BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, April 7, 1871.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

Kurtz & Straub buy calf skins and pay cash.

Sunday will be Easter, and, of course, the eggs will suffer.

Read the new advertisement of Dr Belford, in another column.

John Rhule, of Miles township, will leave this country for Indiana next week, with his family.

Crist & Rumberger have received, or are about receiving, a fine lot of new goods in Unionville.

The Centre County Bank is to be removed into the room just vacated by Linn & Wilson's drug store.

Mr. Bollinger and family left this place on Tuesday last for Altoona, which is hereafter to be their home.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Tom Jarvis for an editorial cushion, which sits easy and feels comfortable.

Any of our subscribers who have changed their residences should communicate the fact to us, so that they may not fail to receive their papers.

Mrs. Dare has taken one half of the room now occupied by Mr. John I. Rankin's book store, and will open a millinery establishment therein.

Linn & Wilson have removed their drug store to the new and elegant room in Irwin & Wilson's fine brick building, next door to the hardware store.

For tip-top furniture, go to the extensive store of A. Schroyer & Son in the Bush House block. They have an elegant assortment of the very best, and are master mechanics.

That enterprising man, Sternberg, has laid a board walk in front of his residence on the hill. Such a walk all the way up to the Methodist church would be a great improvement.

James Fortney, of Ferguson township, slaughtered a beef last week which weighed 1,728 pounds and dressed 1,104 pounds. Can any body beat that? If so let us hear from him.

Mr. Henry Stone, proprietor of the Arcade Restaurant, under Sussman's store, keeps the best of oysters, and other good things. He is trying to retrieve his fortune, and keeps an orderly and decent saloon.

Mr. J. G. Larimer, of Pleasant Gap, has been seriously ill for the last two weeks with typhoid fever. We are pleased to learn, however, that he is now convalescent, and expects to be about again before long.

Miss Carrie Sayres succeeds Miss Davis as teacher of public school No. 4, in this place. Miss Sayres is said to be a young lady of considerable intellectual culture, and will no doubt do honor to her responsible position.

Howard, the ebony colored man-of-all-work, at the Bush House, accidentally stood over the WATCHMAN heater, the other day. From the way he jumped, we judge he must have imagined he was on the confines of pandemonium. "I golly, but dis chile was skeered."

Charles Kurtz, Esq., an aged citizen of Haines township, expired very suddenly on the 28th ultimo. He was engaged in earnest conversation with Rev. Mr. Salm, at the time, and laid his head on his knee, in which position his spirit quietly and suddenly took its flight. He was aged almost 69 years.

A little son of George and Sarah Bowes, of Liberty township, was scalded so severely on the 21st ultimo, that death resulted. The little fellow accidentally overturned a tea-kettle full of boiling water upon himself, while his mother was engaged in preparing supper. He was about three years of age.

Mr. P. McCaffrey's boot and shoe store will hereafter be found in the room lately occupied by Mrs. Pattie Bare, as a millinery and fancy store, in the Brokerhoff House building. Mr. McCaffrey has an elegant lot of boots and shoes on hand now, which he sells at the most reasonable prices. He is a fair dealer, and gives his customers the worth of their money.

A widow woman about 60 years of age, named Sarah Martin, was drowned in Marsh Creek, in Liberty township, on Thursday evening of last week, the 30th ult. She was missed from the house and immediate search was made for her, when she was found dead in the creek. It was not known whether she fell in accidentally or wandered in in a partly insane state of mind.

A smash up occurred on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, at Beech Creek, on Saturday last, caused by the breaking of a rail. Four or five cars of the through freight west were thrown from the track, one of them tumbling down a bank or hill some fifty feet. No person was injured, but the damage to the railroad company amounted to about three thousand dollars. The accident delayed the business of the road for only a short time.

