what religion they please; but to lend the weight of their official positions to measures which are not national or political, and with which the Government and its officers have nothing whatever to do, is to say the least, ill-advised and imprudent. When Gen. Grant tells us that we ought not to interfere in the affairs of Cuba, we may at least tell him that he, or the President, ought not to interfere in religious matters.—Morning Post.

We endorse the views of the Independent and Post, and must say the paper signed by the President, Vice President and Secretary of State is a piece of impudence on their part. What have they to do with religious matters, in their official capacity? It is a dangerous precedent to set, as well as impudent. There is too much effort made in this country to get official sanction for sectarianism. — Doylestown Democrat.

A Question by the Governor.

While President Grant went a junketing among the mountains of Pennsylvania, our Governor was also making a little excursion. In company with Dr. Wisner Worthington, and Col. McFarland, the late Superintendent of Orphan Schools, his Excellency has been visiting the Soldiers' Orphan Schools and other charities in the western part of the State. We do not stop here to make the pertinent inquiry in regard to McFarland still holding the position of Superintendent of the Soldiers Orphan Schools, notwithstanding his rejection by the Senate, and the fact that his term of office expired a month ago. We wish to answer a question of the Governor. At Jamestown he spoke eloquently (as he always does) of the sacrifice of the war. In the course of his remarks he asked the following questions: "Who would take a thousand dollars for his hand? What sum would he accept as the price of a leg? Ask him who has lost one. And yet thousands did. More; they gave their lives. What will a man not give in exchange for his life?"

The Governor has answered these queries, himself. When he signed that remarkable measure limiting the damages to be recovered from railroad corporations for the loss of life and limb known as the "Calamity Act," he fixed the exact sum. For the loss of an arm or leg Governor Geary ascertained the precious amount to be three thousand dollars. He signed the act prohibiting juries from assessing the damages at a greater sum than three thousand dollars for the mangled, quivering limbs of a fellow citizen. He answered the question further by fixing the amount of damages for the destruction of human life at five thousand dollars. Does he ask now the price of an arm or leg? Let him examine the infamous Calamity Act, signed by his own hand and find the ready answer. Yet this is the smirking champion of the people in a new war against corporations!—Harrisburg Patriot.

A waggish journalist who is often merry over his personal plainness tells the following story on himself:

I went to the chemist the other day for a dose of morphine for a sick friend. The assistant objected to give it to me without a prescription, evidently fearing that I intended to commit suicide.

"Pshaw," said I, "do I look like a man that would kill myself?"

Gazing steadily at me for a moment, he replied, "I don't know. It seems to me if I looked like you I should be tempted to kill myself."

A person of experience has crystallized the wisdom he acquired in that way, in the following short sentence: "Courtship is bliss but the marriage is bluster."

An exchange has a long editorial under the head of "Congregational honesty." We don't see how it could say anything under a head that is nothing to it.

FANCY DRINK,

Made out of Poor Rum, Whisky, Proof Spirits, and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restoratives," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and Life Giving Principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, curing of all personal matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for any incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means and the vital organs wasted beyond the power of repair.

For inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the Blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN WORMS and other worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
