Horrible Cruelty to a Horse.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

One Jacobs, a teamster living near Baltimore and Ohio railroad depot, the Baltimore and Offic railroad depot, has been arrested, at the instance of Mr. TF Gatchel, president of the association for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and fired S5, for pulling out he tengue of a horse. This unheard-officered was perpetrated by Jacobs in Bergetown while in a rage with the lorse which he was driving. The fined the left of the horse's tomath out by berse which no was driving. The head clearly tore the horse's tongus out by the roots, and it was picked up on the treet. Mr. Gatchel found the animal live in Jacobs' stable, and after conditing with eminent veterinary surpose it was dissilled that the proper street. ng, it was decided that the poor creato must be killed Ten dollars fine is eutmost punishment that can be inicted under the law as it stands at presit for maining a dumb brute. latchel has the tongue, and will have it aced among the archieves of the ener-stic President The affair is one of the nost shocking and brutal ever known the annals of crime in Washington, and richly deserves a term in the peni-
