WHAT ARE THEY DOING? Last win tern bill was passed by the Legislature requiring the re-opening and re-audit ing of the borough accounts, from 1860 to 1869, and authorizing the appoint ment by the court of three auditors, to carry out the designs of the bill. At the Arril term of court, Messis H. N. McAllister, J. P. Gepheart and W. H. Blair, were appointed auditors in accordance with the provisions of the bill. and that is the last we have heard of the matter. What are these auditors doing? Are they attending to the duties assigned them by the court? Or is there something crooked that they don't like to expose?
