EXTRA GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

My friends, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, and to express my sincere appreciation for the confidence which you have reposed in me. I have also the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, and to express my sincere appreciation for the confidence which you have reposed in me. I have also the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, and to express my sincere appreciation for the confidence which you have reposed in me.

It affords me pleasure to congratulate the people upon the satisfactory condition of the Commonwealth. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, and to express my sincere appreciation for the confidence which you have reposed in me.

FINANCES.

It affords me pleasure to congratulate the people upon the satisfactory condition of the Commonwealth. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, and to express my sincere appreciation for the confidence which you have reposed in me.

DEBTS.

The following statement shows the nature of the indebtedness of the Commonwealth, November 30, 1870:

REDUCTION OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

On the fifteenth day of January, 1867, the total indebtedness of the state was forty-seven millions and six hundred and thirty thousand four hundred and nine dollars and seventy cents.

The average reduction per annum, for the four years ending on the first of July, 1872, nearly eight million dollars.

for their peace, safety and happiness. The advancement of these ends, they have at all times endeavored to promote, and they will continue to do so.

The last convention for this purpose was held in 1858. During the thirty-two years which have since elapsed, the resolutions of the general assembly, and in compliance with the provisions of the constitution, were approved and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters of the State.

This is a progressive period, and our country has outgrown its fundamental law. The existing constitution, including the amendments thereto, is no longer adapted to the needs of the Commonwealth.

It is impossible for the citizens, by the exercise of their individual efforts, to acquire or retain an accurate knowledge of the varying system of laws which govern the Commonwealth.

Under the laws of the State it is made the duty of the county commissioners to present to the general assembly a list of the names of the persons who are entitled to the right of suffrage.

within which he was permitted to apply for his writ of error. This limitation of time has been found to be a serious and unjust restriction upon the rights of the citizen.

Under an act entitled "An act to provide means for the establishment of a normal school in each county of the Commonwealth," the act of the general assembly, passed on the 15th day of March, 1868, the sum of $21,500 was advanced to the state treasury as a loan to five of the counties.

It is not improper before closing to say a few words in reference to the act of 1870, to draw attention to some of its defects, and to the radical change in our criminal jurisprudence it will produce.

The important duty devolves upon you to ascertain, in accordance with the last convention, the representation for the year 1871, and to present the same to the general assembly.
