The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA:

Friday Morning, July 22, 1870.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

—C Plotz, Esq, of Williamsport, is now engaged in getting up a business directory of Bellefonte.

—Prof D. M Wolfe will preach in the Reformed Church, on Sabbath morning next, at half past ten o'clock

—Remember the pic-nic at the second wood to-morrow. Music, dancing, &c Bring your baskets along, well filled

—J. Miles Kepheart, of Philadelphia, is in town recreating and canvassing for his House Miles still retains his good looks, &c

—Big Clover.—Owen McCann, of Port Matilda, has clover measuring in length 6 ft and 2 in It will take pretty tall clover to beat that —Our friend W H H. Brandon, of the Tyrone Herald was in town on Saturday and Sunday He is making the Herald a live sheet

—A glass of Zeller & Jarrett's soda water makes one think of sipping juleps out of an ice-bag at a Mad Dog meeting

—The corner stone of the new Baptist Church at Philipsburg will be laid on Sunday, the 24th inst with appropriate ceremonies

—We hear of a slight unpleasantness between a couple of prominent Radicals, up town, a day or two since No damage done

—The basket meeting held near Mount Eagle on last Saturday, was largely attended, especially in the afternoon The sermons were well delivered and impressive

—An article To Clear Ed. prepared for this number of the Watchman, has been unavoidably crowded out It will appear next week.

—A Boyd Henderson, Esq of Lock Haven, was in our sanctum a few days since Boyd has gone to Snow Shoe to spend a few weeks for the benefit of his health

—Mrs Sankey, a widow woman living on Logan's Run was struck with paralysis a few days ago while engaged in her garden For a time she was very low but is fortunately entirely recovered

—A Basket Pic-Nic will be held in the second woods, on the Muesburg turnpike on Saturday, the 30th instant to-morrow The occasion will be a pleasant one, and the ladies of the Grove Church have a good time

—The Temperance Revival will be held in Temperance Hall next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, under the Court House Young men of the locality have been engaged to do battle, but will be assisted by Dr Reid and others in the vicinity

—Copperhead snakes seem to be pretty down along Bald Eagle valley this season, one foot or ten in length were recently killed by Mr Ephraim Gentzel, and children of Mr Newland Lee, twelve years of age, in the same neighborhood killed one six feet of snake a few days after, while building a fire in the field

The concert given on Saturday last past by Mrs Dunham and pupils was well attended by an appreciative audience That lady deserves credit for her efforts to render her pupils proficient in the delightful art of music, by thus encouraging and stimulating them to exertion

Father Gould, late of the Nittany Press, but now of the re-instated Centre County Press was in town this week The Press is a neat and handsome paper, but is devoted to Radical politics Mr Gould has our best wishes personally We wish we could say as much for him politically

Messrs Bigler and Betts, of Clearfield, were in our sanctum on Wednesday They reported themselves as here to look after the welfare of the late Bellefonte excursion party, and were glad to find that all are so apparently recovered from the fatigues of the expedition Come again, gentlemen

—The man who attempts in this rapid, enlightened age to do business, to keep store, sell goods, to buy or to barter without advertising in the papers, is likened unto a man winking through a pair of green goggles. He may know that he is doing it but nobody else does. Have we any green-goggle winkers in Bellefonte?

—Some boys playing in Col Tate's stable, on Sunday morning last, about half past nine, thought it would be good fun to see who could make a match burn the longest. The neighbors saw the smoke issuing from the roof, and the boys skedaddled, allowing that they would hereafter abandon the match business, as being too expensive Prompt efforts saved the building, though it was badly burned —At Pleasant Hill School House, near Curtin's Works, a largely attended and very interesting prayer meeting is held weekly. The spirit of God seems to be doing a good work in that locality

—The school near Curtin's Works, so ably conducted by our friend Tobias, closes to-day after which William expects to retire to his "peaceful home in ye ancient valley of Brush." As Toby is a good Democrat, we expect to hear from him occasionally.

—The pic-nic of Prof Shappee's school of Muesburg, held in the Oak Grove, on Saturday last, near Central City, was largely attended, and every thing passed off with the best of harmony, reflecting great credit on the Prof. for his endeavors to please and to provide for the comfort and enjoyment of all that were participants

—A reverend gentleman held forth in the Court House on Tuesday evening on the advantages of West Virginia as a home for enterprising poor men. His audience was exceedingly slim We believe the lecture was a dodge of some of our capitalists to secure tenants or buyers for some of their West Virginia land.

