

The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEVILLE, PA. Friday Morning, May 13, 1870.

Wanted Immediately! A girl to do general housework. To one who will suit, good wages and a permanent situation will be given. Apply at this office.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

The Episcopal congregation, in this place, is without a minister.

Reed's water mill, in Rush township, was burned by the fire that was raging in the woods there last week.

A Catholic Church fair, will be held in Philipsburg beginning on the 16th instant, and to continue for ten days.

We are told that some improvements are to be made upon the court house. Very much might be accomplished in that direction.

Mr. W. V. Hughes, of this place, has been awarded the contract for building the Presbyterian church at Lock Haven, at $21,500.

A large gray eagle, was caught near Philipsburg last week. It measured six feet from tip to tip, and was shot in the wing by a sportsman, who mistook it for a hawk.

Will the Treasurer of the School Board of this borough please inform the public what became of the $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a $13,000 School House? The tax-payers are anxious to know.

Several 'bully fellows' were kindly invited to board with Sheriff Woodring on Monday last, for a few days. The Sheriff's domicile is always open for the reception of guests who don't just exactly know where to go or what to do with themselves.

Seven persons have been arrested for felling timber, making shingles and preparing logs for floating on the property of Mr. James P. Hall, in Rush township, without the knowledge of the owner. The principals were bound over to appear at Court in the sum of $3,000.

Orvis' big eggs have been beaten. We observe by the Lewistown Democrat that W. H. Smith, of Granville township, that county, has one measuring 10 1/2 inches around the long way, and 7 1/2 inches around the middle, and weighing half a pound strong, equalling four good sized eggs.

Tonner McAllister says he saw the ghost of a man who died at the Cummings House some time ago, at that hotel, last week. It rose up, as we understand it, from behind the counter of the bar-room and asked, in a sepulchral voice, for a drink of whisky. Tonner was too frightened to accede to the ghostly request, and it is supposed that the spirit either helped itself or went away as dry as it came.

Have we a Chief Burgess among us? Is the question now agitating this community. We understand that our good friend, Mr. Van Tries, who was elected to that honorable position, declines to serve, and that the office goes begging. We presume the Assistant Burgess can perform the duties, but, at the same time, we think the dignity of the borough demands that its chief official station shall be filled by somebody.

We notice that our good Democratic friend, Philip Graeff, of Dunnstable township, Clinton County, was arrested the other day in Lock Haven, for assault and battery upon the person of one Christian Reeder. Now, we know Mr. Graeff too well not to know that he wouldn't do such a thing unless provoked beyond endurance. We'll bet the man he 'battered' was a rascally black republican who hadn't wisdom enough to keep his mouth shut.

The trees are as green now as that crooked of the Republican who wrote from Unionville, last week, alleging that the Commissioners had instructed the assessor of that township to assess their property there 16 per cent higher than anywhere else. Greener than that, they couldn't be, and belong to the vegetable creation. That fellow is a vegetable himself, and so wholly green that he should be careful as he walks along the streets that the cows don't bite him for a cabbage-head.

We would very respectfully call the attention of the Treasurer of the School Board to the fact that an act of Assembly passed and approved during the session of 1868, requires him to publish an annual statement of his receipts and expenditures, for the information of the tax-payers of the borough, and a supplement to said act, passed and approved during the session of 1869, inflicts a penalty upon him for refusing to do so. Last year there was no such statement published, nor have we heard anything of it, so far as the present year. Why is this, Mr. Treasurer? What have you done with the taxes? We tax-payers would like to know.

OBITUARY.—Miss Mary W. Weaver, of this place, a young lady of about 20 years of age, daughter of George H. Weaver, Esq., died at her father's residence here, on Tuesday morning last, of consumption—that fell destroyer which consigns so many victims to their last resting places. Miss Weaver was suffered for a long time, and it was without hesitation and in the confident hope of a happy future that she prepared to go down into the dark valley, made light for her, however, by the cheering presence of her God and Savior. She was an earnest and consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and it is the great consolation of her friends that the faith she professed in life did not desert her in the dying hour. Calmly, peacefully as an infant slumbers on its mother's bosom, slept she in Jesus, and the Hand that stayed her through life's trials and tribulations upheld and supported her through the awful solemnity of the last moments. For her the waters of Jordan had no terrors. She saw but the blessed shores beyond and the bright messengers, from Heaven's imperial gates, waiting to receive her, and her shriveled soul sang triumphantly, as it crossed,

How happy thus to die, and how unutterably blessed to be able to say, when the last dread hour comes, as she was, 'I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness forever.'

Prior to her sickness Miss Weaver was connected with our public schools and was an earnest, faithful teacher. She was also a member of the Good Templar organization, the members of which attended her funeral in a body.

At a special meeting of the Good Templar Lodge, of this place, on Tuesday evening last, to express its sense of the death of Miss Weaver, the following resolutions were reported and passed:

Resolved, 1st, That by the death of sister Weaver, a place has been left vacant among us that it will be difficult to fill.

