DODD'S NERVE DID IT! New London, Conn., April 26, 1869. Respected Friends: I thought it well to write another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have done, doing for some time, under the treatment of a new medicine, and I am happy to say, that I am getting better, even faster than when you were here. I commenced the use of DODD'S NERVE without anybody advising me to do so. While in bed, I could not get up, and I was in great pain in the head, and I have been over three years. All the medicine I have heretofore taken has failed to give any relief. I am now able to get up and down stairs, and daily improving. I consider the NERVE the best medicine I ever found, and shall continue to use, for I am convinced of entire recovery. I have taken only three bottles, and would not be without in any account. Very truly, Mrs. I. S. NIX. 14-30-69

Prospectus of the Bellefonte "Democratic Watchman" for 1869. With a record of thirteen years of unopposed service in the cause of Democracy, for (unspurious) approval, for strict observance of Constitutional obligations, for State Rights, for Free Trade, and for Liberal Government, the "DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN" enters upon its fourteenth volume with renewed vigor, with more life, and hope, and determination, than in any other period of its history. When in the past many a Democratic journal, bent under the storm of fanaticism and bigotry, it battled on regardless of vast things but duty. When many of the friends of State Rights cringed beneath the tyrannical, armed-Federalism and Tory usurpation, it true to the Democracy of Jefferson. When thousands of the leading advocates of Free Trade surrendered to the domination and exactions of the New England Tariff robbers, and plunderers of the people, it held aloft the banner of justice. When Abolitionism, and its kindred train of infamies, invaded the rights of property and the popular institutions of sovereign States, it fought the good fight of the States and People.

The "DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN" has never sought for fame by courting infamy, nor for reward, not worthily earned. Its record is before the host of readers and friends in all quarters, and upon that record it enters the new year, seeking to advance to the FRONT RANK of State and National Journalism, that it may be enabled to battle on for the cause of Justice, Equality, Right and Democracy, with an earnest desire to aid in the restoration of strict Liberty throughout the Confederacy. To accomplish the purpose in view, we propose to its proud and well-kept record of the past thirteen years, asking the kind offices and good will of BRAVE, BOLD, UNCORRUPTED DEMOCRATS in all parts of the country, toward building up for its commensurate and useful circulation. Now is the hour for safe and bold courtesies and careful preparations. Never before was there such need for organization and harmony and unanimity among the friends of Liberty and Democracy. If Democrats fall by the firm to the cause for which they have sacrificed so much, then Liberty is lost to them and their children, and the Despotism and Tyranny of Federalism is secure forever, and a monarchical government permanently succeeds the wise, liberal, plain and unostentatious system which the patriot fathers reared for their worthy sons. It is needless to say to the readers and friends of the "DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN," that it will continue TO STRIKE AT DESPOTISM, MONOPOLY AND WHORE.

and to defend and uphold the Constitution by the people against their enemies—to whom we against all manner of robber Tariffs, and other frauds upon consumers; to uphold free trade and the rights of the many; to oppose the building up of all species of monopolies, and to do its duty fearless and fully in all things. The "DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN" will each week contain more strong and stirring original matter than any other journal in Pennsylvania, and will aim to be worthy of support by its subscribers.

ALL THE STATES. Friends desiring to raise clubs should write for terms, etc. Single subscriptions, $3 per year in advance. Address, P. GRAY MERR, Bellefonte, Pa.