—On Friday last the rolling mill level at Curtin's Works was drawn off for repairs and an immense haul of fish was the consequence As many as [illegible] were caught by hand and net, some of which were very large Pike, eels, catfish, fall fish and suckers comprised the capture, and among them were some that measured twenty inches in length.

—Last week we found our edition short about 50 copies, and were compelled to cut nearly all our exchanges We couldn't account for it until Tuesday evening, when a little boy of Mr Bayard's brought a whole lot of Watchmans into the office, which he stated had been found in his father's chicken coop How they got there remains a mystery, though we suppose some scamp stole them out of the press room, just after they were printed, in order to sell them for wrapping paper

—Many persons in town saw the light of the burning buildings at Osceola on Saturday evening last, but did not imagine the cause The sky in the south west was highly inflamed, and remarks were ventured that a large fire must be in progress somewhere Lawshe White & Co. lost their mill and about twelve million feet of lumber We publish some account of the fire in our item column on first page

—We were presented on Monday last with three heads of wheat, grown on the farm of Mr John White, about a mile from town, that we do not think for length and development have yet been excelled One of them measures seven inches in length and contains one hundred and ten grains another measures six inches, and is equally well filled, while the third is five inches long, and is a double growth The man at Muesburg, who published his wheat in Fred Kurtz's Reporter, is, we think, beat by Mr. White, and Nittany valley will successfully rival the valley of Penn

The Republican, of this place, took the Watch Chunk Times to task a week or so since for issuing a more than ordinarily uninteresting sheet In his last issue the Times man speaks thusly

> The Brown who does up the selections for the Bellefonte Republican favors a recent issue of that paper with a dull and uninteresting collection of items. Nobody in the region that same gentleman has occasion to regret a dull and uninteresting number of this paper We have to [illegible] starving of the Republican in this and several of the past six months and because the supply for one week is a little short of a column it becomes the occasion of more

Edward W Miller, the popular member of the House of Moore, Liggett & Co Philadelphia, has not made this section his usual summer visit, on account of the mortal illness of his wife, who is now lying at the point of death These of his patrons here who have been on the lookout for him, will ascribe his absence to this cause

P S Since writing the above we find the following among the obituaries in the Public Ledger

> MILLER On the 16th instant after a long illness, MARY M. wife of Edward W Miller, in the 38th year of her age.
> The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the residence of her husband, No 906 North Tenth street, on Tuesday, the 19th inst, at 10 o'clock

—Plain Words is dead It has followed in the footsteps of the National, and to-day sleeps the sleep that knows no waking After a brief existence, it quietly subsided; and will be heard of no more forever. Mr Brainerd took all the material to Tyrone last week, and put it in with the Herald establishment, which paper he will conduct in future It is vaguely hinted that Armstrong bought him off the course, paying him more money to quit fighting him than he gave Brown to fight for him. This may or may not be true, but it is within the range of probability. At all events Brainerd is gone, and will say no more plain words in Bellefonte. He will, however, doubtless be heard from through the Herald. "McCracken" has our best wishes for his personal success in his new location.

The Excursion.—The Bellefonte excursion party to Clearfield on Friday last, had a "gay and festive time" There were some forty-seven excursionists—ladies and gentlemen—who through the kindness of Mr. Wilkins, superintendent of the Bald Eagle valley and Tyrone & Clearfield railroads, and his efficient and gentlemanly assistant, D D Woods, Esq, were furnished with one of the company's best cars, and the trip over the mountains rendered as pleasant as a trip can be made this hot weather The party left this place at noon on Friday, and after stopping to gather berries on the mountain, have a short run around Philipsburg, and take a look at the other points along the line, reached Clearfield at 6 p. m At the depot they were met by a large number of the citizens and escorted to the Shaw and Mansion Houses, where arrangements had been made for their accommodation After tea, the party gathered at the Shaw House, where they were joined by many of the ladies and gentlemen of the place, and in social chat, music and dancing, the evening passed pleasantly and quickly The next morning carriages were furnished those who wished to ride out, and the others were accompanied to and shown all places of interest about the town