Resolved, 2d, That we deeply lament the calamity that has overtaken us in the death of our esteemed sister, and that her death is not only a loss to us, but to the great cause of temperance, of which she was so earnest and devoted an advocate.

Resolved, 3d, That, while deploring the departure from among us of our much-loved sister, we have the consolation of knowing that she died in the full and complete enjoyment of that faith in the Savior, which, we are assured, will open the gates of Heaven to the humblest of God's children, and in the confident hope of a blessed immortality beyond the grave.

Resolved, 4th, That a printed copy of the above preamble and resolutions be given to the parents of our deceased sister, and that they be published in all three of our town papers.

Resolved, 5th, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Issue Lawton, a venerable and worthy colored man, much respected by his own people, and generally esteemed by the whites, died at his home, on Bishop street, on Sunday last, and was buried on Tuesday. Mr. Lawson was a patriarch among our colored friends, and they will greatly miss him. He was sober, steady, industrious, inoffensive, and, we believe, a worthy member of the church.

IN DANGER.—The citizens of Port Matilda were in great danger of having their entire village consumed on Sabbath of last week. It appears that several individuals undertook to burn brush on Thursday previous a short distance from the place, from which the flames spread very rapidly. So that by Sunday morning the fire had approached near the town, several houses and stables were already burning when fortunately the wind commenced blowing in an opposite direction, thus saving the town. A meeting of thanksgiving has been appointed by the citizens of the place for their providential deliverance.—Tyrone Blade.

The Cummings House, on Bishop street, is now under the superintendence of James H. Lipton, Esq., Mr. Hosterman having resigned the proprietorship of that hotel. Mr. Lipton makes a first class host, and will keep a first class house.

We were mistaken last week in saying that the last instant was Decoration Day. That ceremony takes place on the 30th, and now that the WATCHMAN has mentioned it, will probably be observed to some extent in Belleville.

A. Boyd Hutchinson's lecture before the Phrenokoinjian Society of Bealsburg, on "Robert Burns" will be delivered this (Friday) evening. We learn that a number of persons are going up from this place to hear it.

Mrs. Adoline Harris, who died last week, was not the mother of James and Dr. Harris, as we stated. She was only their stepmother, but was nevertheless so good and kind as to almost fill the mother's place.

The Ball of the "Big Spring Company" comes off at Bush's Hall to-night. The music will be furnished by the Belleville Band, and a good time is expected. Tickets $1.00. Editors admitted free.

The weather for the past week in this section has been showery and part of the time quite cool.

A new sidewalk is being laid in front of the Reynolds property on Bishop street, extending up nearly to the Cummings House.

The National made its appearance last week flying the name of W. H. H. Brainerd at its mast head, as editor and proprietor.

A correspondent of the Republican named Kline, and the National, are having a fight. Of course, the public are greatly interested.

Mr. J. B. Ettele is adding greatly to the appearance of his house on Bishop street, by having it pointed and papered. When finished, it will hardly be recognizable. Mr. Ettele is an enterprising gentleman.

Fresh tomatoes, onions, radishes, sweet potatoes, &c., are beginning to arrive in our market. Edward Brown, Esq., has them for sale.

Local news is scarce this week. It has required considerable attention to get up enough items to make a respectable show.

That old stable on the McBride property, fronting on Bishop street, was torn away the other day, and a fence and board-walk are being built and laid all along that locality. This will be a great addition to the appearance of that side of the street.

There is a letter in the post-office here directed to Joseph Booth, Centre county, Pa., North America. It bears the Manchester, (England) postmark. If there is any Joseph Booth anywhere in the county, he can have his letter by calling at the post-office here, and proving his identity.

A man in the employ of Mr. Cook, of this place, had his shoulder knocked out of joint on Saturday, which will throw him out of employment for several weeks. A short time before the accident, our friend Kline advised him to take out an accident insurance policy. Which shows that some things are as important as some other things.

A menagerie is advertised to exhibit in this place next week. From all we are able to understand concerning it, it is a very worthless affair, consisting of some old worn-out animals and some men performers too lazy to earn a respectable living. We wouldn't advise the public to patronize it, but rather to avoid it, and thus teach these traveling mountebanks that the time for juggling Belleville and Centre county people with one-horse shows has gone by.

The new rolling mill of the Messrs. Valentine, recently built by Agnew Moore, of Milesburg, was raised entirely by four men, assisted only by block and tackle. To look at those heavy timbers, it seems almost impossible that Mr. Moore and his three assistants could raise the immense frame, but they did it, nevertheless. Mr. M. was advised to get a dozen men to help him, but remarked that he would see what four men could do first. Mr. Moore don't believe in having superfluous muscle in the way.

