

The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, January 21, 1870.

Horace Greeley in Bellefonte.

The renowned Philosopher of the New York Tribune...

TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20, 1870,

as the occasion on which he will make his appearance before a Centre county audience.

The fame of Horace Greeley is co-extensive with the English language...

Since writing the above, a letter, received from Mr. Greeley...

THE RADICAL ROW. The fight for the Notaryship is over...

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

Court begins on Monday next. Our hotelists are preparing for busy times next week.

The religious services in the Presbyterian church are still going on. Scarlet fever is raging in Beech Creek and Howard.

Quite a revival is in progress at the Campbellite church at Beech Creek. A revival in the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap is now under full headway.

There will be no special trains run to this place on Tuesday evening next. Three years ago Bellefonte had sixty-eight old maids—it has but sixty-seven now.

The Sabbath School Institution at Rebersburg last week, we learn, was a perfect success. Jos. K. Weber, of Rebersburg, killed a porker last week that weighed 63 pounds.

For alleged violation of the Revenue Law, Peter Smith's brewery at Philipsburg has been closed. Rev. J. S. McMurray, Presiding Elder of this district, paid our sanctum a visit on Monday.

Saturday week last was said to have been the coldest day of the season. Thermometer 10 degrees below zero.

The girl who lost her bustle last week, has got a new one, judging from the bulk of her dress as she had on yesterday. Go early to the lecture on Tuesday night. There is going to be a jam.

All who have not tickets beforehand can procure them at the door. Only a few of the reserved seats to Greeley's lecture are yet left. Call on Jacob D. Miller, at the post office, for them.

Milton Meredith of Philipsburg had the fingers of his right hand cut off by a saw while working about a mill at that place on Thursday last week. A couple of town boys, who had not the fear of fines before their eyes, caught a nice string of trout just opposite the WATCHMAN office, on Friday last.

Our lumbermen are complaining bitterly for want of snow. Unless we have a little winter between this and spring, not half the usual amount of logs will be ready for the market. Hon. JEREMIAH S. BLACK, the greatest lawyer in the United States, and one of the staunchest Democrats in Pennsylvania, will be in attendance at Court next week.

The gas works at this place are to be enlarged in the spring. A good way to do it would be to attach a pipe to the Republican editor's mouth, or run it down and connect it with the sanctum of the National.

Miloburgers say they do not want a radical paper at that place. They can stand a couple of houses of ill-fame, but a radical newspaper is too bitter a dose for even "loil" Miloburg to swallow. A farmer in the upper end of the county had, in the fall of 1868, four hundred bushels of wheat, for which he was offered $2.25 per bushel, at his granary. He refused that figure, held his wheat for a higher price, and, two weeks ago, delivered it on the cars at a station on the B. E. V. R. R., for E. Perks, esq., of Philipsburg, at $1.13 per bushel.

Horace Greeley will arrive in this place on Tuesday next, and in the evening, at Reynolds's Hall, he will deliver his long advertised lecture...

The Potter Will case to be tried in our court next week probably involves more money than any case that has been before a judge or juror in central Pennsylvania for many years...

The "disreputable" Independent, of Lock Haven, in its issue of January 15, made a copy of the following advertisement of police news, on New Year's day:

The city unusually quiet all day, and but very little drinking of intoxicating liquors...

Are brass and locals so scarce in Lock Haven as to necessitate a resort to wholesale lying on the part of the Independent editor?

We will here also add that having had an opportunity of examining the reports of the Superintendent of the three several experimental farms connected with the College and now in course of publication...

Our borough duds pay seventy-five a hundred, a hundred and fifty or two hundred, or two hundred and fifty dollars...

INTERESTING.—To hear "McCracken" of the National tell his war experience. Especially that part of it where he records how he "gender-legged" it toward Washington, after the battle of Bull Run...

The town council of the borough of Unionville, are wanting to borrow money. Like the council of Bellefonte, it has always failed to make an exhibit of receipts and expenditures...

