Wholesale Massacre of the Jews.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1 .- A fearful war of religious intolerence has broken out in the province of Romue lia, the metropolitan province of the Turkish empire, in the south of Europe.

For sometime the native christians have manifested a spirit of fearful vin-dictiveness against the Jewish populaobtain from the government some pro-

On Sunday last, by a preconcerted signal, the christian populace rose, and the fearful work of butchering was inaugurated. At an early hour the houses of all the Jews were invaded, and those of the occupants who were unable to escape were massacred in cold blood. The fleeing Israelites were pursued through the town by the mob, and murdered wherever caught. Men, Squandering the National Domain.

A high republican authority has figured up two hundred and thirty-eight bills, now in Congress, which make appropriations of public land to rail appropriations of poolid land to rafi-roads, amounting in the aggregate, as he estimates, to 512,000,000 acres. "This immense aggregate," we read, age nearly three times greater than the subsidies made in all the previous his-subsidies and in all the previous history of our country to roads and rail-roads, including all the Pacific roads. Add it to the 186,000,000 already given, and we rise to the scarcely con ceivable figure of 698,000,000 acres, or in round numbers, say, seven hundred million acres! This is more by nearly two hundred million acres than the whole surveyed domain of the United States, including the present Western and Pacific states. It is twenty times larger than the State of Illinois. It is half the size of Russia in Europe. And half the size of Austria in Europe. And it is of the area of Austria, England, France, Italy, Portugal, Prussia and Spain, which, together, contain a popu-lation of 160,000,000." Senator Thurman, the able democratic Senator, of Ohio, called atten-tion at the beginning of the present session to the organized movement by which these dand, appropriation bills were sprung "Booi Congress, and be-sought that, if the grants asked for were made, they should at least be cou pled with stipulations compelling the retransfer of the donated lands, at fair prices, to actual settlers. His remon strances, and the public sentiment which he and others have aided in creating, have not been without effect. On Wednesday the house refused, by a On Wednesday the house relused, by a vote of 92 against 77, to order to a third reading the joint resolution which had passed the Senate virtually dona-ting, without terms, to the Northern Pacific railroad, about forty-one mil-lions of acres of the national domain. The bill was referred back to the prop. per committee for amendment. In the meantime, the minority who oppose this wholesale squandering of the public property is daily strengthening. A Washington correspondent informs us that some of the republican members of the house are preparing a protest, to be spread upon the journal of that body, in which they say they are not willing to have it go to the country that the republican party favors the "land grabbing" schemes. We shall see. For the reckless prodigality which has already made such inroads on the national lands, the people hold the radical party responsi-ble, and they will charge the same or-ganization with whatever further damage Congress shall permit to be inflict-ed on the country by the same means. It is a wasteful, perfidious policy which, even under any restrictions, would par ogl out and dispose of the landed

Con gress has really no moral right to give again to railroad, or any other companies, that of which it has already in good faith made other disposition. The west is filling up fast enough. Let the process go on naturally and legitimate ly, and the desired end will be reached better and faster than by any amount of forcing. and the Uncle Peter, "reminds me of a curtous story t once heard, when I was in England."

t seems there was a newspaper to the City of Glasgow, Scotland, which employed a London correspondent. The correspondent made it his duty to gather news every day and send it to Glasgow every night by telegraph He made an agreement with an ope rator at a certain office, by which his news was sent to Glasgow at a reduc tion, by the year.

One night he arrived at the lower door, at the foot of the stairs leading up into the telegraph office. The deor was locked and he could not open

The operator up stairs yawned and looked at his watch. "Jenkins wou't come to night," he said, "I may as well go to bed."

And there was poor Jenkins all the time pounding away on the door at the foot of the long stairs, unable to get

"Illilof up there !" he cried, looking at the window of the telegraph office that glowed with light. "Hillo! Jones, somebody has locked the outside door, and I can't get in. "What is the row?" said a policeman, coming along. "I'm locked out," said Jenkins. "Here I've got a batch of the most important news' for a paper-a murder, three fires and riot-and the door lock ed, in my face, and I can't get in. What will I do ?"

So the policeman began banging the door, but Jones, the operator, up in his office, was as unconscious of the tumult as if it had been in the moon. He was whistleipg to himself, and yawning prodigiously: "Why don't you go to some other office ?" asked the policeman. "No authority to use any other line," said the correspondent. "Ah! I've got it l' he added, and before the polica-man could ask him what it was, the excited Jenkins had dashed of down ashes of the grate.