VALUABLE INVENTION.—John G. Kurtz, Esq., of this place, and former editor of the Central Press, has just completed the invention of a machine for cancelling stamps that, we believe, will prove superior to anything of that kind patented, and supercede the use of all others. It consists of a stamp in the ordinary form, set with miniature spikes or teeth, which completely perforate the stamp, and mark the month, day and date of the cancellation in perforations. No stamp that ever comes under this machine can be used again, and in this very important respect, it is eminently a success. The invention is a very simple and yet ingenious one, and we trust it will win a fortune for the inventor. The Pittsburg Commercial, of Tuesday last, thus speaks of it.

John G. Kurtz, Esq., a newspaper publisher of Belleville, Pa., has invented an ingenious machine for cancelling revenue stamps, and has made application for a patent. He has sent us a sample of impressions made by his apparatus which consists merely of perforations in the paper marking the date of cancellation. The figures representing the year and the day of the month, and the letters representing the month are neatly and accurately formed by perforating the stamp. The advantage of this system of cancelling is, that it places the stamp beyond all possibility of being used again. There is no ink in the application of the machine, and the ink erasures, as to ink is used. It is stated that those machines already in use print the date in ink, thus making it possible for swindlers to re-use the stamps by washing out the old dates and substituting a new one. Mr. Kurtz seems to have hit upon the right appliance, and if so we may expect to see it adopted by the Government.

Business Notices.—Our young friend, Mr. David I. Parsons has opened a grocery establishment on Bishop street, in the South ward. He has a fine collection now on hand and is continually manufacturing more. "Dave" does good work, and those in need of anything in his line or who have any repairing to do, will find that they can have choice of one of the best assortments of tinware in town, or their repairing neatly and expeditiously done. Having just got fairly started, Mr. Parsons hopes to be able to secure a portion of the public patronage and by strict attention to business to merit a continuance of the popular favor. He will be found in the rooms formerly occupied by the Republican of the opposite Keller & Musser's store. Call and see him.

It has been discovered by the citizens of Belleville, that the place of all others in this town to select the best Boots and Shoes, trimmings, &c. and a thousand other useful articles is the establishment of Burns & Thomas. This popular store is now daily thronged with their numerous customers to get their Spring and Summer supplies.

There are two palpable reasons for the popularity of the store of Burns & Thomas. You can always believe on the articles you purchase they never misrepresent an article, and don't deal in cheap and inferior merchandise. Their wonderful low prices for first class articles of the highest quality have much to do with their large trade.

Bring the lad! And make him glad. In the land of staid clothes that are to be had at the lowest price. And you'll wish you'd always come before. And you'll keep on bringing him more and more.

To do the him at Burns & Thomas. Good news for those whose feet are bare. For those who want good boots to wear. New styles made, I'll tell you where.

AT P. M. GUTHRY & CO. The sunshine and the shadow. How gloriously they fall. Alike upon the rich and poor. The good, and bad, and all.

And so do the blessings of the choice goods that all can get at such low prices, by calling at the Mammoth Store of A. Alexander and Son in Milesburg. Their stock is not equalled in Pennsylvania.

FOR THE WATSONIAN. TRUE TO THEE EVER. I'm true to thee, through all of life's changes. Through all of the years that are passed in an hour. Where ever thy soul goes, in all of its wanderings. I'll be true to thee, it loves thee and one.

Love, do you think I could ever forget you. Once having gazed in your luminous eyes. Do you think I'd relinquish when once I have loved you. My hope of obtaining so glorious a prize.

Stars may fade out from the heavens that once shone. Clouds may obscure them and darken the day. But you are ever in my memory's glow. That clouds never darken nor suns drive away.

Queen of a realm that exists where my heart is. I have e'er and then ask thee to reign. My very existence and being a part of it. All thy heart's glories and love's rich domain.

—That Radical no-eggy, Mr. Schuch, otherwise SCHUCH, has a bill before Congress, providing additional duty on screws. What kind?

TAKING DOWN CONCRET.—A Boston paper tells an anecdote with a moral: "A young lady friend of our met in company a young gentleman who evidently had an excellent opinion of himself. During conversation he introduced the subject of matrimony, and expatiated at length upon the kind of wife he expected to marry; that is, if ever he should take the decisive step. The honored lady must be wealthy, beautiful, accomplished, amiable, &c. His listener quietly waited until he ended, and then completely confounded him by asking, in the coolest possible manner, 'And pray, sir, what have you to offer in return for all this?'

The young man stammered, reddened a little, and walked away.

The latest fashionable kink is for ladies to scramble their hair. So says a fashion item. We have partaken of scrambled eggs, and do partake thereof with much frequency, and hen fruit so prepared invariably tickles our stomach into a broad grin of satisfaction. But regarding scrambled hair, we are free to say that we shall not curve to it lovingly. So far as our experience goes, we believe hair to be a valuable ingredient for plaster, but for a steady diet we should prefer roasted babies done brown, or missionary spargrib. We have no valid objection to sipping nectar from the lips of beauty, but when it comes to eating her back hair scrambled, please excuse us. We'll die out on hair days.
