

TO MYSELF.
BY MISS NELLIE MARSHALL.

And dost thou long to end thy work,
And fold thy palms across thy breast,
And sink to sleep, eternal rest?

This dost thou crave?

And dost thou long to sleep to life,
When winds through willow branches sigh,
And dark yew wave?

Slender and care to heed no more,
But ever feel the grave-cold worm,
Creeping and crawling upon thy form?

This dost thou crave?

Let her to slay and suffer more,
Than thou compressed in the grave!

Where shade trees wave,

Cold and still in thy narrow bed;
Singing bird and humming bee,
Morn, noon and eve will chant to thee

Where shade trees wave,

But still as grave stone at thy head,
No rest to have!

Loving friends will weep for thee,
Some may be far—others near
But each will drop a tender tear

Upon thy grave!

Ah! how sad it all would be!
And yet to sleep, thou still dost crave,
Where yew trees wave.

"He giveth His beloved sleep,"
Nay, why dost thou turn faint and pale?
Beneath the grasses of the vale

Thou'lt find a grave!

And o'er the shade and shine will creep,
And still and green will that grave
That thou dost crave!

Grasses long and flowers fine
And myrtle too will creep o'er,
But on it never will grace thy lover,
Thou'lt find a grave!

Eyes are round they everywhere,
And thy faith they have abused,
Love and hate, they have confused
But let them rave,
Peace is thine, when thou art there
Calm and cold within thy grave
Where yew trees wave

NEW CHANGE IN AN OLD FIRM.

The undersigned adopts this plan of informing his numerous friends and customers, that he has made arrangements to settle in the old town of Bellefonte, Pa., on or about the 1st of November, 1899, for thirty years I have done business in Bellefonte. I have for the whole of that time been one of the most extensive grain dealers in the place. I have always taken especial pains to accommodate my customers. I have always sold as good and as cheap goods as any other mercantile house in town, and it is my intention to continue to do so. I have also noticed the name of my son W. S. WAGNER to the firm. Hereafter, or from the 1st of Nov. 1899, the business will be conducted in the firm name of

D. M. WAGNER & SON.

I will increase the stock of wheat and corn to the amount of 1000 bushels, and I will continue to continue with us and hope that the people of Centre, Clearfield, and adjoining counties will find it to their advantage to deal with us.

D. M. WAGNER.

We will maintain a large stock of Flour and New York City Flour, and the best stock of our kind in Bellefonte. Our stock will be large, and it is our intention to sell it from time to time. Every thing taken in special pairs to accommodate our customers. I have always sold as good and as cheap goods as any other mercantile house in town, and it is my intention to continue to do so. DOY'S WASHING MACHINE,
IMPROVED WITH ROBERTS' PATENT TUBS, FOR WASHING CLOTHS OF ALL KINDS, AND IS THE MOST SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER. IT WASHES CLOTHS OF ALL KINDS, AND IS THE MOST SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER. IT WASHES CLOTHS OF ALL KINDS, AND IS THE MOST SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER.

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER

Improved with Robert's Patent Tubs, for washing cloths of all kinds, and is the most superior to any other. It washes cloths of all kinds, and is the most superior to any other. It washes cloths of all kinds, and is the most superior to any other.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our new one much, could not be persuaded to be without it. It is the best of Doy's, we feel we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—W. F. Trulove.

"The number of my house there is a percentage of my household on Mondays for the 'new' one."—Rev. Theobald M. Storer.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the family."—N. P. Ober.

"I heartily commend it to all owners of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Billows.

"Friend Doy—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you our Machine; after a year's use is thought more of today than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the house-keeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near as much as the old-fashioned wash-board. By using it, one's laundress is dispensed with."—B. F. M. Sound, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursing, N. Y. City.

"After a long use of the 'universal' clothes wringer for more than four years in our family, I am authorized by the 'powers that be' to give it the most unqualified praise, and to pronounce it an indispensable part of the machinery of a household. Our servants have always been willing to use it, and always have liked it."—Henry Ward Becker.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $11. Extra Wringer $20, and we will forward either of either machine, free of freight to place where you are selling, and we assure you with the price, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machine free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, five to six days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doy Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Contractors with exclusive rights will make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.
