DEMOCRATS TAKE NOTICE.

The chairman of the Democratic county committee would recommend to the Democracy of the county that they meet at the usual place of holding elections, on Saturday afternoon, October 2nd, at 4 o'clock, and place in nomination borough and township tickets to be voted for on the day of the general election. Strict attention to this may aid our county and State interests, and save local discussions at a time when harmony and good relations should reign in the ranks of the Democracy.

S. T. SHUGERT,
Chairman.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

A man named Rucker was severely hurt by being run against by a hand car between Milesburg and the "intersection" on Saturday evening last.

A festival was held at the Presbyterian church in Milesburg, on Saturday evening, for the benefit of that church, which was well attended and netted a handsome profit.

We hope to see a large crowd in attendance at the Fair, which begins on Tuesday of next week, the 5th instant. The lunch stand of the Watchman office will be found on the outside, and we shall be glad to see all our friends.

Among the agreeable stopping places for strangers during the Fair next week, is the Cummings House, on Bishop street, now kept by that jolly pioneer of landlords, our friend Foster Mass. He sets a tip-top table, has clean rooms and beds, good stables, and polite, handsome and agreeable table attendants. Go and see him.

A Russian meeting was held in the school house, at Pleasant Gap, on Saturday evening, which was addressed by Messrs. Brown and Long. About 25 persons were present, and a gloomy silence prevailed. A lad, who was present, says he stayed till Brown's eyes began to blink, and then left, as he "didn't want to see Brown cry."

We are pained to record a sad accident on the Clearfield and Tyrone railroad, at Sandy Ridge station, where the locomotive jumped the frog, throwing it off the track and killing the engineer, Mr. Adams, and seriously and perhaps fatally wounding the fireman, Mr. Walters. Other persons were also more or less injured. Whether the "frog" was out of place or broken or how the accident was caused, we are not informed.

John H. Orvis, Esq., will address the Democratic club on Saturday evening next, at the club room, on the issues involved in the present campaign. The reputation of Mr. Orvis, as a speaker of unequalled ability, will be sufficient to insure a crowded house. Mr. Orvis will show up the political and financial chicanery of Grant's administration in a way that will make the people open their eyes. Turn out, Democrats, and we would also like to see our Radical friends present.

A ridiculous disturbance was kicked up in front of the Conrad House on Tuesday evening by two drunken men, one of whom wanted to fight and the other to take a drink. The matter was definitely settled by Officer Muller, who ordered them to "get up and git," which they immediately obeyed. The officer sent them off together, which was good policy, as, having only ten cents between them, neither one could indulge in more than a half a dime's worth.

While we are busy noting the iniquities and "peculiarities" of Democratic sinners, it is a pleasure to pick up our peace-loving and note the general domestic surroundings, hand some "little ones," delightful home, and—how we come to let "pleasant" pearls, whirled by our friend Wm. Kneash, Esq., in beautifully provided. K, let Jov and Jero continue the chapter.—Republican.

Continue the chapter!
"Tall it not in Gath—publish it not in the streets of Askelon." Be Jubers, but they were mighty fine, anny way! And then that picture of domestic comfort, and those other pictures! But the pearls make our mouth water yet. And we will go ag—

The order of the Knights of Pythias was instituted here on Monday night by the high dignitary from Philadelphia, mentioned in our last issue. Quite a number of "Knights" from a distance were in attendance, and we learn that the occasion was one of great interest. After the ceremonies, there was considerable eating of oysters and "sieh," with much joviality and friendly interchange of compliments. The lodge room of the "Knights" is in the new brick building of Mr. Butts, on Allegheny street.

We hear of a rumpus in Milesburg, on Saturday evening last, at a house not remarkable for the promulgation of high moral sentiments, in which a number of loose women threw stones and pulled each other's hair. A man was injured in the melee, but whether or not he was particeps criminis, we have not been able to understand. A little surveillance of those premises by the Milesburg police, might be efficacious in remedying a great nuisance.

