leagues; but it is said that we should be charitable toward him, for he didn't know any better—being selected on that ground—which accounts for the Bellefonte delegates voting solid for Armstrong, when it is known that Beaver can carry the vote of the Republican party of Bellefonte two to one over Armstrong. In the event of Wilson's nomination as a candidate for Senatorial honors, he will try to claim the "soldiers vote." After playing this gouge game, assisted by such men as John Irwin, and others, I would like to know with what kind of consistency Wilson and Armstrong will claim the support of the Republican masses.

More anon. DELEGATE No. 2.

A Candid Confession by a Republican Newspaper.

In the Evening Telegraph, one of the ablest Republican newspapers of Philadelphia, we find the following remarkable article occupying a prominent place in the editorial columns. It speaks plain truths, which may serve as a warning to Republicans and an encouragement to Democrats.

LINE UPON LINE!—The North Carolina election is another grave admonition to the Republican party that it can maintain its supremacy only by promptly correcting the evils it has too long cherished within itself. While the issues of the war were undecided, patriotic men would close their eyes to corruption, to incompetent or otherwise unworthy candidates, and to the madness of selfish leaders, and vote the Republican ticket to save the country; but now the war has garnered the fullness of its harvest, and honest citizens will no longer be made the supple tools of corruptionists.

Every election held this year has been a fresh notice to the Republican leaders that the party must reform itself. Connecticut opened the campaign of 1870 with disaster, whereby a faithful and patriotic Governor was displaced by 800 majority. Oregon followed, and one of the ablest and most blameless of our Republican Senators lost his place. Washington city followed with an open and decisive rebuke to the political managers who clamored to be the Republican party. New York, hitherto a debatable State, gave nearly 90,000 Democratic majority, when the political complexion of her courts of last resort was involved. Kentucky gave no substantial Republican gains, even with her large colored vote polled for the first time. Tennessee has given over her courts to the Conservatives, thus surrendering the last vestige of Republican power in that State, and now comes North Carolina, in the face of bayonets forced upon the people by the ill-advised counsels of bad leaders, with a Legislature two thirds Democratic, and but two Republicans in the entire Congressional delegation. A Senator is thus sacrificed, and a long stride taken toward making the next Congress Democratic.

With all these admonitions, the professed Republican leaders close their ears to wisdom. Instead of meeting the issues frankly, and appealing to the intelligence of the people, we are met with the startling proposition that Georgia must not hold an election, because the Republicans cannot carry the State! This reckless suggestion to nullify the laws and defy the people is made this morning by a Republican contemporary. If not hold an election in Georgia, why hold one in any other State? It is conceded that the Republicans cannot gain Congressmen, while it is most likely that they must lose some in most of the States. Why not, therefore, decide that all the Legislatures, and all the Congressmen, and all the Governors shall hold over until matters can be arranged for Republican victories? The only reason for not holding an election is that the Republicans will be defeated, and the same rule will apply with equal if not increased potency in all other States, if mad leaders insist upon defying popular opinion and insulting the intelligence and patriotism of a people peculiarly jealous of popular rights.

North Carolina was lost, as were most of the other States, crucified this year by selfish and blind leadership. Gov. Holden allowed the honor and credit of his State to be destroyed by irresponsible adventurers with the hope of securing a seat in the Senate, and, to make assurance doubly sure, he undertook to force political results by armed Jayhawkers, who defied the laws, ignored justice, and disregarded the courts. The result was a change of 25,000 to 30,000 against the Republicans and the surrender of the State to Democracy for years to come.

In Pennsylvania the same mad policy is aimed at. The Republican party can succeed only by deserving the approval and confidence of the intelligent and patriotic people of the State. Its abuses, corruptions and subordination to shameless pretenders like Cameron, are justly appreciated by all sections, and unless the Republican organization, as an organization, shall show an earnest, determined purpose to reform itself, and restore the State, to faithful government we shall lose half a dozen or more Congressmen, and possibly the Legislature. Senators like Wilson and Cameron, who bowed to the Washington lobby and continued the inquisitorial income tax to save corporations from tax on gross receipts, may levy heavy tribute upon starving clerks to defray election expenses, but all the power of money or patronage will fail to give the Republicans victory if the party does not earn it by deserving it.

THE APPROACHING END OF THE CARPET-BAGGER.—The New York Journal of Commerce, referring to the North Carolina election, says:

That man must be a thorough going partizan who is not glad to throw a shovelfull of earth upon the political coffin of the carpet-bagger. He has been the curse of the South during his brief locust-like existence there. He took nothing there but his carpet bag, with its paper contents, his hate of the South and his unscrupulous ambition. He had no interest in Southern industry or Southern development. He was a messenger of war, not of peace; for it was out of the disturbances which he spared no efforts to foment, and for which he always had at hand the remedy of powder and cold steel, that he expected to profit. His vote at the last session of Congress was generally to be found on the bad sides of all political and financial questions. For jobs he has the fondness of a mouse for cheese, and was usually detected burrowing away in the centre of every such contract or franchise. Such is the species of carpet-bagger—the worst of all the genus politician. We congratulate the South and the country that the fiat of a plunderer and indignant people is about to stamp the political life out of the whole odious race.

Democratic Prospects for the next Congress.

The following table exhibits the present Democratic strength in the House of Representatives, and what and where they expect to gain in the fall elections:

	Present number	Expected gain
Maine	0	1
Massachusetts	0	1
Connecticut	1	1
New York	12	10
Pennsylvania	6	4
New Jersey	4	1
Delaware	1	0
Maryland	5	1
Virginia	1	1
North Carolina	2	2
South Carolina	0	2
Georgia	1	1
Alabama	2	2
Mississippi	0	1
Louisiana	0	1
Texas	4	2
Tennessee	0	0
Kentucky	9	0
Arkansas	1	1
Ohio	5	1
Indiana	3	2
Illinois	4	1
Missouri	2	2
Wisconsin	1	1
Minnesota	1	0
West Virginia	0	1
California	2	1
Oregon	1	0
Totals	66	65

Present number of Democratic members, 66; expected gain, 65; total 131: necessary for a majority, 122. In North Carolina the Democrats have elected five and the Radicals two members of Congress in that State, a gain of three to the Conservatives.

——"The Carpet bag Governments are Breaking Up," so says the New York Sun, a Radical newspaper. In commenting on this text the same paper remarks

The fruits of the carpet bag reign of the last five years are what might have been expected. The world may be searched in vain for governments so immoral, so shamelessly corrupt, so hopelessly rotten, as those now prevailing in the South. Politically they may be changed, but this cannot cure one of the sorest of the evils already inflicted. These scamps have run the States they rule ruinously in debt. The Legislatures controlled by them have pledged the States to the discharge of pecuniary obligations of crushing weight, to the future redemption of an enormous amount of bonds, and to the imposition of onerous taxes through a series of years. This has been done in furtherance of all sorts of schemes whereby the authors reap present wealth and anticipate larger gains in the future. These burdens have already seriously embarrassed all of these States and well nigh bankrupted some of them, and to save them from ruin, the reign of the carpet bag robbers must be speedily brought to an end."

ADDRESS TO THE
NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,
WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE
PROMPT TREATMENT,
TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Do your liver, urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or cloudy, or is it ropy or settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rush of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the luster of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health make the man. Did you ever think that those bold defiant, energetic persevering successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never heard such men complain of being melancholy of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business, they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about the state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to—and the cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected and have doctored for all but the right one.
