

The Democratic Watchman.

BY P. GRAY MEEK.

JOSEPH W. FURRY, A. G. EDITOR.

Terms, $2 per Annum, in Advance.

BELLEFONTNE, PA.

Friday Morning, November 3, 1870.

The "Crafty Ulysses."

Ever since the induction of General Grant to the Presidential Chair, he has added more or less with politics and other insouciance in the three States from time to time.

It must be a source of unmitigated pleasure to Grant, to think that his labor in this direction is finally appreciated by the people.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in Tennessee, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of Tennessee.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in Missouri, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of Missouri.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in New York, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of New York.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in West Virginia, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of West Virginia.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in Ohio, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of Ohio.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in Pennsylvania, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of Pennsylvania.

Grant has been very successful in removing all the Radical elements from office in Maryland, and in supporting Stoker for Governor, and yet Stoker is not Governor of Maryland.

The Presidential Motive.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

GRANT'S object in sending soldiers to New York is evidently to throw obstacles in the way of a free expression of public sentiment in favor of Gov. HORTON.

the transaction, before we write him down on the list of traitors who have betrayed their country.

The fall of Metz releases the Prussian troops there, and allows them to join the legions in front of Paris, or to operate in other sections of the country.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

The Democracy of Missouri sets having nominated Hon. JAMES QUINCY ADAMS as their candidate for Governor, that gentleman, in accepting the nomination, wrote a fine and very able letter, from which we extract the following, showing the outlines of the differences between the principles of Democracy and Radicalism.

Newspaporial.

Mr. W. R. JONES of the Oil City Register, announces his intention to change his weekly into a daily paper, in about a fortnight.

The Sunday World, James F. CAMPBELL'S new paper in Pittsburg, which started out Democratic and then, just a few days before the election, deserted to the Radicals, is dead. We are glad of it.

A. P. WHITAKER, Esq., of the Chicago Sporty, has retired from that paper, and is succeeded by his son, Mr. J. H. WHITAKER, who is said to be a young man of marked ability.

We have received the annual number of a very handsome paper just started in Charleston, West Virginia, entitled the Herald. It is Radical in politics, and has started out under very auspicious circumstances.

All intelligence, public and private, confirms the news of the triumph of Democracy in West Virginia. The Democracy of West Virginia has just won a victory over the Radicals.

Writing, Oct. 29th, 1870. Dear Sir, The election in West Virginia has resulted in the triumph of the entire Democracy.

Yours truly, SAM.

Although the Democracy achieved a splendid victory in this county and district, they could nevertheless have done still better had they been better organized.

We are glad to state that the request of the late Emperor Napoleon, King William has ordered all the French marshals of France and all the commanders of French army corps to report themselves at Versailles.

It is again reported that the Pope is to leave Rome. Well, then, it is to leave, why in the dickens don't he leave? We have heard this assertion that we have begun to dream about strong parties in the future.

GARY O'LEARY, the humorist and journalist, died in Brooklyn on the 23d instant, of consumption. His real name was JOHN STANTON.

We notice that a small army of Chaucer are on their way to March Chunk, this State, to work on the rail roads in that section.

Gov. SHAFER, of Utah, having shuffled off his mortal coil and gone, we trust, to an angel in the skies, the President has appointed HENRY H. VAUGHN, of Alabama, to succeed him.

The leading Radicals of New York now zigzagged that the State will go Democratic by from fifty to seventy five thousand majority.

The new Minister to England has not yet been appointed, but it is supposed that some Western man has been fixed on.

Letter from West Virginia.

MISSRS. EDITORS: The election in West Virginia which has just resulted so gloriously for the Democracy, possesses more significance than any, at first thought, he supposed.

The first Republican Legislature that assembled in the new State passed one of the most important Resolutions ever proposed by any majority.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

The Census--Western District of Pennsylvania.

The following are the official figures for all the counties in the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Table with columns for County, Population, and other statistics. Includes counties like Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Berks, etc.

Increase 48,918. *Rural township not yet in. *New county formed out of Potter, McKean and Clinton.

How many are there on ye' down there? shouted an Irish overseer to some men in a coal pit. "Five," was the answer.

Address of the National Executive Committee.

ROOMS OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE RESIDENT COMMITTEE, Washington, October 21st, 1870.

The National Democratic Congressional Resolutions Committee tender their congratulations to the Democratic and Conservative voters of the three great States of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio.

In Pennsylvania a gain of five members of Congress has been secured. The Radical majority of last year has been largely reduced in each branch of the Legislature, and there is a fresh majority in the State on the popular vote against the administration.

In Ohio the Radical majority of last year has been reduced in each branch of the Legislature, and there is a fresh majority in the State on the popular vote against the administration.

In Ohio the Radical majority of last year has been reduced in each branch of the Legislature, and there is a fresh majority in the State on the popular vote against the administration.

Yours truly, SAMUEL J. RAYBURN, Chairman. N. L. JEFFERSON, Secretary.

Origin of the Phrase "I Acknowledge the Corn."

This popular phrase, it is said, was first used in Congress, by a young member of the name of Charles A. Wickliffe.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

It is a source of regret to me that the office of registration shall be appointed by the Governor, that no person who has given a vote for the rebel shall be eligible.

I don't like to patronize this line, said a gulper to the hazzman. "O! never mind this once," was the hazzman's reply.