J. H. HEVERLY ESQ., OR "CRIST" HEVERLY. - Cal Wagner's minstrel company, which exhibited here on Tuesday evening last, is one of the best troupes we have ever seen, and gave the best performance of the kind ever given in this place. The vocal and instrumental music were really excellent and the jokes and other performances of the most laughable and side-splitting kind. This company is under the management of, and for the most part owned by, our old-time friend and boyhood companion, Mr "Crist" Heverly, or, as his name appears on the bills, J. H. Heverly. "Crist" left Bellefonte some sixteen or seventeen years ago, a poor boy, with only money enough to pay his passage to a distant part of the country, when he was thrown completely and entirely on his own resources. Being a smart, active, intelligent and energetic youth, however, he knew that the world owed him a living, and he determined to have one and a good one, at that. Consequently, he did not sit down and grove over the forlornness of his lot, but, with a cheerful heart and a frank, manly, honest purpose, he grappled with the world, and, though for a long time the struggle was a severe one, and he met with many of the vicissitudes of fortune, saw the ups and downs of life, and knew what it was to be poor and friendless and sick and lonely, he finally rose superior to circumstances, conquered success by his indomitable will and tireless energy, and is at length able to revisit the scenes and friends of his boyhood, a man of property, worth his thousands of dollars, and the proprietor of one of the best traveling shows in the whole country.

It is needless to say that Mr. Heverly's friends and former companions crowded around him with sincere congratulations. In the afternoon he took an arriage and with his brother, Steele Heverly, Esq., visited his relatives in the neighborhood of Mann's axe factory and Pleasant Gap, who were delighted to meet him once more. There, in the interchange of delightful social feeling, he spent all the time he had to spare, and returned to town in the evening. At night the show was attended by the largest audience ever drawn out to a performance of the kind in Bellefonte. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Heverly handed round the "complimentaries" in profusion, his receipts, over and above expenses, were some 75 dollars.

"Crist" Heverly, as a boy, and "Crist" Heverly as a man, are two distinct personages, and yet are very much alike. The laughter-loving, romping, thoughtless but warm hearted boy, has become the earnest, dignified, polite and cordial gentleman. But the grasp of the hand and the warmth of expression are the same, and there are many other characteristics that remind us of him in the days that used to be.

Mr. Heverly is married and looks and acts like a man in comfortable, well-to-do circumstances. During his long absence he has conducted liberally to the support of a very near and dear relative, and made quite a number of presents to his friends while here. He says that though many of his relatives are poor and live humbly, yet he thinks just as much of them as though they lived in brown stone fronts, with fortunes at their command. Such sentiments do him honor.

We have been thus particular in mentioning Mr. Heverly, because we are glad of his success and believe he has deserved it. We take some pride in him as a Bellefonte boy, and feel a very kindly regard for him as one of the intimate friends and companions of our early days. We may say he was somewhat astonished at Bellefonte's rapid growth, and viewed with admiration her stately church edifices and handsome private residences.

Mr. Heverly and company left us on Wednesday morning for Altoona, and thence onward. We trust he may again return here some day not far distant.

Al White, Billy Countryman and "Sut" Clark, of Lock Haven, surprised us by bounding into our sanctum on Monday afternoon last, subscribing and paying for the WATCHMAN, and doing several other nice things, too numerous to mention. Those gentlemen were here on a two-fold mission, partly to accompany Bob Reed thus far on his way to Wisconsin, and partly as a select committee from the "moral young men" of Lock Haven to examine into the real state of the morals of the young men of Bellefonte. We are happy to say that they made that examination thoroughly, consuming the hours from four o'clock P. M. until 12 M., with their laborious investigations. They left on Tuesday morning, satisfied that the half had not been told them.

We are told of a dog belonging to George Weaver, in Rebersburg, that seems to belong to a new breed, and is a kind of a cross between a dog and a rhinoceros. The fore part of his carcass is very thin and delicate, but increases in thickness as it nears the region of the tail. He is cross at strangers and has an idea that he is the only dog (of the kind) under the sun. We guess he is.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—The article which follows is from the Mifflingburg Telegraph, of the 30th ult., and was written, of course, before it was known that what was called the "three million bill" had passed a first reading in the House and been sent to the Senate for concurrence. The bill was reduced from three to two millions, and in that shape went to the Senate on Tuesday week of last. The following is the Telegraph's article.

OUR RAILROAD.—The $2,000,000 bill, the latest advance given us no new light upon the situation. The work between this place and Lewisburg has progressed very favorably under the direction of the gentlemanly contractor, Messrs. Vandine. The stringency of the money market is seriously felt by the subscribers in this locality and is likely to produce an unexpected delay. We hope, however, that this may be averted by prompt payments and the good work may go on. Of this we are well assured that it will be no fault of the contractors or of the Company, if the work does not speedily progress to an early completion. The grading is almost complete, much of the ballast is on the tracks and the ties are being rapidly supplied by Mr. Coplin, who has the contract.

