Friday Morning, Nevember 25, 1870. THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUTY

---- For first-class Christmas presents go to John I. Rankin's.

A social dance took place in Meek's Hall yesterday evening.

-Dr. Lord is the most interesting and faccinating lecturer in the field.

Monday next. We anticipate a busy week.

---- The stores and places of business generally, were closed yesterday forenoon.

-John Lord lectures on "Michael Angelo" or "the revival of Art," on Tuesday evening, 29th.

but the fellows are too lazy to exercise Go in on your muscle, boys.

---- A protracted meeting is now in progress at Pleasant Gap Ten mourners have thus far reported themselves

----Remember that Dr John Lord lectures at Reynolds's Hall, on Tuesdday evening, Nov 29th

-Since the election, we are told that Mish Graham has been compelled authorities deserve credit for making it to charge Johnson, Rankin and Brown, twenty cents a shave, on account of the to say so, or pretend so, is the poor dog longness of their faces

-It is reported that the railroad company are talking about taking their litt'e engine house on the Bellefonte and Milesburg road, off and puting in its place a pair of army mules.

-Persons desirous of learning to ride on the railroad should come in and practice on the train on the Bellefonte and Milesburg road. Their "quickness" won't create any trouble in the 'inards' of the most serene

----What a witty chap the editor of the Republican is For example, see his last issue. We'd advise the appliention of a wet sponge to the seat of his i breeches, in order to keep his brains arrangement does from evaporating.

-We find the following going the rounds of the press :

rounds of the press: Duep or BROKEN HEART.—A man, named Frank Wilson, aged 40, a well-to-do merchant of Reliefonte. Centre county, this State, has been for a long time paying his addresses to a young lady by the name of Miss Marr, aged 20, who redice at Lewishnrg, on the line of the i estisturg and Beliefonte railroad. They were the divertige at Lewishnrg, on the line of the i estisturg and Beliefonte railroad. They were the number of the second state of the second state of the message. The day before they were to be married, Miss Marr telegraphed to her afflanced that he need not leave his home, as the engagement was broken. On the receipt of the message, he started for Lewisburg, add when he arrived as the home of the cruei-tion of her words. She, however, was firm, and refused to have any communication with him Mr Wilson must have been devotedly attach ed to her as the draking off of the engage-ment resulted in his death in three weeks more resulted in his death in three weeks ment resulted in his death in three week ifterwards. He did nøt lenve Lewisburg alive We dislike to spoil such a nice little bit of romance, but truth and regard for the feelings of the family of Mr. Wilson, compel us to do so. The" facts of the case are, Mr. Wilson had been suffering for some time from consumption, and left here for Philadelphia, a few weeks before his death, thinking that the trip might possibly be beneficial, and also for the purpose of consulting a city physician. From Philadelphia he proceeded to Lewisburg to see his sister, Mrs. Linn, and while there grew rapidly worse and died. His remains were brought to this place and interred, prior to which, however, a post mortem examination, by our best medical men, revealed the fact that he died of tuber cular consumption

What the relations of Mr. Wilson tovards Mass Mari were, we do not know. There may at one time have been an attachment between them, but it is very certain that our friend did not die of a have cared for h¢r, he was a man of too much good sense to grieve himself to death because of the heartless jilting of a silly girl,if, indeed,this whole story is anything but an invention of some fertile brain. It was consumption that killed Frank Wilson, and his last days were filled with more serious thoughts than those which appertain to love ers, and the citizens of the entire county, who come to Bellefonte to take the railroad at this place, to know that the late arrangement, by which they are compelled to change cars at Milesburg is a convenience, and that the railroad so. The only one who is flunky enough who edits the Republican, and who for a "pass" over the road would be willing to compel our people to walk half-way and pay full fare, and then say it was an efficient management that required this.

If Bellefonte and the vicinity, which furnishes more freight and passengers for the Bald Eagle Valley road than any four stations it has, is not entitled to some consideration in the making of time tables and railroad connections then we suppose the Republican editor is right, and the company deserve credit for compelling our people to change cars. at Milesburg and for putting them to all the other inconveniences this last

One of the horses was slightly cut by the splinters, but no broken heart. However much he might other injury resulted. A new tongue was made and put in during the afternoon, after which the driver moved off in good style

> ---- A grand Christmas ball will be given in Bush's Hall, in this place, on Eriday ovening, December 23d, under the superintendence and direction of the popular proprietor of the Big Spring restaurant, Mr. George Ronian, Tickets, admitting gentleman and lady, will be one dollar, and an elegant and sungtuous supper will be provided - Editor and borough officers admitted free, with invitation extended to the Tyrone and Lock Haven scriblers A grand time is expecteda

-Those of our friends who are in need of anything in the dry-goods or grocery line, will fied all their hearts can desire at the store of Foster & Devilng, on Main street. These gentlemen always keep up a choice stock of all kinds of goods, and hence are never at a loss to supply customers . As next' week will be court week, our country friends will have a fine opportunity to visit this store, where, we can assure them, they will meet with the most cordial and polite reception and be delighted with the infinite and endless variety of the goods When you come to town, ladies and gentlemen, by all means call at Foster & Devlings If you do not, you will go away without having seen one of the very best establishments in the borough ----- The store of the Hoffer Brothers is just now the resort of those who desire to purchase handsome goods at low prices It contains one of the largest and best assortments ever brought to town, besides as tempting as lot of grotend that this new change is any thing cries as can be found this side of Philadelphia Amongst its other attractions is our good-looking friend. [For the WATCHMAN]