From the time our people reached the depot until their departure at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, every attention that a hospitable, social, whole-souled people could pay, was extended them, and on the part of the citizens of Clearfield, as well as the officers and employees of the roads over which they passed, nothing was left undone that would add to the enjoyment or pleasure of the occasion

On the return trip the committee consisting of

P Gray Meek	Mrs D G Bush
J H Hastings	Mrs Jno H Orvis
G M Yocum	Miss Lou Von Lewis
S Sheppard	Miss Jennie Thompson
Jno H Orvis	Miss Millie Hume
W H H Leopard,	Miss Jennie Rankin

was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the excursionists towards the citizens of Clearfield for the warm welcome given, and hospitable treatment extended The committee reported the following

Resolved, That we hereby express our thanks to the Penna R R Company for furnishing such [illegible] and conductor the accommodations for the excursion

Resolved, That we hereby express our thanks and acknowledgments to the citizens of Clearfield, and especially to the ladies of the Shaw and Mansion houses, for the manner of our entertainment, and the kind attentions shown us by them

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the papers of Bellefonte and Tyrone

After partaking of a good supper at the Ward House, Tyrone, and a pleasant ride down the Bald Eagle valley railroad, the party reached home at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, elated with their visit, and determined, when opportunity offers, to return the kindness received at the hands of our Clearfield friends

R H Duncan, Esq, of Spring Mills, has again placed us under obligations by favoring us the following letter, which we know our Penn-valley readers, especially, will be pleased to peruse

> Pennsylvania R R Company
> Philadelphia, July 19th 1870
> [illegible]
> Dear Sir: Your favor asking for the use of a car for the excursion party from Bellefonte to Clearfield was duly received, and I am happy to say that we were able to grant your request. Several persons connected with the road have expressed to me their pleasure at the courtesy extended to your party, and I am glad to know that the trip was a pleasant one. I am sure that we will be glad to do anything in our power to promote the interests of Bellefonte, and shall be pleased to hear from you at any time.
> Very respectfully, Your ob't serv't
> THOS A SCOTT
> Vice-President Penn'a R R Co

By this it will be seen that the Philadelphia & Erie R R Company, and the Pennsylvania Central, is to furnish the means to grade and stock the track It matters little to us and the people of the county, however, who does it just so it is done and the entire completion of the road secured The difficulty at the lower end of the road, we understand, has been adjusted, and we hope to have the pleasure of stating in our next issue, that the company is prepared to receive bids for the grading of the road from Lewisburg to Mifflinburg, at least. It will not take long to get it to the Union county line then and when once there, Pennsvalley will see that it is put through in a hurry

Since going to press we have received the following which we know our Penn-valley readers will be pleased to peruse

> RAILROAD LETTING.
> School proposals will be received at the Office of the President, in Lewisburg, Pa, until > SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1870,
> For the grading, masonry and bridging of that part of the
> LEWISBURG, CENTRE & SPRUCE CREEK RAILROAD, > extending from Lewisburg to Western boundary of Borough of Mifflinburg, distance of about ten miles.
> Bids will be received for each section or the whole work together.
> Specifications can be seen at the office

The Public Schools.—In our last week's issue, we omitted to note the commencement exercises of the High School of this place, on Friday afternoon, July 1st The affair was one that will long be remembered by the members of the school.

The four rooms of the first floor were thrown into one by raising the glass partitions. The rooms were neatly ornamented with flags, pictures, &c. We noticed in particular two paintings of considerable merit—the work of Miss Anna McClellan

At half past two, the house was completely filled, and the audience manifested throughout the exercises much interest and pleasure The programme was well arranged, and the manner in which it was carried out reflected great credit on both pupils and teachers We refer particularly to the declamations of Messrs. Frank Lingle, Montie Ward and Charles McClure

The choruses were spirited and pleasing.

The valedictory was delivered by Charles L. Ward, in fine style He is a young man of promise, and will, we think, make a good speaker.

