THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

—Sept [illegible] with [illegible] Another [illegible] brief [illegible]

—One Metzger [illegible] hanged [illegible] the fair [illegible]

—Boyd Henderson, editor of the [illegible] Independent, at Lock Haven, was [illegible] of Tuesday

—Knick Knax [illegible] the Lock Haven Daily Independent, pitches in a correspondent "Bob," who last week made some structures in that [illegible] on. Well, he and "Bob" for it—I don't care a Bob ree.

—It is rumored among compositors that the proprietor of the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN intends to have a coal house warming as soon as the new office is entirely finished. The Gold expresses the wish that he may be there to see —A stranger from Pennsvalley, whose name we have not been able to learn, while crossing the Seven Mountains on Saturday last in a buggy, with his wife and child, was so unfortunate as to let his horse run off, throwing all three from the vehicle, and severely hurting them.

—We are indebted to Hon. Samuel Purviance, M. C., for an illuminated print of Judge Packer, letter of acceptance, with a fine picture of our candidate. We shall post it up in our new office, so that our opponents and friends may see what a noble man, personally and intellectual, the next [illegible]

—A Lodge of the order of Knights of Pythias, will be instituted in this place on Monday, Sept. 27, the charter members of which were principally members of Silver Spring Lodge, No. 126 K. P. Grand Chancellor R. H. Graham will institute the new Lodge, in the room on third floor of [illegible] Brockerhoff's building on Allegheny [illegible]

—We have now in our possession a cedar log felled by Daniel Weber, Esq., contracting on the Central Rock Island Railroad, [illegible] feet under ground, which [illegible] over the hill in Scott county, [illegible] How this piece of cedar [illegible] buried so far beneath the surface, is a matter for the curious to speculate [illegible]

—A wood man named John Storm, [illegible] employ of Mr Hughes, contractor on the Pine Grove branch, now building [illegible] some place, fell from a great height last Monday, breaking a number of bones, and otherwise injuring him severely. He was carried to Centre House where, we learn, [illegible] has since been receiving every attention necessary to make him comfortable.

—His excellency, Mr. John W. Geary was at the Governor, is sojourning in our town this week

—The lady was serenaded on Wednesday evening, at the residence of W. P. Wilson, Esq., by the Bellefonte band, [illegible] us mingling on the occasion [illegible] direction of party. This was a very appropriate way of testifying the respect which the people of Bellefonte, [illegible] entertain for the amiable lady of our chief magistrate. A friend of Mrs. [illegible] responded to the serenade, expressing the lady's thanks for the compliment.

—Bellefonte is fast adopting city ways. Our bon ton ladies now stop at store doors and milliners' shops in their carriages, and order the articles they desire to inspect to be brought to them. Very convenient, certainly, to the aristocrats, but must be rather distaste ful to clerks and lady milliners and dress makers. Were we a clerk or a dress maker, we would remedy the matter by charging extra for the extra attention.

—The DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN now claims to have the handsomest, the best arranged, and the most convenient office in the State. It is four stories high, the first two of which are occupied by the office. It is not yet quite finished, but when it is we intend to give a full description of it. But we can just say here that we are right on the bank of beautiful Spring Creek, and can catch trout out of our office window with a fishing pole. Can any other newspaper clubang, save the Natunal of this place, boast as much?

—We know several of our young men who are in the habit of serenading their dulcineas, during the "wee sma' hours ayant the twal.' But that they may always be certain that their strains are not wasted on the "desert air," we give them a hint by citing a case in point:

[illegible]

We are pained to learn that one of our esteemed County Commissioners, William Keller, Esq., was severely injured by being thrown from his buggy on Friday last, near Centre Hall. It appears that as Mr Keller was driving leisurely along, some horses loose in a field near by started to capering over the field, which raised the spirit of Mr. Keller's horse, and he suddenly started and ran away with the buggy, throwing Mr. Keller against a stump. Although severely hurt, we are glad to learn that the Commissioner will recover.

—An effort is now being made to establish a boot and shoe manufactory in this place, after the style of the extensive manufactories of New England. A company of gentlemen from Yankee land offer to do it, provided $25,000 are raised toward it in Bellefonte. It would, of course, be a stock concern, and would give employment to a large number of hands. One thing is certain, we must have manufactories in Bellefonte. We have every facility and advantage to make a manufacturing town, and unless we do go into that kind of business, our prosperity and improvement will come to a dead stop. Let us have the manufactories, then, and everybody will be benefitted.

