The latest Radical movement is to strike the white off the Executive mansion in Washington.

"Henpeck is a post office in Indiana." It's a darn eight worse than a post office in this country.

-"The Eternal Order of Owle" is the name of a secret society. A "Reost" is about to be established in Nevada

-Mrs. Jackson refuses to part with "STONEWALL'S" sword, which the Southern Historical society wanted to purchase.

-The Radicals claim that it was the storm that defeated them in Connecticut. So it was -- a storm of Democratic indignation.

-Gov. GEARY WAS in Washington this week. What's up now? Has his Excellency been taking the dimensions of the White House?

-Poor Mrs. Lincoln wants more the National debt is paid off. -A boarder at a hotel in Evans,

Colorado, amused hunself by shooting the landlord because he had not reserved a seat for him at the first table. -A Kentuckian has raised 12,000 pounds of hemp from nine acres of to hang all the carpet-baggers in the

-Montreal is siarmed over a story that the Fénians are moving arms through Vermont Of course they are. How can they move at all-without moving their arms?

-A Cincinnati woman was mean enough to refuse to give her poor husband her wedding ring that he might pawnit for whisky And he just made her do, it.

-Dr. Livingstone, the African traveler, is not dead, as has been reported. Some smart fellow says that the reason he don't write is because he is out of postage stamps.

-They have had the impudence in Pittsburg to arrest WILLIAM DARLING for only selling a team that belonged to another man. That was very unkind of them, WILLIAM, darling.

-We hear a good deal of talk nowa-days about high rents and such, but the biggest rent we have heard of lately was the rent made in the Radical party, at the late election in Connecti-

We say NO to the question of place up and cloped with his mother in haw ing the Democratic party upon any the other day He thought, of course, | such platform. Let the Radicale keep that as the daughter was so entrancing their darkeys and vote them, if they the mother must be still more entrane, want to. We, as a party, can have nothing to do with them. Upon the WHITE MEN of the country the Democ racy must rely for their justification and future success, and upon them alone. Whenever we begin to mongrelize our forces, we may from that moment dumies all bope of keeping our principles pure. The adulteration of the one will be followed by the cormotion of the other just as surely a that cause is followed by effect.

As we have opposed negro suffrage in the past, let us oppose it in all time to come-legally, if we can-forcibly, if we must. Let us adhere to our old landmarks, and stray not into new and untried paths. We rest our cause upon the thoulders of the white men of the land, and feel confident that they will support it. If they do not, on them will be the consequences, and not on us the crime and shame of hav, ing abandoned our principles for expediency's sake.

Congressman Julian having, introduced a bill into Congress providing for woman suffrage, the Woman-Suffrage Association in session at St. Louis adopted a resolution thanking him, and urging the Missouri delegation to use their influence to secure the passage of the bill. JULIAN calls his bill the 16th amendment. Summe having made himself a name on the nigger soue, Julian thinks it at least as cred. itable to hand Air name down to posterity through the ladies. We like his teste, but must confess, that he is but a sorry knight to chempton a cause that has such brilliant advocates as Anna Dick in son.

The latest dispatches confirm the intelligence that Gen. Lorgz, the indomitable war leader of the Paraguayans. his wife and son made prisoners. This will doubtless end the war, as Lorzz was the only manywho-was able to keep the field against the Brazilian Government. For years he has maintained the independence of Paraguay, and has struggled through defeats and trials that would have blasted the hopes and courage of any other man. President of the Paraguayan Republic. and was probably the best selection maintained the unequal strife' against overwhelming odds, even rallying the women to his standard. The Brazilian (fovernment will no doubt chuckle over his death, and congratulate itself that the most formidable object to its. design of taking forcible possession of the Paraguayan country is at last out of the way. But the herois example of Lorez may yet inspire another to ages and in all countries. The McFartand Trial.

The progress of this trial is exciting unusual interest in New York. As the heartrending developments are revealed concerning the deep guilt of the arch seducer-RICHARDSON- a corresponding symbath tis aroused for the unfortunate man now on trial; whose action will be vindicated by a verdict of acquittal. Murder, under all cir. cumstances, should be deprecated, but none will gaineay a common right (sanctioned by a sense of justice scarcely less paramount than law itself) to deal out to the reducer a terrible retribution for a more terrible crune. Me-Farland's conduct will be applauded everywhere, and at the proper time, he will be acquitted. Letter from President Buchenen.

NO. 16

The following letter from the late. President Buchanan is interesting at this time as showing the injustice done is dead. He was killed in battle, and him by the Radical party, and his own elevated notions of patriotic duty. We republish it from the columns of the Philadelphia Iress, which, strange to say, has at length had the decency to at least make a show of doing the great statesman justice. The letter is dated shortly after Mr. Buchanan's re tirement from the Presidency, and is in reference to the facility with which Gen. Lorez was three times elected army officers resigned their positions and took service under the Confederate Government .