Strangers and others stopping at the Bush House will be pleased with the courtesy and intelligence of our young friend, Mr. George Cook, the gentlemanly and competent clerk of that celebrated hotel. Mr. Cook is a Philadelphia man, and well versed in all the delicate and arduous requirements of his position.

Mr. Pile, of the hotel at Howard, has leased the saloon under the Bush House, lately in the occupancy of Mr. Mulpharth, where he proposes to keep a first class restaurant, being determined, as he remarked the other day, to give the people of Bellefonte "something to eat this winter." We saw a splendid lot of red birds and cels at his establishment the other day. Call and see him.

Persons at Charles Marklev, ex-tyon, formerly at this place, but now an official of the Camden & Amboy road company, with headquarters at Camden, spent a few days in our town last week, during which time he gave our sanctum the light of his pleasant countenance. "Charles" is a good fellow, and all hands in and around this office unite in wishing him "much happiness" and success. "Yours truly," Charles.

Hon. C. T. Alexander, late of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, but now a member of the fierce order of "Lamekins," thrust his cynical countenance into the door of our office on Monday. After looking around a minute, he concluded to enter, and after making a minute examination, the honorable gentleman expressed his delight and satisfaction at the appearance of the Watchman. Call again, Cyrus T.

We are told a little story where in the gallantry of our police force is concerned. Our police force is an efficient body. It is a terror to evil doers. Its members are good looking men—hand-some men—brave men. We admire them. We feel secure when they are about—half a mile off. But a young man was standing in front of a store on Main street, on Saturday night last, when he heard what he imagined to be an ominous sound—"Chiep—chiep"—it said. The young man ran around to the rear of the building to "see what he could see," but nothing did he see, save the darkness and the stars in the quiet sky. Astonished, he returned to his former position, when "chiep—chiep"—it said again. Thinking he heard indications of a thief and a robber, he started to find a policeman and came across one whom he roused from bed and induced to go with him to see if he could hear "chiep—chiep," too. Directly the alarm spread, and another policeman arrived, and other folks gathered around. They all heard "chiep—chiep." Convinced that it was an attempt to enter the store from the rear, a council of war was held, when it was resolved to open the front entrance, go in a body, and surprise and seize the murderous villains at their nefarious work. Pistols looked to and "bilbes" affectionately secured, the gallant preservers of the public peace made a grand rush into the store—

"Ackness there
—And nothing more."
Disappointed and confused, the policemen hesitated. Still "chiep—chiep" it said. Emerging again from the gloominess of the building into the dusky shades of the outer night, another council is held. Some sensible fellow suggested "up stairs." Then was there a clambering up and on to——Gain the fearful landing.
Lo and behold—"a man, a brother!" On his knees, with foul intent, a noble African! An "American citizen" with a large cloth in his hands is discovered slopping water over the floor of Reynolds's hall, late Watchman of floor. "And as he slopped, fearfully it said "chiep—chiep!" Discomfited, the gallant preservers of the public peace turned and—

"And the colored troops fought nobly!"

RAIL-ROAD MEETING.—There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Harris township, held at Road-burg on Saturday last, to devise means and measures to build the L. C. & S. C. R. R. The meeting was organized by electing Samuel H. Stover, President, S. Glasgow, Jacob Moyer and others Vice-Presidents, and Dr. Fisher, Secretary. The meeting was then addressed by A. B. Hutchison, Esq. Mr. H. stated many interesting facts concerning rail-roads, urged the great necessity of having one to run through Penna. Valley. Mr. Hutchison was followed by D. F. Fortney, Esq., Mr. F. among other things, estimated probable cost of the road, gave the assessed value of the real property along the route, and showed how easily it would be to complete the road if contemplation. He has kindly furnished us the figures, and we give them to the public. Allowing the length of the road in Centre county to be fifty miles, from line to line, he takes the assessed value of the real property of each township separately.

