to give place to lazy, slothful negroes, will cease, and in shame they will hang their heads and gnash their teeth, as the shouts of over five hundred majority go up from the Democracy of good staunch old Centre.

Business Notices.

—The attention of every one is called to the advertisement of the Singer manufacturing company found on page eighth, also the advertisement of John Montgomery's tailoring establishment and Gents Furnishing Store, No. 7, Brockerhoff row, where at all times as full a stock of Cloth Cassimeres, &c, as can be found in Bellefonte. This in connection with gents furnishing goods can not fail to please every one with the convenience of purchasing every thing they wear, with exception of boots and shoes, in one establishment.

—A dull knife will not cut as well as a sharp one. Farmers, send to McLanahan, Stone & Isett, Hollidaysburg, for a harvest sharpener one with which you can sharpen your mower and reaper knives while the horses are resting. They are sent, prepaid, to any address, on receipt of $1,00. Emery scyth rifle 75 cents Sharpeners and Rifle on receipt of $1,40. You can get the repairs for the Buckeye at a moments warning at Hollidaysburg Agricultural warehouse. M 26-4t.