A pair of horses attached to a carriage belonging to William Goff of Miloburg, took fright and ran away on Sunday last, throwing a couple of ladies who were in the carriage out, injuring them slightly, and severely injuring a Mr. Adams, who was run over by them.

The people along the upper end of the Pennsylvania Railroad are holding a series of meetings for the purpose of securing subscriptions to the stock of said road.

We are glad to see our good friend, Dan'l Garman, esq., the excellent host of Garman's hotel...

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday morning last, a man by the name of Ephraim Shearer, of Zion, was run over by the eleven o'clock train at the depot here, from the effects of which he died here, from the effects of which he died here, from the effects of which he died here...

RISKY BUSINESS.—For the benefit of the boys who have begun, already to hook trout from our streams, we give the following sections of the law, passed last winter, relating to fishing. If they are desirous of paying the penalty...

Business Notices.—We take it for granted that by this time all our patrons have visited Philadelphia...

MARRIED.—ROGER HEVILLER, of the Fallon House, Lock Haven, by Rev. N. J. Miller, on the 11th inst. Joseph Heviller, and Miss HEVILLER, of Howard, Pa.

The Bellefonte Market.—The following are the quotations up to 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper went to press.

Milroy Markets.—Corrected weekly by GEORGE H. MILLER & SONS.

Philadelphia Markets.—The following are the quotations up to 12 o'clock, yesterday, Thursday.

MISCELLANEOUS.—"TIPICURIUS"—In the room formerly the Central Press of this town...

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE IMPROVED LAND AND SAW MILL.—In pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Lancaster...

LARGE SAW MILL.—Two-story dwelling houses, an office and new improvements thereon erected. The saw mill is driven by a steam engine...

SCHOOL IN THE MOUNTAINS.—AT BELLEFONTE, PA. FOR 30 BOARDERS. TERMS $800 PER YEAR.

SAUL L. BARR. EDWIN H. KINSLOE. BARR & KINSLOE, General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

Report of Pleasant Hill School, Bogg Twp., for the month ending January 12th, 1870. W. W. Tobias, Teacher.

Whole number of pupils during the month, 25 per cent. Attendance 86. Reading 29. Writing, 25. Mental Arithmetic, 35.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

WILL APPEAR NEXT WEEK.—School reports of Marion and Spring townships, and also the communication of a "Pennsylvania Teacher," all of which reached us too late for insertion in this week's paper.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

RISKY BUSINESS.—For the benefit of the boys who have begun, already to hook trout from our streams, we give the following sections of the law, passed last winter, relating to fishing.

Business Notices.—We take it for granted that by this time all our patrons have visited Philadelphia...

MARRIED.—ROGER HEVILLER, of the Fallon House, Lock Haven, by Rev. N. J. Miller, on the 11th inst. Joseph Heviller, and Miss HEVILLER, of Howard, Pa.

The Bellefonte Market.—The following are the quotations up to 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper went to press.

Milroy Markets.—Corrected weekly by GEORGE H. MILLER & SONS.

Philadelphia Markets.—The following are the quotations up to 12 o'clock, yesterday, Thursday.

MISCELLANEOUS.—"TIPICURIUS"—In the room formerly the Central Press of this town...

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE IMPROVED LAND AND SAW MILL.—In pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Lancaster...

LARGE SAW MILL.—Two-story dwelling houses, an office and new improvements thereon erected. The saw mill is driven by a steam engine...

SCHOOL IN THE MOUNTAINS.—AT BELLEFONTE, PA. FOR 30 BOARDERS. TERMS $800 PER YEAR.

SAUL L. BARR. EDWIN H. KINSLOE. BARR & KINSLOE, General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

Report of Pleasant Hill School, Bogg Twp., for the month ending January 12th, 1870. W. W. Tobias, Teacher.