In Centre and Huntington counties the greatest activity prevails and some anxiety as to its early extension to the western terminus is manifested. Arrangements with the Snow Shoe Company have been made for a connection with our road near Rebersburg, but on the main line from Mifflingburg westward no arrangements have yet been completed. To meet this exigency a bill has recently been introduced in the House authorizing the issue of bonds not exceeding $1,000,000 and to extend the road to Danville. This it was claimed would insure a first class thorough road and be presented by the President and Director of the road, Mr. Young. This bill was championed as the only available means for securing the through road. Mr. Young opposed this bill in the House on the ground that the amount was too small and would unjustly affect the stock subscribers whom he represented. A compromise was thought to be effected on $2,000,000, but we have not since seen any action on the question in the House.

It is but due to say that our people are divided upon the measure, some of our best business men being in favor of the bill. We should deplore its defeat if the work should be delayed thereby. We are for a through road, first, last and all the time. All other considerations of expediency should be most given way to this end, and if no better way is presented we seize upon the $2,000,000 bill as upon a life boat to save us from a wreck. Nothing could be more disastrous to the future of the road and nothing more unjust than that Mifflingburg, the early and most steadfast friend of the road should be placed in a position of antagonism to the great enterprise. Against this we interpose our unqualified protest.

The scarlet fever has not yet departed from among us. Last week we spoke of it as being in the Brokerhoff House, but those two cases (Mrs. Hall and child) are now almost well. The family of Mr. Jonathan Harper is afflicted with it, though, we believe, it has not taken a very serious form with them. There is also one case now nearly recovered, in the Bush House. We have not heard of any deaths from it since the little Banney child was buried. We trust our landlords, if they should get any more of it in their houses, will be careful to warn people, with children, of the fact. This is a duty they all owe to the public, and we doubt not they will comply with it most cheerfully.

Hoffer & Brothers have just received a very heavy stock of new goods for spring and summer. They are piled up everywhere, on the shelves, counters and floor, and all hands have been busy this week in opening and putting them away. The store is jam-full, and looks as if there were goods enough to last for ten years, but the heavy run of custom there will soon thin them out. Anybody in want of anything can find it at Hoffer's, where our friends, Dooly and Marshall, are always ready to wait on customers. The store is daily thronged with eager buyers, and the new stock is going off like hot cakes.

Just now Radicals are busy concocting stories of terrible outrages by the "rebels" and Ku-Klux, in the South. President Grant has sent a special message to Congress, asking for a law to enable him to send soldiers into States, without waiting for the Executive or Legislature to call for them. The Constitution forbids such an act, and every sensible man knows it is but an excuse to carry the elections for the Radicals by means of intimidation and military power. Even Republican Congressmen are getting frightened at Grant's audacity.

In another column read advertisement headed "What $2 will do." Here is a chance for the small sum of $2 to win a Farm, a House, a Sewing Machine, a large sum or some other valuable prize. Every ticket will draw something. Nothing risked, nothing won. Try your luck, you get at the start a Steel Engraving worth more than the $2. The parties having it in charge act under a Charter of the State of Maryland, come highly recommended, and are all men actively engaged in business. We are satisfied of fair play.

For fine, fresh fish, of all sorts, we think Messrs. Downing & Young, at their place on Bishop street, cannot be beaten. They have them in season always and in the very best condition. Lovers of fresh fish, either pickled, pike, shad or white fish, or whatever else they may desire, can supply their wants at this establishment at the most reasonable prices. They also deal in oysters, &c., and present about as nice a variety of establishments as can be found in town.

Rev. Mr. Hackenberg preached his farewell sermon in the Lutheran church here on Sunday week last. Mr. Hackenberg goes to Ashland, Schuylkill county to become pastor of a church there, and we bespeak for him an earnest welcome at the hands of that people. He is a christian gentleman, a good preacher, and a kind, social and cordial friend. His place in this community will be hard to fill.

