[From the Sacramento (Cal.) Independent of March 12.] A Handsome & Dashing Cattle Steal-er Among the Pacific Slopes.

The case of Susie Raper, indicted by the Grand Jury of Elko county for grand larceny for the stealing of a band of cattle, has been on trial for the last two days. The court room was crowded with eager spectators ever since the opening of the case. The defendant is a woman of about 29 years of age, an Australian, and is rather preposees ing in appearance, has a passable face, a graceful and well rounded form and good carriage. She came to Humbolt county at an early day, and during her residence there, run some of its prominent citizens a merry string.

As a coquette, she has been successful in capturing the affections and coin of many clever but "spooney" chaps all over the country. She has cheek enough to put up and carry out any kind of a job. Smart, bold, and winning ways, she seldom, if ever misses her mark. She can fire a pistol like a sportsman, ride a mustang with the grace and dash of a voquero, drive a bull team equal to any Missourian, and in the parlor or the ball room away" with most, women of style. She was arrested on the 18th of Janu ary last in Lander county, while at of a six shopter on the occasion. She procure ber release under a writ of ha- should catch it." bens corpus, and when brought into court on these occasions she acted as if it was fun.

During this trial she has sat by her able council, rarely exhibiting any con cern on her features, and in passing to and fro from the jail has given up the councilish awagger which generally characterizes her movements. When the keys were first turned on her by the sheriff, she gave away to her emo tions, and a flood of tears gushed from her hazel eyes. This lasted but a mo-ment, when she gave vent to a tirade of abuse upon the heads of those who had deserted her. After eloquent and able arguments on both sides, the care was submitted to the jury at five o'clock last night, which, after being out two yourn a top o' them ere lega." hours, returned the verdict of "not Another indictment for grand larceny-stealing jewelry-is hanging over her, upon which she will be tried