MR. EDITOR :- We had the good fortune to be present at a present tion which took place at the house of Mr. P. Nolan, Snow Shoe. on Monday, Nov. 14, where that whole souled and gener ous gentleman, Mr. J.S. Sommerville, was made the recipiont of a magnificent gold headed cane, bearing the inscrip-tion : "Presented to J. S. Summerville, by his friends of Snow Shoe, 1870 The presentation was made by the Rev Father _____, who made a very neat and appropriate speech, which was responded to by Mr. Sommerville, in an address, which, if not particularly re-markable for eloquence, in the accepted ense, was nevertheless forcible, full of feeling and to the point , and, consider ing that is was extemporaneous, reflected great credit on the author. After mutual congratulations suppor way announced, and we all repaired to the dining room, when-well, to say that gotten up under the supervision of Mrs. Nolan and her accomplished daughter, will be to at once admit that it was of the most sumptions character and all that the most epicurean taste could Here, we found "Ed." desire. Here, we found "Eq. (1990) know "Ed,") doing the honors of the table, and we must admit that he appeared an fait, as the French would After supper, those who wished (and who did not) to "trip the light fantastic toe," repaired to the ball room, where, under the soothing influence of the music furnished by Mr. D. H. Yeager and two other gentlemen, whose ismes we did not learn, and among he giddy mazes of the waltz and coulthey sound to forget the lon. and anxietigs of everyday life and live only for the present, until the 'we sma' hours " when we found it necessary to withdraw, feeling on the best of terms with everybody, ever wanting to shake hands with the lamp posts. Thus ending one of the most enposts tertaining and pleasant cancing occasions at which it has ever been our lot to be W D present

Magazines.

THE OLD GUARD -The only Demo retic Magazine in the country, seems to grow better every number. Its editor, Dr. Thomas Dunn. English, one of the ablest writers in the country, seems to understand just what the reading pubhe need and desire, and furnishes it in a manaer both beneficial and entertaining. There is no family in the land who should be without the Old Guard, Besides being thoroughly Democratic, it is one of the most interesting, valuable and neatest monthlies in the country, One copy one year $3,00, two copies $5,50, five copies and one to getter up of club $14,00 A splendid lot of premiums for 1870 are offered Address, English & Co., 162 Nassau Street, New York

THE LADIES FRIEND-for December We have heard enthusiastic readers declare that this holiday number was the best that has over been issued, and when we look at the varied and superb embellishments and the captivating stories, we are inclined to think it so. The steelplate "Olive Plants," is a pretty domes he scene; the beautiful frontispiece, 'Sorrow Under the Sun," is a romance in itself-such a world of expression is in the face of the girl leaning from the window-sill; the colored "Pattern for Slipper'' furnishes a design for a holiday prsent; and the colored Fashion Plate, as usual, is unsurpassed Nothing of the kind can compare with this in all a fashion plate should be We like the wood-cut-"An Idyl on the Ice," and the patterns for dresses, winter wraps, &c , are uncommonly elegant. The music is "Alone and from Home " The literary matter, in prose and poetry, and Sheridan. We denounce this new seturet association as out of sympathy with the true republican party and as immical to the Constitution and the Union.' This is the organization that controls the republican party, and its conventions and nominations. Grant favore ....Patriot.

The "oldest" offers up a pathetic appeal to President Grant to remember Western Pennsylvania when wants a Cabinet officer of great moral worth and intelligence. The names of Veech, Allison, Howe and Tom Marshall are selected from among the great and good-whose names are tow ers of strength, and around whom the Republican party rallies. We don't propose to dash the hopes of these wor thy gentlemen, but our information h positive on this head. There will be no Western Pennsylvanian selected for any position. Cabinet. Foreign Mission, or new Counsulships, Simon Cameron agrees with Grant that the Republicans Western Pennsylvania, particularly of Allegheny county, are like the niggers' fit for voting, but must not crowid respectable white folks about Washington in demanding any recognition Grant thinks it borders upon the imper tinent for a section of the country which boasts of its loyal proclivities and im mense Republican strength to elect three Democratic members of Congress, who were charged with being Free Traders by the Gazette during the cam paign. Better don sackcloth and ashes, than aspire to purple and fine linen, ye men of high moral worth and intelligence of this neck of the woods. The banner county must be eatisfied with the great Negley to represent it. for whom neither Howe, nor Yeech, nor Marshall raised their voices during the last campaign. - Post.

-An Illinois woman committed suicide by hanging herself to an apple tree. At the funeral a neighbor, no tiong the sail appearance of the loss band, consoled him by saying he had net with a terrible loss "Yes," said the husband heaving a eigh. must have kicked like thunder to shake off a bushel of green apples that would have been worth a dollar when they got ripe."

-"I feel, ' monned a dying cob bler, "that I wax weaker every day, and that I am gradually approaching my end, only a few more stitches, and awl will be over. In beaven there is rest for the sole , earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heel." Having said awf he wished, he calinly breathed his last.

-Two widowers were once con doling together on the recent bereavement of their wives, one of them exclaimed with a sigh : "Well, may I bewail my loss, for I had so few differences with the dear deceased that the last day of my marriage was as happy as the first.' There I surpass you said his friend, 'for the last day of mine was happer !'