The following resolutions of respect and respect were passed on the occasion of Rev. J. A. Hackenberg severing his connection with the Evangelical Lutheran church here:

Whereas, Rev. J. A. Hackenberg, who has faithfully served us as Pastor, four years, has tendered his resignation of the Bellefonte mission, for reasons, therein assigned, &c.

Whereas, He has received and accepted a call at Ashland, Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania. Therefore

Resolved, That with great reluctance and unfeigned sorrow, we accept his resignation, thereby severing our relations, as Pastor, and congregations which have been so long and with such marked success sustained.

Resolved, That we bear testimony to our Pastor's faithful performance of all his ministerial duties, without favor or partiality, and that by his untiring zeal and faithful labors, he has built up and greatly strengthened this church, by increasing the membership, and impressing them with a proper zeal for the cause of Christ, and his church, so that by his resignation we sustain a loss not easily repaired.

Resolved, That Rev. J. A. Hackenberg, has been instrumental in accomplishing much good both in and out of the pulpit, and as such is entitled to our most earnest and sincere prayers, that God will still continue to prosper his labors in whatever field or capacity he may be called, and at last reward him with a crown of eternal life.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be published in the county papers, and Lutheran Observer.

LEVI A. STRAUB, DANIEL KERLIN, W. A. KERLIN, J. D. WINGATE, Deacons & Elders of Bellefonte Cong'n.

JEREMIAH ECKINROTH, SIDNEY MILLER, A. J. SWARTZ, Deacons & Elders of Pleasant Gap Cong'n.

H. Y. STITZLER, Secretary.

We regret to chronicle the departure from town of our young friend, Mr. Harvey A. Bailey, lately engaged in the plumbing and gas fitting business. Mr. Bailey was fortunate enough to receive a lucrative situation as manager of the Beaverton coal mine in Clearfield county, which necessitated his immediate presence, and he at once closed up his business here, and left on Monday. We wish him much success. He has ability and good sense, and his new associates will find him a courteous and gentlemanly companion.

The following calf story shows that even among the cattle there is an honored observance of St. Patrick's Day.

Snow Shoe, March 23d, 1871. Mr. Editor:—I noticed in your last issue that Mr. Orvin, of your place, had a cow that had twin calves. Now, let me tell you that Mr. Jesse G. Lucas has also a cow that has twin calves, one of each sex, and what is most singular is, that she had a calf on St. Patrick's Day, 1870, and on St. Patrick's Day, 1871, she had the twins. Now, if Mr. Orvin, or any other man, can beat that in Centre county, I would like to hear from him.

Yours truly, D. H. YAGER.

Miss Anna Finn will open during the third week in April, at Pine Grove Mills, a fine assortment of millinery goods, consisting of hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, &c., all of the latest style. All her goods have been selected with care, and she requests the ladies of Pine Grove and vicinity to call and examine them, feeling sure they will give satisfaction both as to quality and price.

Rev. Father McIlvaine, who succeeded Father McIovern here, as pastor of the Catholic church, has been sent by the Bishop, to Centralia, Columbia county, Pa., to work among the miners of that place. He will be succeeded here by the reverend gentleman now stationed at Renovo.

Somebody sends us an account of a school exhibition at Snow Shoe, given by Mr. W. C. Henley and scholars, but as the said somebody didn't sign any name to the communication, of course we cannot publish it. We never publish anything without knowing the name of the writer.

A revival of religion is now going on among the prisoners in our county jail. We trust that the work of grace may continue until all are converted. We are informed that they are determined to do good at all hazards. Such a determination is worthy of all encouragement.

The beautiful audience room of the new Episcopal church building will be opened for preaching for the first time on Sunday next. The morning service will begin at 10 o'clock and the evening service at half-past seven.

S. A. McQuiston is putting out some very handsome carriages and wagons. "Mac" is a good mechanic, and understands his business thoroughly. He always employs the best workmen.

We hear complaints of the bad condition of the turnpike between Milheim and Brush Valley. The people who pay tolls have certainly a right to expect good roads.

We have been requested to state that Rev. J. B. Keller will preach in the Evangelical Lutheran church, in this place, on the coming Sabbath, the 9th inst.

The American Sunday School Union.

IMPORTANT RESULTS.

It has organized over fifty thousand Sunday-schools in destitute neighborhoods and "Frontier" settlements.