—To Mrs. Frank Brown, of Centre Furnace, we are under many obligations for a cluster of most beautiful roses. The lady will please accept our thanks, with the assurance that we highly appreciate so delightful a gift. In sending them to us, she says "I thought it a sweet day to let this beautiful rose fade and die without notice." They grew in clusters of five, six and seven in a place. Have been in blooming since May, and will bloom again this fall. The bush is four feet high, and this bunch was on top.

—We are indebted to Mr. O. P. Hall, of Centre county, for [illegible] largest potatoes we have ever seen. They beat Mr. Lohr's, of which we spoke a week or so ago. Mr. Lohr's were 32 to the bushel—half bushel which [illegible] Mr. Hall's specimens are [illegible] seven. They are rather coarse, and would not [illegible] than a half bushel of ordinary potatoes. Both Mr. Lohr and Hall are entitled to credit for the attention they have given to this branch of [illegible] Keep right on [illegible] the potato is the [illegible] are brought before the people. [illegible] contained [illegible] Mr. Lohr, however, unlike [illegible] separate cars while [illegible] Mr. L's were [illegible]

Mr. Lohr's potatoes, which was on [illegible] last week in Lock Haven, for [illegible] Mr. Lohr having his name [illegible] over Mrs. Anthony's store, where [illegible] was polled, was found [illegible] by the jury. Although [illegible] Lohr was acquitted on the [illegible] nevertheless under [illegible] trial at the next [illegible] court for involuntary manslaughter. The Lock Haven Independent, in speaking of this trial, thus refers to our townsman, John H. [illegible] the counsel for the [illegible]

[illegible] was skillfully contested [illegible] by the Attorney the Commonwealth, the most distinguished [illegible] Judicial District. J. H. Orvis [illegible] a gentleman and [illegible] celebrated not [illegible] knowledge, but [illegible] logical analysis and [illegible] Scots for quickness of perception, capability of means to ends. In [illegible] required by the jury [illegible] on the unblemished character [illegible] man composing it, the [illegible] of the Court and the [illegible] One part of the Commons [illegible] is irresistible that the [illegible] that Dr. Lee's tenthaler [illegible] Voluntary Manslaughter.

—The Centre County Fair, which will be held at the fair grounds, near this place, on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th days of October next, promises to be a grand success. Every preparation is making by those having the matter in charge to render it an interesting and profitable occasion, and we understand that the farming community generally will lend their aid to add to its importance. Hon. William Bigler, of Clearfield, ex-governor of the State and ex-United States senator will deliver the annual address, and other prominent men are expected to grace the occasion by their presence. The citizens of Bellefonte are looking for a great crowd, and are preparing for their comfortable accommodation. The hotels expect to be all filled, and in consequence are laying in extra supplies. It looks, in fact, as though Fair week would indeed be a gala day for everybody, and no don't call that are able to attend will be on hand. We hope to see plenty of exhibitors, and a generous and commendable rivalry for premiums. Of course the ladies will be in attendance with their beautiful and ingenious articles, together with rare specimens of bread, butter, pastry, &c. Let everybody come—it is the people's Fair.

—We learn that an eminent photograph artist from Philadelphia, Mr Purviance, will be in attendance at our County Fair next month, prepared to take pictures of interest that may suggest themselves during that occasion. Farmers entering stock can have pictures of their animals taken to carry home with them, which ought to be quite an inducement to them to bring along their finest stock. The picture of a spirited horse or noble bull, a fat cow or strong steer, plump sheep or hog, would no doubt be quite a gratification to any one, and especially to owners who have taken pains to give them perfection. Mr. Purviance will also sell views of the fair grounds, with other pictures.

[For the WATCHMAN.]

CENTRE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The eleventh annual exhibition of this society will be held on the ground, at Bellefonte, on the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th days of October. The grounds of this society comprise twenty-one acres, all enclosed with a board fence eight feet in height. The buildings are composed of one central building twenty four feet square, and two stories high, one wing twenty four feet wide, and one hundred and twenty five feet in length, well floored, shingled roof, and all the necessary adjuncts for the safety of articles of fine texture intended for exhibition, as are other buildings of the same dimensions intended and used for the exhibitions of cereals and vegetables. There are, also, permanent stalls for horses and cattle, sufficient to accommodate one hundred and fifty head, as also pens for sheep and swine.

The track for the display of the speed of animals is one third of a mile in length, and said by those who speak knowingly, to be one of the very best in the State. A large number of horses are already entered to take part in the various trials of speed occurring on the last three days of the exhibition, and it is expected that the competition for the premiums will be exceedingly brisk and well worth witnessing.