The organists—Misses Sallie T Burnside and Anna McClellan—performed their parts very creditably One noticeable feature was that none but pupils of the school took part in the exercises

We suggest that the school board should employ a music teacher in the schools whose duty it shall be to give daily or weekly instructions in that branch Music teachers are employed in many other towns of the State of less pretensions than ours We understand that the Principal has paid a music teacher during part of last year from his own salary

We are always proud of our home institutions, and think the citizens of Bellefonte have no reason to regret the money they invested in the new school building

The schools have been more largely and regularly attended during the last year, than we have ever known them to be before The public examinations at the close of each quarter afforded patrons an opportunity of judging for themselves, of the efficiency of the teachers and advancement of the pupils These examinations were well attended by the patrons and friends of education.

If the schools continue in the future as they have been during the past year, parents will soon begin to see that there is no necessity for select schools to educate the youth of Bellefonte

—It is not our rule to publish base ball scores, as a general thing, but we have been particularly requested by some of our Millsburg friends to insert the following that we consent to oblige them Usually games of base ball are uninteresting to anybody but the players, though we admit there have been and are instances where public interest is excited The following score is the game played by the Uno Animo club of Millsburg with the Howard club, of Howard, on July 2d, 1870

Mr John Rankin has purchased the book and stationery store of George O Bryan, in the West Ward, and will hereafter conduct that business Mr Rankin is a good business man, attentive, energetic and industrious, and we hope he may find his new calling as profitable as it will no doubt be agreeable Mr O Bryan, we understand, has purchased a half interest in the Jornalistic establishment of S R Williams & Co We wish him success

Late Publications.

The Ladies' Friend for July—Truly a superb number, in embellishments and in literature! How the publishers can afford to give so much for so little is a mystery, the half yearly subscription is six numbers from July to December, for 1.25 The fine steel engraving, Summer Hours, is a deliciously suggestive picture, the Colored Fashion Plate, a group of elegant Opera costumes, the Colored Tatting [illegible] as well as useful, [illegible] as to the stories and poems, such names as Harriet Prescott Spofford, A M. Douglas, Miss Prescott, Eleanor Donnelly and Florence Percy, are warrant enough for their superiority. We should have mentioned that the music is a March, a "Greeting to Philadelphia," by Paul Sentz. And the editorials, being written by a lady for ladies, are particularly attractive. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

The June number of The Manufacturer and Builder, published at 37 Park Row, New York, is upon our table. It is a valuable and interesting publication, and ought to be in the hands of every mechanic. Western & Co., Publishers. Price 15 cents per number.

Health.—Its promotion, as well as comfort, considered in the growing of grass in our pavements. Pavements may be considered a necessity, in either dusty, or wet weather, but who after being for a considerable time confined in a closely built town, will not feel an agreeable relief, when he gets into the farming districts, where pavements are dispensed with, and the air is fragrant with vegetation? Who but would have his home perched in the midst of a green velvety carpet of grass? It seems fashion dictates the dispensing with every vestige of grass on our pavements This seems odd and contrary to natural rules of health What harm can grass do if it does grow on the pavements? When the tread of feet will not let it grow it will keep under, but there can be no harm to have it grow where the tramp need not be Bare, sun-heated, parching, roasting pavements cannot be desired, and a little grass would remedy this. Will our good people consider the propriety of having grass or no grass grow on the pavements? I have grown it for a long time, and the longer I grow it the better I like it Besides forming a carpet it makes a good weigh mate dy times OBSERVER.

Editors Watchman—Dear Sir—The time for nomination of our Democratic county ticket is drawing near, and as I have seen no mention made of any name for auditor, permit me to call attention of your numerous democratic readers to the propriety of re-electing Mr Solomon Etlinger, of Woodward, the present incumbent, whose term expires. He is a man of sterling integrity, of large business capacities, of sound judgment, in short, a Democrat in whom is no guile, and has filled several county offices with trust and fidelity Let Mr. Etlinger be re-nominated by acclamation VELTA

—Editor Watchman—I believe that it is generally conceded on this side of the mountain that the next nominee for county commissioner belongs to some of the townships over the mountain, as this side of the mountain has two who hold over. Now, it is important that we should have a good man for this office A large number of the Democrats of Walker, after consultation, have concluded that John Sankey, of Gregg township, is the proper man to fill said office Of course there may be other good men in that locality who would do honor to the party in this position, but we know of none that would render such general satisfaction as Mr Sankey We do not know whether he is seeking the office or not, but we believe, as a good Democrat, he has no right to refuse the nomination, if tendered him, and we do not think he will This Democrat of Walker would therefore urge his nomination WALKER