Harrison township	$109,226
Harris township	22,833
Fisher township	29,288
Greag township	10,418
Penn. township	29,220
Miles township	28,181
Haines township	82,084
Whole amount	$309,220
That amount being only one third of the real value of the real property, he multiplies this amount by 3	$927,660
Giving the enormous sum of	$927,660
At five per cent of this	$463,830
He has	$463,830

Calculating the cost of the road to be eight thousand dollars per mile, he has even at his very low estimate more money than is necessary to build the road the entire length of Centre county. Harris township, has at his calculation $1,508,499 dollars worth of real property, and the per cent allowed, which is low. She can raise $75,424.95, eight per cent of her value, which is needed to build the road through her entire limit. Then he left out of consideration more than one only personal property that will contribute largely to so great and useful an enterprise. Mr. F. was followed by Ed. Blanchard, Esq. Mr. B. made an excellent speech, giving his experience in rail-road matters generally, and how they pay and estimated that a rail-road would increase the value of real property at least ten per cent immediately, through Penna. Valley and showed the former statements that the people still gained more money than they need invest. After passing resolutions, &c., the meeting adjourned.

Business Notices.

Our friend Geo. G. Green has just returned from Philadelphia with a large stock of blank books, family bibles, pocket albums, late novels, stories, paper collars, pocket books, all at wholesale prices. Goods always shown with pleasure. Call and see him. No. 4 Bush House.

Has nothing to do with that celebrated Italian bohemian "hole in the day."

Neither has the above anything to do with the fact that Zimmerman Bros. & Co. have now the best stock of goods ever offered by them.

These men have adopted the cash system of doing business, and they say they will sell their goods much cheaper than before. Please read their new advertisement in another column, and go and see them, which will cost you nothing.

The long established warranted Boots and Shoes of Burnside & Thomas are now on hand for the season. Their well deserved reputation attract and bring customers not only from all points of this county, but adjoining ones. Men with their sons and employees are found there securing them for their winter use. Their advantages of a long experience, and extensive trade give them facilities that are unsurpassed by any other house in the trade. We recommend our numerous readers to go and examine their establishments for themselves. A few minutes spent inspecting their large and varied stock of merchandise will be of practical use. Read their advertisement for their numerous other articles. Also a large stock of ladies' furs, horse blankets, buffalo robes, &c.

Messrs. Howell & Gilliland are just opening a very large and varied assortment of Goods of every description, which they purpose offering to the public at greatly reduced rates for cash and produce. They also intend paying the highest market prices in cash for produce of all kinds.

LADIES!—Miss Lambkey is now in Philadelphia, selecting a fine assortment of Millinery and Fancy Goods, and will be ready for purchasers on the 2nd instant. Call and see her, and you will find her goods of the first quality. Bonnets and Hats to suit the most fashionable.

The Iron City College affords advantages for acquiring a thorough practical Business education surpassed nowhere in the United States. Circulars giving full particulars concerning the school can be obtained on addressing the Principals, Smith & Cowley, Pittsburg, Pa.

BELLEFONTE PA.
Sept. 29, 1889.
To our patrons and the public generally.
We hereby very respectfully give notice that on Monday Oct. 1st, 1889, our mode of doing business will be changed from a mixed credit, and cash to a strictly cash and produce system, and that on and after that date we will positively sell no goods whatever on credit.
Having tried the credit system for nearly three years we find it both unpleasant and detrimental to ourselves and our customers. We have concluded to the cash system, knowing that it will be beneficial to both parties, as it must be plain to everybody that goods sold for cash only, can be sold cheaper than if sold on credit.
We therefore propose to sell our goods exactly as they are, and as usual, to try it all who may give us a call as presently as possible.

sole, promising to always have on hand a complete stock of the most desirable goods in the market.

Thinking you for your liberal patronage we give you a cordial invitation to continue the same.

Yours, very respectfully,
ZIMMERMAN BROS. & CO.