It has gathered into these schools two million five hundred thousand neglected children.

It can point to more than one thousand churches, the out-growth of its mission work.

Its Economy.—For every forty dollars given to the Mission work of this Society since it was founded, it can show a new Sunday-school organized by its missionaries, including the cost of publications donated.

Promotes Union.—It has harmonized and secured the hearty co-operation of Christians of different sects and creeds, in concentrated efforts to lead souls to Christ.

It has originated, published and distributed a sanctified literature, especially adapted to the moral and religious wants of the young.

Conversions.—The records of the Society show that God has bestowed signal blessings upon its labors in the conversion of multitudes of souls to Christ.

The readers of the WATCHMAN have already been informed that, under the auspices of the Centre County S. S. Association, I am now serving the American S. S. Union in Centre and the adjoining counties. I have just finished the first five days of work in the Eastern part of this county. The Sabbath schools there, are in general, in a flourishing condition. The interest at present manifest will bring a still higher degree of prosperity. The good people among those hills and valleys are "giving to hospitality." While I was there, they fed and lodged me and my pony without charge. One well-to-do farmer, who works on Sunday, I mean, he works in the Sunday school, said to me on leaving him, "Come and stay with us whenever it suits just as if you were at home." I have everywhere received a cordial welcome. I shall soon have more to communicate that may interest many who read the WATCHMAN.

R. CHITTENDEN, Missionary American S. S. Union.

You ought to see our Editor! He gets most terrifically happy when we peep through his sanctum door, and gently hollow—"copy!"

But then, I guess, to tell the truth, his head's not very level, 'cause every time one calls on him, he sends them to the young'nt chap in whole concern, viz.—the Printers Devil!

Special taxes on all businesses, except liquor and tobacco selling, will cease after the first of May.

Many of the public schools are closing with public examinations.

Isaac Haupt wants to buy old iron scraps. Read notice.

Business Notice.

Bring on the old metal and wrought iron scraps. Isaac Haupt wants to exchange for twenty tons, for which he will allow $4.00 per ton, in stores, castings, plows, shears, &c. tin ware, at his place, or at the foundry near Phoenix Mills.

Died.

BECK.—In Miles township, on Saturday, March 25, 1871, of dropsy, Mrs. Mary Beck, wife of Benjamin Beck, aged 65 years, 3 months and 24 days.

KURTZ.—On the 28th ultimo, in Haines township, Charles Kurtz, Esq., aged 68 years, 10 months, and three days.

A Sensation—Fearful Predictions by an Entranced Lady—Wrestling With the Spirits.

Louisville, Ky., is just now excited over a strange prediction by a young German lady, Miss Gertrude Chen, residing there. She claims to have been under the influence of spirits, or mysterious influences, at intervals for twelve years. She was thrown into a trance, she says, when seven years of age, and again when she was fourteen, lasting for seven months, during which she predicted the Franco-German war and its results. Recently she had been thrown into a similar state, and on Friday last made the following prediction in the presence and hearing of a reporter of the Louisville Commercial.

"In seven weeks from to-day (March 24th) a war sign will appear in the heavens, which will last fifteen weeks and then cease. This will be the forerunning of a terrible war between the whites and blacks in the United States. The first battle in the war of races will be fought in April, 1872, and the war will be brief, but terribly bloody. After this war has ceased three years another war sign will appear in the heavens, indicating a renewal of the present war in Europe. This war will last about three years, and all Prussia will glorify. Nine years after this war ceases, another sign will appear in the heavens above the whole world, which will forewarn people all over the world of a religious war. This will be terrible, even unto one part as unto another of the whole face of the world. It will last nine years, and will temporarily cease for seven years, when boasts wearing seven horns, each of the form of a huge sabre, will appear to the world in large numbers, and the people inhabiting the world will stand in fear. The oceans will become red, and no vessel can stand upon their face. Men will cease to write. Ten years after the appearance of this beast upon earth, a cross will appear upon the face of the sun, and although the people were surprised to see the moon cover the sun, they will be still more surprised when they see this. This cross will cover the sun for seven years, when God Almighty will destroy the earth. My friends take warning."

REMEMBER!—This Hotel is on NUT STREET, at the very heart of Bus and but a few steps from the dull places of Amusement.
