The Harrisburg Patriot is advertising its brevier type for sale.

The latest rumor from Paris is that Geo. Trochu has cut his way out with 40,000 men.

Radical quacks from the senatorial DRAKE will be heard no more. It has resigned.

After Admiral PORTER'S dirt-eating letter, GRANT has again received him to favor.

Even Boston, the "hub of the Universe" has elected a wretched copper-head mayor. Et tu Brute!

It snowed and snowed and snowed and blowed and blowed and blowed, like everything, yesterday forenoon.

JOHN H. SHERRATT is the latest lecturer in the field. He tells about how he didn't help to kill the "late lamented."

Senator McCREERY has introduced a resolution for the restoration of the Arlington estate to the widow of General Lee.

The Globe styles GRANT'S message "able." It alludes, of course, to its well, we can't imagine what portion of it it did allude to.

The sensation story that FISK and VANDERBILT had purchased enough of the stock of the Pennsylvania railroad to control it, is, probably, incorrect.

Our bloody-minded cotemporary of the Republican is very bitter upon JOHN H. SHERRATT. Barking dogs never bite, he was proven by that editor's course in the army.

The "Black Croak" has been revived in New York. But then most of the audience go to see the "crooks" that are not so black. Especially the old, bald-headed fellows.

"Is mud a luxury?" asks one of our exchanges. That depends altogether on who is supposed to enjoy it. A washed sow, you know, returns gladly to her wallowing in the mire.

ALEXANDER GRANT, of Columbus, Ohio, has been arrested for stealing paint. Why don't they arrest ULYSSES H. GRANT, of Washington, now? He is a bigger thief than ALEXANDER.

It is pointed at the President with Senator CASSELY at the further end of it. The Senator wants GRANT to inform the Senate where the army has been used for election purposes.

Now what has got the matter with Lowell to go and elect a Democratic mayor, and at the home of BEN BERTAK, too? Why wasn't the millingitary at their posts? Goodness gracious! how this country is going to destruction.

Old King BILLY, of Prussia, has not been proof against the seductive arts of those who asked him to accept the title of Emperor of Germany. So the fall of NAPOLEON is only a step for the Germans out of the frying pan into the fire.

"Little PHIL" is coming home in January or February. He needn't hurry. Nobody is anxious about the little fellow, unless it be the widows and children of the men whose property he ravaged and destroyed in the Shenandoah valley.

There must be a loyal set of fellows in the Post Office Department at Washington. It is stated that the next annual report of the Post Master General will show an excess of expenditures over receipts of nearly three millions of dollars!

The Republican editor is boasting about the amount of pork and sausage he has received, and says that he is now living on that kind of grub. This isn't exactly "dog eat dog," but if the "d" be changed to "h" it will be near about the same thing.

BRAINERD is to have a blind turkey for his Christmas dinner, and GRAYSON a "blind robin." And doubtless both of these worthies will be so blind d---k, about dinner time, that neither of them will be able to tell which is turkey or which is robin.

HODGKS, the rascally Radical Governor of North Carolina, is to be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, by the Legislature. We have no doubt he ought to be hung, but is more likely to get a fat position under GRANT. The President has a weakness for such fellows.

A man in Cairo, Illinois, thought he had nerve enough to walk a rope stretched from the top of a barn to the chimney of a house, and tried it with a hoe handle for a balance pole. In two days afterward his family had to provide a big dinner for the relations who had come to the funeral.

The Hollidaysburg Standard is called by its editor the "Gay and Incomparable." A right nice sheet but can't hold a candle to the WATCHMAN.

The Marshall County (Iowa) Times contains the following warning: "Don't go back on your newspaper. A subscriber to the Times recently stopped his paper, and the next week was kicked by a horse so severely that his life is despaired of."

The Ashland Advocate, we understand, has made its appearance in a new suit. Why don't you send it up this way "J. Irvin," so that we can see what you look like.

Notwithstanding the lying assertions of the Radical press to the contrary, BRICK POWERS still publishes the daily and weekly Democrat at La Crosse and Powers's Democrat in New York. Like Banquo's ghost, Brick will not "blow" at the bidding of his Radical enemies.

We see it stated that FORNEY wants to sell the Washington Chronicle. He finds that the printing of "my two papers, both daily" is rather an expensive operation, even for a man with his fingers in the public treasury.

The Jeffersonian Democrat is the name of a new paper just started in Louisville, Kentucky, whose creed is "State independence, free trade and hard money." This has the ring of the true metal, and if it be all that its name and motto imply, we predict for it a most successful career. Send it up this way gentlemen.

A new paper has just been started in Cincinnati, called The Morning Leader.

Another paper, called the Frankford Weekly Tribune, has found its way to our sanctum, asking an exchange. The Times is printed in Frankford, one of the Northern environs of Philadelphia, by McCord & Wisk, and is a well printed, clean looking sheet, devoted to local matters and general literature.

One disgrace has been saved the much abused State of South Carolina, and that is the disgrace of being represented on the floor of the United States Senate by the Pennsylvania carpet-bagger, JOHN J. PATTERSON. JOHN had all his plans very nicely laid, but somehow they miscarried, and another fellow goes to the Senate. This is better for South Carolina, but is bad for JOHN, who thought he would certainly be elected.