Whole number of pupils during the month, 25 per cent. Attendance 86. Reading 29. Writing, 25. Mental Arithmetic, 35.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

WILL APPEAR NEXT WEEK.—School reports of Marion and Spring townships, and also the communication of a "Pennsylvania Teacher," all of which reached us too late for insertion in this week's paper.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

RISKY BUSINESS.—For the benefit of the boys who have begun, already to hook trout from our streams, we give the following sections of the law, passed last winter, relating to fishing.

Business Notices.—We take it for granted that by this time all our patrons have visited Philadelphia...

MARRIED.—ROGER HEVILLER, of the Fallon House, Lock Haven, by Rev. N. J. Miller, on the 11th inst. Joseph Heviller, and Miss HEVILLER, of Howard, Pa.

The Bellefonte Market.—The following are the quotations up to 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper went to press.

Milroy Markets.—Corrected weekly by GEORGE H. MILLER & SONS.

Philadelphia Markets.—The following are the quotations up to 12 o'clock, yesterday, Thursday.

MISCELLANEOUS.—"TIPICURIUS"—In the room formerly the Central Press of this town...

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE IMPROVED LAND AND SAW MILL.—In pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Lancaster...

LARGE SAW MILL.—Two-story dwelling houses, an office and new improvements thereon erected. The saw mill is driven by a steam engine...

SCHOOL IN THE MOUNTAINS.—AT BELLEFONTE, PA. FOR 30 BOARDERS. TERMS $800 PER YEAR.

SAUL L. BARR. EDWIN H. KINSLOE. BARR & KINSLOE, General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

Report of Pleasant Hill School, Bogg Twp., for the month ending January 12th, 1870. W. W. Tobias, Teacher.

Whole number of pupils during the month, 25 per cent. Attendance 86. Reading 29. Writing, 25. Mental Arithmetic, 35.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

WILL APPEAR NEXT WEEK.—School reports of Marion and Spring townships, and also the communication of a "Pennsylvania Teacher," all of which reached us too late for insertion in this week's paper.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

RISKY BUSINESS.—For the benefit of the boys who have begun, already to hook trout from our streams, we give the following sections of the law, passed last winter, relating to fishing.

Business Notices.—We take it for granted that by this time all our patrons have visited Philadelphia...

MARRIED.—ROGER HEVILLER, of the Fallon House, Lock Haven, by Rev. N. J. Miller, on the 11th inst. Joseph Heviller, and Miss HEVILLER, of Howard, Pa.

The Bellefonte Market.—The following are the quotations up to 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper went to press.

Milroy Markets.—Corrected weekly by GEORGE H. MILLER & SONS.

Philadelphia Markets.—The following are the quotations up to 12 o'clock, yesterday, Thursday.

MISCELLANEOUS.—"TIPICURIUS"—In the room formerly the Central Press of this town...

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE IMPROVED LAND AND SAW MILL.—In pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Lancaster...

LARGE SAW MILL.—Two-story dwelling houses, an office and new improvements thereon erected. The saw mill is driven by a steam engine...

SCHOOL IN THE MOUNTAINS.—AT BELLEFONTE, PA. FOR 30 BOARDERS. TERMS $800 PER YEAR.

SAUL L. BARR. EDWIN H. KINSLOE. BARR & KINSLOE, General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

Report of Pleasant Hill School, Bogg Twp., for the month ending January 12th, 1870. W. W. Tobias, Teacher.

Whole number of pupils during the month, 25 per cent. Attendance 86. Reading 29. Writing, 25. Mental Arithmetic, 35.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

WILL APPEAR NEXT WEEK.—School reports of Marion and Spring townships, and also the communication of a "Pennsylvania Teacher," all of which reached us too late for insertion in this week's paper.

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...

Unionville has had a sensation. A chap in that moral village succeeded in stealing into the private apartment of one of the young misses of that town, and, after "tiring of her company, stole all her jewelry, and "vamosed"...