The premium list embraces almost everything, and amounts in the aggregate to some twelve hundred dollars, and committees are authorized to extend it at discretion.

On Thursday, 7th Oct., Ex Gov. Wm. Bigler, will deliver the annual address before the Society, upon the grounds, at 11 o'clock a. m.

On Wednesday evening, 6th October, Prof. J. T. Rothrock, one of the greatest of living botanists, will deliver, in the Court House, a lecture upon Plants of Cultivation, and the changes Produced by cultivation in them.

Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates from all points on the Pennsylvania and Clearfield Railroad, and on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, good from the 5th to the 9th of October inclusive.

Any further information may be obtained by addressing Hiram Hamilton, Secretary, Bellefonte, Pa.

MARRIED.

HARTMAN—BRANKENBILL.—[illegible] on the 14th of August, by the Rev. W. S. Gray, Mr. A. W. Hartman to Miss J. Frankenbill, [illegible] of Millheim.

BURRELL—BOWER.—[illegible] by the same, Mr. [illegible] Burrell, to Miss [illegible] Bower, both of Aaronsburg.

DIED.

STROHECKER.—At [illegible], Pa., on the 8th inst., Dr. Strohecker, aged 70 years 5 months and 2 days.

Dr. Strohecker was born near Reamstown, Lancaster county, in 1799. He moved to Union county, with his parents, while he was a child. He received his medical education under Dr. Cox, of Lewisburg. In 1823 he came to Robinson, Centre county, where he practiced medicine for forty years. Dr. Strohecker was widely and favorably known as a man of generous impulses, comprehensive views and of benevolent principles. He was a rich and true friend, wise and modest counsel as a consultation, and a lover of justice and order.

Dr. Strohecker was elected to the State Legislature for three successive terms, and filled the office of associate judge in Centre county for five years.

In his younger years he joined the Lutheran church, of which church he remained a member until death.

On August 8th a funeral discourse was delivered by the writer, based on Psalm 90, 12, after which his body was taken to the graveyard of the St. Peter's church, and committed to his long home.

Thus again, we are admonished to be also ready, for we too must die.

Business Notices.

—Mr. Jacob Shrom has removed his saddlery and harness establishment from Reynold's Iron Front to a room above the post office building, where he may hereafter be found, and where he invites his customers to call and see him. Mr. Shrom is an excellent workman, and those having anything to do in his line will do well to give their work to him.

—David M. Wagner has associated with himself in the dry goods, grocery and grain business, his son Winfield S. Wagner, and their advertisement will be found in another column. The Messrs. Wagner hope to continue to merit the public favor, and by this arrangement to make their store the most advantageous place to buy in town.

ATTENTION SMOKERS.—A large and select assortment of segars has just been received at Green's Drug Store and every person purchasing 25 cents worth during the coming week will be presented with a handsome cigar case.

BELLEFONTE, PA.
Sept., 20, 1869.

To our patrons and the public generally.

We hereby very respectfully give notice that on Monday Oct 4th, 1869, our mode of doing business will be changed from a mixed credit and cash to a strictly cash and purchaser's risk, and that on and after that date we will positively sell no goods whatever on credit.

Having tried the credit system for nearly three years we find it both unpleasant and detrimental to ourselves and our customers. We have concluded to try the cash system, knowing that it will be beneficial to both parties, as it must be plain to everybody that goods sold for cash only, can be sold cheaper than if sold on credit.

We therefore propose to sell our goods cheaper than heretofore and as usual, to treat all who may give us a call as pleasantly as possible, promising to always have on hand a complete stock of the most desirable goods in the market.

Thanking you for your liberal patronage we give you a cordial invitation to continue the same.

Yours, very respectfully,
ZIMMERMAN BROS. & CO.

CATABILITY.

Oh! miserable cats that scream and spit
Upon my neighbor's garden wall!
That howl, and bite, and quarrel and fight,
About the middle of the night.

Your midnight music's shocking taste,
And if you don't stop, with all possible haste,
I'll cause you to scatter, Double Quick,
By leaving among you the hull of a brick.

You monstrous cat, with back like an arch
I wish you, specially, hurry and march
Better move off, sir, or you may be pried,
This brick will give you a Corsican Bride.

And you, old cat with squally voice,
Your catch I conceive, I would rejoice
To get a good shot, and to knock you flat
You horrible howling, off feminine Cat!

Well cats yowl on and I'll seek repose
And think about Strawberry roan cow,
And merry will be the song I'll sing
Of the elegant suits for the opening Spring.
