A. Ward.

A book has recently been published containing the lecture delivered by the lamenter Artemus in England with such success. It is made up of disconnected sketches of his travels, each sketch being illustrated with a representation of the particular scene described, with foot-lights to show up the picture. The sketches embrace Views of Mormodom, the Route Across the Plains, Salt Lake City, the Mormon Theatre, Brigham Young's Police, Encounter with the Indians, the Prairies on Fire, etc, with foot-notes and explanatory remarks, which add to the humor of the narative. As our readers are not so familiar with the English Lecture as with A's witticisms in this country we select a few of the best:

HIS ARTISTIC CAREER.

"I could draw on wood at a very tender age. When a mere child, I once drew a cart-load of raw turnips over a wooden bridge. The people of the village noticed me. I drew their attention. They said I had a future before me. Up to that time I had an idea it was behind me.

"Time passed on. It always does, by the way. You may possibly have noticed that time always does. It is a kind of way time has.

"I became a man. I haven't distinguished myself at all as an artist; but I have always been more or less mixed up with art. I have an uncle who takes photographs, and I have a servant who—takes anything he can get his hands on."

HIS MUSICAL IDEAS.

"I like music. I can't sing. As a singist I am not a success. I am saddest when I sing. So are those who hear me. They are sadder even than I am.

"The other night some silver voiced young men came under my window and sang, 'Come where my love lies dreaming.' I didn't go. I didn't think that it would be correct.

"I found music very soothing when I lay ill with fever in Utah; and I was ill. I was fearfully wasted. My face was drawn down to nothing, and my nose was so sharp I didn't dare to stick it into other peoples business—for fear it would stay there and I could never get it out. And in those dismal days a Mormon lady—she was married, though not so much as her husband, he had fifteen other wives—she used to sing a ballad commencing, 'Sweet bird, do not fly away,' and I told her I wouldn't. She played the accordion divinely—accordionly I praised her.

THE STEAMER ARIEL.

"I went to California on the steamer Ariel. This is the steamer Ariel.

"Oblige me by calmly gazing on the steamer Ariel, and when you go to California be sure and go on some other steamer, because the Ariel isn't a very good one."

THE PICTURE OF THE GREAT DESERT.

"This picture is a great work of art. It is an oil painting done in petroleum. It is by the old masters. It was the last thing they did before dying. They did this and then they expired.

"The most celebrated artist of London are so delighted with the picture that they come to the hall every day to gaze at it. I wish you were nearer to it so you could see it better. I wish I could take it to your residences and let you look at it by daylight. Some of the grandest artists come here every morning before daylight with lanterns to look at it. They say they never saw anything like it before, and they hope they never shall again.

"When I first showed the pictures in New York the audience were so enthusiastic in their admiration of this picture that they called for the artist; and when he appeared they threw brickbats at him.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.

"Brigham Young has two hundred wives. Just think of that. Oblige me by thinking of that. Then he has eighty actual wives and he is spiritually married to one hundred and twenty more. So we may say he has two hundred wives. He lives not wisely, but two hundred well. He is dreadfully married. He's the most married man I ever saw in my life.

"I saw his mother-in-law while I was there. I can't exactly tell you how many there is of her, but it's a good deal.

"It strikes me that one mother-in-law is about enough to have in one family. Once you get a very fond of each other.

MORMON PROSELYTISM.

I regret to say that effort was made to make a Mormonite me while I was in Utah.

"It was leap year when I was there, and seventeen young widows, the wives of a deceased Mormon, offered me their hearts and hands. I called on them one day, and taking their soft white hands in mine, which made eighteen hands altogether, I found them rough.

"And I said; 'why is this?' What is the reason of this thusness?'

"They heave a sigh, seventeen sighs of different size.

"Then they said:

"'Oh! soon thou wilt be gone away.'

"I told them that when I got ready to leave a place, I wentestdel.

"They said: 'Doth not like us?'

"I said, 'I doth, I doth.'

"I also said, 'I hope your intentions are honorable, as I am a lone child, my parents live far, far away.'

"They then said: 'Wilt not marry us?'

"I said 'Oh! no! It cannot was.'

"Again they asked me to marry them, and again I declined, when they cried:

"'Oh! cruel man! this is too much! too much!'

"I told them it was on account of the muchness that I declined.

BRIGHAN YOUNG'S FAMILY.

The last picture I have to show you represents Mr. Brigham Young in the bosom of his family. His family is large, and the olive branches around his table are in a very tangled condition.—He is more a father than any man I know. When at home—as you here see him—he ought to be very happy, with sixty wives to minister to his comfort, and twice sixty children to sooth his distracted mind. Ah! my friends, what is home without a family?

Medicines & Restoratives.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.—The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it accumulated infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations, on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no acting symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Tic, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflamation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This Sarsaparilla is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.—A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous to the hair, the Vigor can only do it but not harm, and is unsurpassed as a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
