a heavy tin dipper to the head of a white boy and brother named Wilson who encountered him in the vicinity of the pump. Unluckily for Wilson the vengeful Smith over estimated the power of resistance of the Caucasion pate, and fancied that all heads were like the one which he had oftentimes butted against cheeses and stone walls for the trifling recompense of a penny. Hence it came to pass that a blow which would doubtless have rebounded harmless from his own wolly cranium did Wilson dire mischief and laid him last in the hospital.

The Faculty — precious toadies though they are—could not quite overlook this misapplication of the Academic dipper and Smith was Court Martialed. Double O Howard, presided over the tribunal which tried him, and this immuble body, after hearing the case, sentenced him to promenade one or two hours a week for one or two weeks, on the parade ground under the escort of a guard. This preposterous sentence having been submitted to the Secretary of War, that functionary pronounced the punishment wholly inadequate to the offence and, therefore, remitted it altogether. The Court Martial not having given Smith enough, the War Department rebuked its neglect of duty, by giving him nothing. And so he struts at his post once more, raiment and victorious.

Moral. White Cadets who feel thirsty had better in future postpone refreshment until Smith has had his run at the pump or else steal the dipper. Patton Inquirer.

Retaliation.

A week or two ago the Editor of the Republican, referring to the contest between Cessna and Meyers, said:

Now in the progress of this contest we are not inclined to expect much from Mr. Meyers that is either courteous or decent. If we were, we would take it wholly upon faith and not upon works.

Whereupon, the Bedford Gazette pays us compliments as follows:

The howl of the dogs whose subsistence is obtained from the offal in the Internal Revenue butcher shop, occasioned by the defeat of John Cessna and the prospect of an early consolidation of the collection districts, is fierce as that of

Wolves on Orca's stormy steep

From the fawning Somerset spaniel to the mangy cur whose kennel is in the Assessor's office at Chambersburg, the successful cry is echoed and re-echoed. Cease, ye hounds! There will be no "consolidation" yet awhile and Devon may still gorge yourselves on the garbage of the Internal Revenue Department.

It is needless to explain that the Editor of the Repository is one of the Assessors of Internal Revenue for Franklin County. —Ex Negro Outrages in South Carolina.

A Washington correspondent says that a letter received from Union county, South Carolina, says the people there are well nigh on the verge of another civil war. It states that the white people of that section are beginning seriously to think of organizing themselves into a solid body of militia to protect themselves and families from the outrages committed and dangers threatened by the prowling, armed negro State militia. The acts of those ignorant and misguided men for the past week have been outrageous in the extreme, and they must be stopped, or bloody work will be the result.

Every night a band of them are to be seen prowling about the suburbs of our towns, along the fences and in the woods, with loaded guns, given to them by the State authorities, and from dark until daylight in the morning the quiet of our citizens is disturbed, and the women and children are kept under excitement by the sounds of firing from these guns. Scarcely an hour in the night passes that we do not hear the report of one, and sometimes five or six in rapid succession. Emboldened by the fact that the white people quietly submit to this, they have commenced overt acts of violence, disregarding age, sex, or condition.

DR. SCHOEPPE AGAIN.—A petition signed by the jail physician, Sheriff Thompson, and other citizens of Carlisle, has been addressed to the Governor, setting forth that Dr. Schoeppe's long confinement of over twenty months has greatly affected his health; that he has had several copious hemorrages from his lungs; and that as much as grave doubts of his guilt have been expressed by many disinterested medical societies as to the conclusiveness of the evidence in establishing his guilt, they therefore invoke the Executive clemency in behalf of the prisoner, and pray that the Governor "will grant to the said Schoeppe a pardon upon the conditions which he may see proper to attach to the same.