Editors Watchman—Dear Sir—Allow me, a plain working Democrat of Gregg township, space for a few lines in your paper It is but a very short time until the meeting of the county convention, and I think we democrats should know each other's feeling before that convention assembles Now is the time to speak out in meeting, if we have any preferences, or not, we can do so hereafter. Three years ago you will remember, how outrageous in our candidate for Senator, Hon S T Shugert, were we from his seat, to which he had been fairly, honestly and triumphantly elected You know, as well as any one else, the means that were used to cheat him out of his place and to deprive the people of the district of their duly elected Senator. The respectable portion of the radical party blushed at the infamy of the act, and every person who had any honesty about him, denounced it We are now to nominate a candidate for Senator again. Mr Shugert has always been one of the most reliable democrats in the county, knows what the public needs, is above suspicion, stood the expense of a campaign before, and the long, tedious and expensive farce called a trial by which John J Patterson succeeded in getting one of his tools into the seat Mr Shugert was elected by hundreds of friends in the radical party who will vote for him, and in every way is qualified and fitted to lead us to certain victory Let him be our senatorial standard bearer in the coming campaign We owe it to him We owe it to ourselves Let us rebuke the villians who cheated us out of our Senator last fall Gregg goes for Shugert

Spring Mills, July 19th 1870

DIED.

[illegible] in Howard township, Centre county Pa [illegible]

Deceased was born in the county of Clare Ireland He left his native country in the year 1831, and arrived on American soil in the month of June, of the same year After a short sojourn in another part of the state, he came to Centre county, which has been his residence ever since

Mr Glenn was a consistent and conscientious believer of the doctrines taught in the Catholic church He was a kind father and husband, a very sociable and agreeable neighbor and a true friend In all his sufferings he was calm and resigned, meeting his end with perfect christian fortitude He left behind a widow, two sons and four daughters to mourn his loss.

On the following Monday his remains were conveyed to Bellefonte, and interred in the Catholic cemetery, surrounded by a large concourse of sympathizing friends The ceremonies necessary for the occasion were conducted by Father Mathovern. The sermon was very impressive, and listened to with marked attention Thus has passed away, one of the oldest and best citizens of Howard township. May he rest in peace

Business Notices.

—Isaac Haupt says he will sell stove pipe and tin ware for cash, 20 per cent cheaper, than last year. Ask all persons wanting to buy to call at his ware room on the corner opposite the depot, where he sells at wholesale and retail

The New Albany Ledger tells the following: "On the first day of September, 1861, Mr Asher Butler enlisted in the confederate army in Tennessee, leaving behind him when his regiment marched, a wife and one child a daughter aged nine years. At the battle of Chickamauga, Butler was severely wounded, and for a long time was confined in a hospital During this time a report reached his wife that he was dead. In the course of time she married again, and with her husband removed to Louisville. Last week a party of the citizens of Louisville, gentlemen and ladies, held a picnic at Newman's grove, below the city. Butler was one of the party. In the course of the day a young lady of eighteen was frequently noticed by him to be closely observing him, and finally she requested the young gentleman who accompanied her to go to him and ask him his name, and where he came from. The young man did as was requested, receiving an answer that his name was Asher Butler, and that he was an ex-confederate soldier and other particulars of his life The answer was communicated to the young lady, who, without further inquiry, rushed into Butler's arms, and covering his face with kisses, exclaimed 'My father, my long lost father!' Thank God, I have found you at last' And it so proved, for, after nine years separation, father and daughter were thus unexpectedly brought together.

A Georgia editor, who just put Mr Stephens a visit, says "Accompanied by a friend, we called on this distinguished statesman and patriot last week, and were glad to find him cheerful and to somewhat improved health, Though quite feeble, he is able to be the assistance of his crutches, to walk about the yard and superintend the cultivation of his garden, in which he appears to take great interest. Hopes are entertained by some of his friends that he will regain the use of his limbs so far as to dispense with his artificial supports. He by no means seems to contemplate his subject, but quite resigned to God's will in this and all other matters, whether relating to himself or the country.
