The Mobile Register takes the Nathan murder for a text, and preaches the following pertinent and searching sermon. It comes home to the consciences of thoughtful reflection with terrible power:

The murder of the rich banker, Mr. Nathan, in his own house, in the city of New York, was a horrible and daring crime, and has alarmed and startled the people and the press of that city. The press cries out loudly for the protection of the law and against the inadequacy of the police force, and the authorities are called upon to increase the body of the police to four thousand men. This crime was a personal affair, and there are doubts whether it was committed by professional thieves and burglars, or by what is termed a "sneak thief"—that is, a novice and amateur in crime. It is a deplorable event in a large and well-governed city, and no wonder that it has alarmed the citizens for their safety, when an eminent person like Mr. Nathan is not safe from the violence of the assassin in his own bed-chamber and mansion, situated in the most aristocratic part of the city. Further down South, to wit, in South Carolina, violent outrages of equal enormity, and upon a larger scale, are being perpetrated, not by professional thieves and outlaws, but by men wearing the uniform of the United States government, and backed by authority derived from the same government. In the counties where these outrages are committed, no citizens, however eminent in social standing, however innocent of offences against the laws, and the peace and the good order of society, is safe. They are arrested by a brutal militia, under the command of a scoundrel. They are beaten if they ask for the warrant of their arrest. They are hung up by the necks to force a confession of Ku Kluxism to criminate either themselves or their neighbors. Carried off to prison, their families are left unprotected and a prey to deadly terror of violence from the incendiary wretches who compose the black and white militia. In short, in two counties of this State, we have the fullest example of "hell organized," after the prediction of Senator Doolittle, and a "reign of terror" the horrors of which could not be surpassed in time of war. Terrible as was the murder of Mr. Nathan, there are features in the wholesale crimes being perpetrated in North Carolina that throw it to the shade. It is not one man that falls by the hand of a felon, but a whole community of men, women and children a prey to the violence, revenge and lusts of a band of felons. It is not a robbery of money and jewels followed by murder, when discovered, of one criminal. But it is a whole community given up to lawless arrest, imprisonment, beatings, hangings, rapine and rape, under the authority of the great government of the United States. As Holden boasts "he is backed by General Grant." Now, if New York city needs four thousand police to protect the lives of her opulent and most estimable citizens while sleeping in their beds what do the outraged citizens and the terrified women of North Carolina need?—Will the people of New York in their misfortune think of the calamities which Radical ambition has so cruelly visited on the best and purest members of society in North Carolina? Will they take it home to themselves and imagine their beautiful instead of the single felon in twenty-third, a Holden and a Kirk, and their heentious brigands were turned loose upon that community, and given full license to plunder imprison and hang, with General Grant to "back" them, and United States troops standing by to see the enormities successfully executed.

PRESIDENT GRANT SUED FOR THREE THOUSAND DOLLAR DUE.—Wm H Stark yesterday commenced suit in the Circuit Court of St Louis county, against President U S Grant for $3,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff under the following circumstances. Col Stark was the owner of a fine and fast pacing horse, known as Wyandotte Chief. This animal was in pasture with a horse alleged to have belonged to Gen Grant, (it has heretofore been stated that Captain C W. Ford was the owner,) and the General's horse kicked the Chief, breaking his leg. Every effort was made to cure the fracture, eminent surgeons being engaged, but the horse died in consequence of the kick. Notice of the commencement of the suit was served on the President's last evening by one of the Sheriff's deputies.—St. Louis Democrat, August 12.

ADDRESS

TO THE

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES,

AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE

PROMPT TREATMENT,

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Do your liver, urinary organs or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flooky, or is it ropy or settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of hunting, or rush of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the luster of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now to other self abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering and successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never heard such men complain of being the victim of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They never afraid they cannot succeed in business, they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always polite and pleasant to the company of ladies and look you and them right in the face. None of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self abuse and excesses, have brought about the state of weakness in those organs that has so much to injure almost every other function, such as dimness of sight, loss of memory, pimples on the face, aversion to society, loss of confidence, lassitude, universal prostration, nervousness, trembling, dizziness, wakefulness, timidity, blushing, bashfulness, hesitancy, sadness, gloomy forebodings, dreams, nocturnal emissions, seminal weakness, spermatorrhœa, impotency, sterility, involuntary discharges, pains in the back, head, and limbs, dizziness, dimness of vision, prematurely old age, and many other symptoms, which if allowed to progress, fearful organic weakness, epilepsy or falling sickness, consumption, insanity and an early grave follow.
